COUNTY COUNCIL

county council was held in Milton on Tuesday, with all members presthe Warden, Leslie Kerns, of Oakville, tendering his resignation as a member of the Good Roads Committee.

It was moved by Mr. Gilbert, seconded by Mr. Campbell, that Mr. Finney be appointed to the Good Roads Committee for five years. Before the motion could be put before the counci Warden, I would like to voice my jection to this appointment. I have nothing whatever against Mr. Finney, very well treated. He has been Warden, chairman of the finance commit mittees. I think these things should be handed around more impartiall I have been a member of this council for seven years, and in that time it has never yet been my privilege to serve on the road committee. I think there are too many committee fees and that some of the municipalities

The annual congregational meeting f St. David's Church was held on Friday evening, Jan. 24th. Reports of the year's work in every department were given and every one showed increased interest, encouragement and a balance on the right side. After the business was over, the chairman, Mr. E. D. Mahon, called Rev. Mr. Lawson to come forward when Mr. R. C.

Menzies read an address, and Mrs. J R. McPhail presented him with a gold gaweya and St. David's Churches were conducted by Mr. Lawson, who is leaving to accept the pastorate of St. Andrew's Church in Kitchener. Mr. Lawson has been the minister in these churches for the past four and a hall years, and besides being an able preacher was keenly interested in every branch of the church's work especially the Sunday School and Young People's Society, where he gave unsparingly of his time and counsel those present, and his farewell address
