ST. PAUL'S CHURCH W.M.S.

Mrs. W. B. Clements was hostess to the W.M.S. members who met for their September rally at Clemons brook, Mrs. Galbraith, the president, welcomed the members and friends, and the opening hymn, "What a Friend we have in Jesus," was followed by a table reading from the last 200 when Mrs. Earl Wilson gave a heartening talk on trusting our Lord for strength and courage in time of trouble.

Mrs. Percy Lamb offered intercessory prayer in which the members joined silently.

Mrs. R. M. Clements introduced our guest speaker, a former missionary to India, a presbyterian representative, now residing in Burlington. In Mrs. Chapman's opening remarks she mentioned what a privilege it was to meet in such beautiful surroundings of quietness and breath-taking loveliness. She said "The New World Order," spoken of by so many to-day was truly Christ's order, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added." Mrs. Chapman, who is intensely interested in the present condition in India, urged prayer for Sir Stafford Cripps, and the British Government to give down as patriots because of their faith in God and laboring among illiterate people, 300,000,000 of whom are unable to read or write. By this New World Order, Christians can radiate the love of God by sharing our blessings in saddened homes. Mrs. Chapman, in closing, suggested that each read "Twilight of Liberty," followed by prayer.

Mrs. Galloway then sang "The Shepherd of the Little Black Sheep," after which Mrs. Galbraith voiced the sentiments of each one present by thanking Mrs. Chapman for the inspirational and interesting address. The ladies then enjoyed a social half hour. The October meeting will be held at Mrs. Dale's home.

Mrs. Walter Bemrose, organist, rendered the wedding music. Mrs. Reg. Robbins, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Nancy Chapman being bridesmaid. Harold Clements, brother of the groom, was best man. During the signing of the register Miss Berice Clements sang "Because." The altar was beautifully arranged with gladioli and other seasonal flowers. A dainty reception was held on the lawn of the bride's home. WHAT EVERYONE CAN DO

People ask what they can do to help their country win the war. Perhaps the most important thing is to comply with all requirements and requests of the government, so far as is reasonable and possible. The government asks people to save and turn over such things as rubber articles, scrap iron and steel, tin cans, etc., and many more things needed in war production. It asks people to co-operate so far as possible with measures aimed to keep the cost of living down, and prevent the inflation which threatens disaster.

It asks for a cheerful spirit among the people, an avoidance of unnecessary complaint, a willingness to make reasonable sacrifices. The government authorities do not wish to impose unnecessary hardship and distress. They are willing to listen to all reasonable complaints.

In so far as is reasonably possible, we should cheerfully comply with government requests. The government, the army, the navy, the air force, and all war production plants, need to feel that the whole country is backing them up. If we can have that unity of sentiment and action, it will promote the winning of the war, and bring our soldier boys home at an earlier date.
