OBITUARY

MRS. W. J. SARGENT. The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Sargent, of Paterson, took place June 30th. Formerly Jennie Scott, she was married twice, her second marriage being about seven years ago to W. J. Sargent. She was 73 years old and had lived in ill-health for some time. Mrs. Sargent was a member of the Church and also assisted in the work there. Interment was made in Omagh Cemetery and the funeral service was held by Rev. D. Facey, of Palerme United Church, and Rev. Edward Rigby, of St. Luke's Church.

ADAM ALEXANDER.

Adam Alexander, an old and highly esteemed resident of Nassagaweya township, died at his home, near Kelsco, last Friday, following a short illness. Deceased was born in 1867, and he showed his genius by harnessing the water from the nearby mountain to operate machinery in his home and barns.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. W. R. G. Johnson, and two sons, Ross, of Burlington, and Duff, at home.

The funeral, which took place on Monday afternoon to Evergreen Cemetery, was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. M. Jones, of Elmville, formerly of Campbellville.

The Church of Christ, Omagh

The church at Omagh is conducting again this year a three-week Bible school at the home of W. B. Johnston, R.R. 4, Milton. This is the fifth consecutive year of the school. Deceased a vacation at an opportunity to receive instruction in Bible truth. Some 20 children and young people were enrolled the first day, July 6th, which is probably the best beginning in the history of the school. It is expected the enrollment will double by the end of the second week. The school is operated on a non-profit basis, a small sum being paid each week by each pupil to pay for board and defray expenses incidental to the school. Glass work covers a variety of subjects, lessons in Genesis; the Life of Christ; Church History; Bible History and Geography; Song Drills, etc. The school is supervised by R. Crumbliss, R. Box, Toronto; W. Novak, Hamilton (evangelist), and Mrs. Grumblish do the main portion of the teaching. In connection with the school there are preaching services at the meeting house each Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and each Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 p.m. Brethren Box, Novak, and Crumbliss preach one of the evenings each week. On Sunday afternoon there is usually a song service on the lawn of the church home. Visitors are welcome.

The Mistake Critic

Having suffered now and then ourselves in like manner, we admire the stand of a rural newspaper publisher who because tired of being put on the spot because of the errors that creep in his paper. The Friarman cites the notice which he finally spread on page 1: "We do make mistakes occasionally and we would be pleased to find the merchant or the clerk who never made a mistake in putting up an order for a lawyer never made a mistake through his own errors; a doctor who never made a wrong diagnosis; a radio announcer who never mispronounced a word; a delivery man who never left a parcel at the wrong house; a singer who never struck a false note; a postal employee who never put mail in the wrong box; a woman who never forgot to put salt in the food she was cooking; a man to put into the pot of hot water. Bring in such paragons and we will bow to their criticisms of our newspaper. But we should like to see them first and determine whether they are human."

WHERE CREDIT IS DUE

We like to give credit where credit is due and therefore we commend the Department of Highways on the attention now being given No. 25 Highway from Acton to Milton. We do not know what the final result will be or how marked the improvement. But when road machinery and repairs are actually put into operation, it is almost a sure sign that it can't be worse.

The section of the highway that runs from the end of the pavement to the town limits should also be put into condition at the same time. Council would perhaps do well to arrange with the same contractors to complete the job. Milton also has some badly broken surface on its section. It would be terrible and unnecessary if the highway was put in excellent condition and the municipalities neglected their connections.—Acton Free Press.
