LOCAL NEWS

"V" stands for VICTORY!
People who are up and doing are never down and done.

Civic Holiday is the next holiday—Monday, August 4th.

Please send in items for THE CHAMPION early in the week.

Lawns and gardens made a splendid comeback after the recent rain.

Never quarrel before company—and remember that two's company.

As Sam Weller remarked on a notable occasion, "Spill it with a 'V'."

Mark these dates: MILTON FAIR will be held on SEPT. 25th and 27th, this year.

Street Fair, Milton, Aug. 21st, sponsored by the Legion and Milton Red Cross.

GARDEN PARTY A GRAND SUCCESS.—Threatening weather did not affect the attendance which over fifteen hundred people were present at the garden party sponsored by the Canadian Club of Milton on the spacious and beautiful lawn at Col. E. M. Lott's residence, Market Street, last Tuesday night. There was fun for all and an exceptionally good entertainment featuring Doc Lindsay and Ken Sobie, who drew big contestants from the audience and plied them with questions. A record was made and a re-broadcast over C.F.R.B. Wednesday evening on the Alka-Seltzer program "Did I Say That?" The Car Bro. musical comedy act was well taken as was each act on the program. The other entertainers were Miss Elizabeth Pettifer, 13-year-old violinist from Guelph; Her Mulock, tenor soloist, Eaton Memorial Church. He also acted as Master of Ceremonies and Chas. Coville, who entertained with magic and ventriloquy. The program was a real treat and a wheel of fortune. Lucky draw winners: First, Marjorie Vanleet; second, Lloyd May, and Miss A. Martin won third. The crack Ladies' Scots Regt. Band entertained with music. It is expected the Club will be able to send about $500 to the Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund. C. S. Hatley, president of the Canadian Club, extends their appreciation to the following for their assistance in making this fête a success: The Red Cross, John Milton Chapter, O.D.E., Eastern Division, Milton Legion, the Lions Club of Burlington for booths and games. Lorne Scots Band, M. E. Nixon for closing theatre, J. Mountain and H. A. Cavell for loud speakers and music, to Col. and Mrs. F. M. Lott for their kind hospitality, W. W. and William Proud, Palermo, to William Reginald Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Dalton, Burlington.

LOCAL NEWS

At the June meeting held at Mrs. H. B. Browne's the members of The Earl of Glamis Chapter were guests and provided a delightful program. Other guests were the Public School pupils who had won the prizes given by the Chapter during the year. Mrs. W. B. Clements, the Regent, presented prizes to the following in Grade 8 or Greater Proficiency—Mary Joan King, Marjorie Bowering and Ethel Sherin. The Progress prize winners were Wilma Maskell, Erna Cox and Shirley Elliott. For English History in Grade 5—Mary Joan King and in Grade 7 for General Proficiency—Joan Nixon.

The Chapter has sent a box to each Milton soldier upon his arrival overseas, and at the July meeting at Mrs. Nixon's plans were made to send boxes to the Lorne Scots from Milton and all other Milton men who have recently arrived overseas. On July 7, 230 scarves, 5 sweaters, 2 helmet caps 15 quilts, 22 clothing 41 articles, mitts 1 pair, hospital shoes 16 pairs, seamen's jackets 2, and turtle necks 2. From the W. A. of Grace Church was received 3 quilts and from the "Dime Club"—14 pairs of hospital shoes and 9 articles of clothing.

Branch 136, Canadian Legion

At the last regular meeting of the Legion, Branch 136, letters were read from the following local boys who are overseas, thanking the branch for cigarettes and other favors received: Pte. Douglas Stover, Lt.-Opl. George Smille, Cpl. Brach, Pte. Nelson Lott, Capt. Bruce Fitzgerald, Pte. John Turner.

It has been the custom of Branch 136 to send cigarettes to our local boys overseas at different periods. These letters are a few of the many that have been received by us.

We write in such a spirit of optimism and cheerfulness that it is our duty to take a lesson from them, and I can assure you and all that they deeply appreciate everything that is being done for them.

IN MEMORIAM

Greenlee—In loving memory of a dear sister and aunt, Margaret Jane Greenlee, who passed away Aug. 2nd, 1940.

In our hearts she is fondly remembered. Sweet memories cling to her name; Those who loved her in life sincerely Still love her in death just the same.—Ever remembered by her brother George, nieces and nephews.

Transom—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Transom, who passed away July 31, 1938.

Time speeds on, three years have passed Since death its gloom, its shadows cast With our hearts where all seemed bright.

And took from us a shining light. The flowers we placed upon your grave May wither and decay, But love for you who sleeps beneath, Will never fade away.—Kindly remembered by wife, daughters and sons.
