TOWN COUNCIL

A special meeting of Milton town council was held on Tuesday evening last, the following members being present: Mayor Armstrong, Reeve Heslop and Councillors Ptolemy, Coulter, Gowland, Day, Denton. Moved by S. A. Fay, seconded by G. H. Dawson, that a Home Guard be formed in the Town of Milton and that all necessary communications be had with the proper Departmental authorities.—Carried.

Moved by G. G. Gowland, seconded by S. A. Fay, that the Librarian of the Milton Public Library be instructed that she has absolute discretion to refuse to issue books to any member if, for health reasons, she deems the said refusal necessary, and that the need not issue books to such member until such member produces a signed certificate from the M.O.H. that it is proper and safe to allow library books to be taken into the home of such member.—Carried.

Moved by G. H. Dawson, seconded by H. Coulson, that the third reading of By-law 730 be suspended pertaining to widening and paving Main Street, and that the by-law be submitted to the tax payers to raise the necessary money by debentures before proceeding with the work.—Motion Lost.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH EVENING AUXILIARY

The closing meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of St. Paul's United Church was held on Tuesday evening, June 4, when Mrs. T. A. Hutchinson was hostess to more than 55 members and guests. Mrs. Kitchener, the president, was in the chair, and after the opening hymn had been sung, followed by a prayer by Mrs. Willmott, Mrs. Kitchener welcomed the guests and friends. Miss Field was then asked to give a short resume of the Society and she told how the Auxiliary had originally been formed as a Circle, and named several of the superintendents who had been by the Society had later changed its name to W. A. Mrs. Devlin conducted the devotional period and read from the 6th chapter of Isaiah and based her remarks from these verses in the bible and ended with short prayer. Mrs. Hartwick, a guest from Toronto, sang two very beautiful numbers, "The Old Road," by John Pringle Smith, and "The Garden of Gethsemane," then read short extracts from the Missionary Monthly Magazine. Mrs. Hutchinson was asked to introduce her sister-in-law, the guest speaker, Mrs. McClelland, from Toronto, who had chosen for her subject, "The Loveliness of Jesus and His Jewels."

Mrs. McClelland told of the many jewels Christ had given to us—the flowers, the birds and beasts, the stars and the sun in the heavens, the precious stones below the earth's surface, and loveliest jewel of all, Jesus, and His Loveliness in God's sight. Just as the beautiful and delicately scented water lily grows from a bed of thick black mud, and the lovely oyster gives the lustrous pearl, so Christ chooses His jewels and saints from the most humble of birth and from sinners. Mrs. Hartwick then sang again "Danny Boy," accompanied as before by Mrs. K. Foster. Mrs. A. L. MacNabb voiced the appreciation and thanks of the Society to both Mrs. McClelland and Mrs. Hartwick, and beautiful bouquets of flowers were presented to both these ladies by Donna June Hutchinson and Joan Goodchild. Mrs. A. R. McDonald, who had recently left to reside in Toronto, was also presented with a bouquet. As the conclusion of the meeting, Donna June Hutchinson and Joan Goodchild, Mrs. A. R. McDonald, who had recently left to reside in Toronto, was also presented with a bouquet. As the conclusion of the meeting, Donna June Hutchinson and Joan Goodchild, Mrs. A. R.
