WEDDINGS

CRAWFORD—HARE.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the United Church, Springfield, on Tuesday, June 10th, when Miss Phoebe Lillian Hare, of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hare, of Milton, was married to Mr. Frances L. Crawford, of Milton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford, Arkansas. Rev. Ed. Harris, of Norval, officiated, brother of the bride, officiated. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left on a trip to the Maritimes. They will reside in Milton.

CLARRIDGE—HARVEY.

A pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, here, on Saturday, June 7th, when Kathleen Mabel Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harvey, Martin St., became the bride of William Ivan Clarridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarridge, Robert St. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white net and lace over satin ensemble with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Miss Yetta Ervin was maid-of-honor, wearing an angelical gown with turquoise blue net. Her bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Egan, wore an angelical gown with pink net. Mr. McVillie Dell officiated. Miss Doreen Clarridge, cousin of the groom, played the wedding music. The bride's mother wore navy blue ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother was gowned in a costume of haiti violet with deep rose accessories. She had a corsage of pink roses. After a buffet luncheon the couple left on a motor trip, the bride wearing rose wool with blue and white accessories. On their return they will reside in Milton. Guests were present from Clinton, Landsborough, Cheltenham, Toronto, Hamilton and Milton.

JOHNSON—FRY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Leonard White, Robert Street, here, on Saturday afternoon, when Eileen Margaret Fry, Georgetown, became the bride of Frederick Johnson, Georgetown. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. Leonard White, Milton, and the late Joseph Stanley Fry, of Glen Williams, the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Georgetown. Rev. John B. Moore officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, F. Leonard White, wearing a gown of ivory embroidered net and fingertip veil with a halo of net and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of apple blossom pink roses with white bouvardia. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Lola Fry, Georgetown, who wore a gown of pink net with embroidered trim and a pink flower hat. She carried a bouquet of apple blossom pink roses and bouvardia. Mr. Ed. Harris, of Georgetown, was the best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace; to the bridesmaid a gold locket and chain, and to the best man a leather wallet. A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's mother wore a dress of navy printed sheer with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. The groom's mother wore a two-tone ensemble of mauve with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas. The home was decorated with pink and white snapdragon, peonies and ferns, with turquoise blue, with pink accessories. On their return they will reside in Georgetown. HALL REUNION

The annual Hall Reunion was held on Saturday, June 7th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, 7th line, Trafalgar, marking the 50th year of getting together of the Hall Clan to celebrate the coming of Wesley Hall from the province of Quebec to Upper Canada and settling on the Credit river at a place now called Churchville in 1818. They were formerly United Empire Loyalists who moved from Pennsylvania to Quebec somewhere between 1774 and 1778. Cousins were present this year from Toronto, Brampton, Churchville, Streetsville, Erin, Guelph, Morriston, Hagersville, Milton and New York city. The first reunion was held at the home of the home of the late George B. Hall, Trafalgar, in 1891.
