LOCAL NEWS

Only 5 more Shopping Days before Christmas.

Milton stores will be kept open every night from now until Christmas.

Christmas concerts are popular items in some sections most every evening.

PLEASE note that THE CHAMPION will be published next week on WEDNESDAY, Dec. 24. Advertisers note.

The Christmas Concert given by the members of the Milton Gospel Tabernacle on Monday night was a grand success in every way.

BOARDERS WANTED—Board reasonable, with all conveniences. Also room for cars. Apply Champion Office.

S.O.E.—Winning draw numbers in contest for fowl on Dec. 16th: 1-702; 2-957; 3-899; 4-878; 5-804; 6-557; 7-568; 8-477.

Mrs. T. D. Bennett, of Perdue, Sack, arrived in town on Tuesday to spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Hume, Manawood.

Mrs. F. Leonard White, who recently underwent a serious operation in Galt Hospital, expects to return home at the end of this week.

S. S. No. 6, Christie School concert in Christie Sunday School on Monday evening, Dec. 22nd, at 8 o'clock. S.T. Admission 25c, children free.

ATTENTION Ladies and gentlemen's clothing alterations, repairs, etc. by E. Wilkinson, practical tailor, C.P. R. Street, South, Milton.

ONLY $2.00 PER YEAR.—A gift that will be appreciated 52 weeks is a subscription to the home paper, THE CANADIAN CHAMPION.

To those who are inquiring we are told Acton Arena will be operated this year and ice will be put in just as soon as weather permits.—Free Press.

To simplify your Christmas Gift problems, let it be War Savings Stamps or Certificates this year. Special Christmas folders are available at the Post Office.

All ex-service men's children up to 12 years are invited to the Christmas tree at the Legion Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 23, at 8 p.m. given by members of Legion and C.A.T.S.

The staff of THE CHAMPION has received a nice Christmas card from W. J. Norrington, who is stationed with the Argyle and Southern Highlanders at Kingston, Jamaica.

Herbert Reynolds, M. Reynolds and friend, Lochie Sheriff, of Kirkland Lake, visited their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barde, over the weekend.

ATTENTION! Mark your calendar for Thursday, Jan. 15th, 1912, for the three-act play, "GINDERALLA O'REILLY," at Princess Theatre, sponsored by John Milton Chapter, I. O. D. E.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. Norman Harvey and family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy in their recent bereavement, the death of Mrs. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Mae Jessie, to L. A. C. James Gordon Marshall, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Milton, the wedding to take place latter part of December.

Notice to Hydro Consumers.—Owing to increased demand for power due to war industries, Hydro consumers are asked to use decorative lighting only during the period Dec. 24, 41, to Jan. 1, '42, inclusive. Please do your bit to help this emergency.

THE CHAMPION wishes to congratulate the Brampton Conservator which has started its sixty-eighth year of continuous service to Brampton and district. And here's hoping Messrs. Charters will continue on the road to success in publishing a first class weekly newspaper.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS.—Get your Gifts of Goggles, Rubbers, Motor Boots, Overshoes, Ski Boots, Flight Boots, Slippers, Rompers and Skating Outfits from TOM DEAR'S Shoe Store, Main Street, Milton. Skates and skis sharpened and boots & shoes repaired.

VULCANIZING!—Old Tires are a valuable, if repaired properly. Have them retreaded and get many miles more running. We are equipped to take care of all passenger car tires and some truck. Some used tires for sale, which includes one real good 34x7 heavy duty. H. A. Cavell, 245, Milton.

BRUCE MACNABB SAFE.—A day after receiving a fibrous word of his safety Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon MacNabb, Milton, received a cable from their son, Set, Bruce C. MacNabb, wireless air gunner in the R. C. A. F., sending Christmas greetings. According to letters received by his parents, Sgt. MacNabb had seen action over Germany several times.

WINS HONORS AT CHICAGO SHOW.—W. O. Brownbridge, Georgetown farmer, won distinctive honors at the recent Chicago Livestock and Grain Show, when he took top honors in the aster division for alfalfa, and won the reserve championship, competing with winners from the other divisions. Mr. Brownbridge was carrying on a family record, as his brother, Mr. T. J. Brownbridge headed the eastern division in the same grain seven years ago. He has received numerous letters of congratulation since his success.—Georgetown Herald.

With Christmas just ONE week from to-day, Thursday, Milton stores are doing an enormous business in gifts that are attracting numerous shoppers to the county town. Read the ads, in this issue of THE CHAMPION.

The John Milton Chapter, I.O.D.E., need good used clothing, goloshes, and shoes for their local work at Christmas time. Anyone having articles they wish to donate for this purpose kindly leave with Mrs. M. E. Gowan and Miss Blain not later than Monday, Dec. 22nd.

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN.—Monday evening, December 22nd, at 8 o'clock, at the Princess Theatre, a show program pictures and entertainment, candy and good things for children. Santa Claus will arrive in time to help distribute the bags. Donations for the above entertainment will be gladly received at the Bank of Toronto.

The bingo in the I.O.O.F. hall Monday night was a great success. The entire proceed, which amounted to $107.65, was donated to the Red Cross to be used for Russian relief. Mr. Sam Smith, of the Model Knitting Mills, donated all the prizes, which included sweaters for men and ladies. He also made a few remarks at the intermission expressing his sincere confidence in an allied victory, and promised that if the war was over in a year he would give Milton the biggest party it ever had in its history. Reeve Heslop moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Smith, which was heartily responded to by the large crowd.

INDUCTION SERVICE

A special service of Institution and the Rev. S. A. Kirk, L.Th., was inducted as Rector of Grace Church, Milton, and All Saints, Milton Heights, in the unavoidable absence of the Bishop of Niagara, the Dean of the diocese, Very Rev. R. H. Waterman, conducted the service, assisted by the Venerable Archdeacon W. F. Wallace, the Venerable Archdeacon G. Scovill and Rural Dean Rev. W. G. O. Thomson, supported by ten of the neighboring clergy.

The service was most impressive and inspiring, and very helpful to all were the words spoken by the Rev. Ramsay Armitage, M.A., D.D., Principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, in his sermon.

A reception was held in the Parish Hall after the service, during which the Rector and Mrs. Kirk met many parishioners and friends.

Hockey.

MILTON 4—CALEDONIA 1.

Sparked by Left Winger Jack Coxe, Milton juniors pumped home four last-period goals to score a 4-1 victory over Caledonia in a junior "O" pre-season tournament game at Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, Monday night. Coxe accounted for three tallies in the final drive that erased a 1-0 deficit and gave the Miltonians a well-earned win, which eliminated Caledonia from the tournament, while Milton advanced to the third round.
