TOWN COUNCIL

Council met Tuesday night, members present.

Mr. Stedler, Jr., asked the council for information regarding the sale of certain lands and property in Milton. Council agreed to sell if he could pay a substantial down payment.

Mr. Sims asked if he could buy a home from the town. Property in question was under the jurisdiction of the Milton Housing Commission. This matter was to be covered at next meeting pending information.

It was decided after discussion that the Clerk obtain information regarding the passing of a by-law re. building in residential areas.

Councillor Dawson explained "As there is no building restrictions in the town, a person could buy a lot in any residential section, build a cheap two-story shack or home. This certainly would be a detriment to that district."

The W. I. of Scotch Block requested and received a rebate of $5 upon rental of town hall on evening of Milton Playhouse band.

Harry Fetter was appointed caretaker of the Arena for season 1940-41.

It was agreed that a certain lot in Milton be sold to Fred Morley for $25.

The I.O.O.F. was granted $25 to assist that Society in buying Christmas box for the needy.

Council decided to decorate Main Street with evergreens and colored lights for the Christmas season.

FEED GUNS FIRST

Former President Herbert Hoover has a new article on "Feeding Hungry Europe" in Collier's. Until he can find some way of keeping the food in the hands of German-controlled and German-occupied countries out of the hands of the Nazis, Mr. Hoover would be better employed trying to feed British guns as a means of beating Hitler and his bringing peace and plenty to Europe again—St. Thomas Times-Journal.
