OAKVILLE

Mrs. William Van Fleet, of Oakville, died on the bus at the Toronto terminal on Thursday evening at 11.15.

Mr. Louis Ling, of Hamilton, brother of Mr. Oral Ling, of Oakville, received fatal injuries while working at the Proctor and Gamble plant in Hamilton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Farr, Colborne Street, West, received word Monday that their son, Flying Officer Harry Farr, 27, is reported missing after an operational flight overseas on October 23rd.

The Fifth Victory Loan drive is half over and the people of Oakville and South Trafalgar are responding in the spirit that has made this district a by-word for patriotism.—Record-Star.

GEORGETOWN

As the town debentures are coming due soon, it was unanimously decided by the council to credit the account of the municipality with $15,000 proceeds of the sale of the 4th Victory Loan issue of bonds.

Four sons, constituting the whole family of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Mac Kenzie, Guelph St., are members of the Royal Canadian Air Force. All the boys are natives of Georgetown, and attended Public and High School here.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England in Georgetown, was fittingly celebrated by a banquet on Monday night, to which over eighty people, members, ex-members and guests sat down.—Herald.

BURLINGTON

The town hall was filled on Tuesday evening to welcome to Burlington Claire Wallace, the well-known radio commentator, who was here under the auspices of the local branch of the Women's Institute.

Vernon Scott, a local resident, has been appointed to the local police force to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Constable Firth in September.

Interrupting two safe-crackers in the Aldershot at 1 o'clock on Saturday morning, James Vise, the night watchman, slammed and locked the door when one of them threatened him with a gun. Both had escaped through an open window when called by the watchman, arrived a few minutes later.

On Friday of this week Mayor J. Gordon Blair, Reeve John Blair, Deputy Reeve Craig, Cr. Leather and the town solicitor are going to Toronto to meet with the Minister of Welfare in order to reach a settlement with the government over the amount owing by the town as the result of a relief fraud here two years ago.—Gazette.

NASSAGAWEYA

The Anniversary Services held in Ebenezer United Church last Sunday morning and evening, had fairly large congregations present for both services. Rev. J. B. Moore, B.A., of St. Paul's United Church, Milton, being the special minister for the occasion. His sermons were greatly appreciated by large gatherings.

On Monday evening the anniversary supper was held. There was a large crowd present to enjoy the good things provided by the ladies of the congregation, and also to enjoy the very fine program.

Mr. John McCuen of lot 27, concession 5, Nassagaweya, passed away rather suddenly on Monday afternoon, November 1st, at his home. He had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stokes and family of Campbellville, visited relatives and friends at Knatchbull on Sunday last.

Mrs. Wallace King of Campbellville visited relatives in Knatchbull last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black of Guelph visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

Memorial services will be held next Sunday afternoon at the Cenotaph and the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church in connection with the Annual Remembrance Day Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall and family of Guelph visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Golithy of Toronto, visited friends in Nassagaweya on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harris and family of Acton attended Anniversary Services at Ebenezer and visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freeman and son of Stratford, visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

HORNBY

Hallowe'en passed off rather quietly in this locality this year. The same pranks which have been indulged in for many generations were once more repeated.

Some celebrants seemed not to be satisfied with one night's fun? but returned for a repeat performance on Sunday night.

We were treated to a real thunderstorm last Monday night, or early Tuesday morning. The weather-wise say this presages the coming of more warm weather. We hope they will not prove false prophets.

The Women's Association met on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Floyd Downs.

The Red Cross branch of Hornby Women's Institute packed fifteen Christmas boxes last week for local boys and former members of the community now serving overseas.

The Orange Hall was well filled on Tuesday evening by friends and neighbors who gathered to shower congratulations and gifts on the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Neelands and children spent Sunday last at Mr. Lindsay Neelands.

We extend congratulations to Carmen Cantelon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cantelon, on winning second prize in the Halton County Public School Quiz contest held in the Town Hall, Milton last Friday evening.

Church anniversaries are still being held. The next one in this locality will be at Ashgrove on Sunday, November 14th. Rev. John Ward, of Rockwood will conduct the morning service at 11 o'clock and Rev. F. J. Dunlop of Norval, will be in charge of the evening service at 8 o'clock. All friends are cordially invited to attend these services.

S. S. No. 7

The Hallowe'en party and Junior Red Cross meeting held by Mrs. Stewart and her pupils Friday afternoon was well attended by mothers and pre-school children, with George Service as chairman. The business part of the meeting was followed by the parade and judging of costumes. Mrs. Stan. Robinson, Mrs. Walter Freeman and Miss Minnie Frank acted as judges and those Don McMillan, a negro as first and Hazel Kennedy, a witch, as second. They remarked on the beauty and originality of all the costumes. Little Donna McMillan as Bo-Deep deserved honorable mention. Games were played and a Hallowe'en trick "Do you want to see the Queen of Sheba?" was played on the guests by the children. A game of soft ball was played while Mrs. Stewart and several mothers prepared hot-dogs for lunch. After these were disposed of, everyone received a few candies, daintily arranged in orange and black color scheme. The mothers always enjoy this afternoon each year with the children and their teacher.

Mrs. Joseph Frank spent the weekend in Guelph, visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sicox and other friends.

The Busy Bees Club had more money donations to be added to their annual sale. Mr. George Finney donated the sum of $5.00. Mrs. C. E. Davenport, $1.00; and Mrs. Wm. Bular, 70c. These donations are appreciated and will be again donated for whatever the club feels is most needed at the time of their monthly meeting.

This correspondent wishes Mr. Dills all success in his new adventure. It takes something to undertake an experiment in the business line and when it is accompanied by travelling No. 25 highway from Acton to Milton Well! ! !

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davenport, Eleanor and Martin visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Noble, in Guelph on Sunday.

L.A.C. Alex. Job, Guelph, spent the weekend at his home here.

UNDERGROUND PRESSES MADE OF ALUMINUM

The Office of War Information in Washington has disclosed that compact 2 1/2 pound aluminum printing presses have been smuggled into Europe to enable the underground movements in the enslaved countries to carry on their own propaganda war against the Nazis.

These all-aluminum presses can be set up in four minutes. They are hand operated and capable of producing 1,200 copies of news sheets an hour. Weighing only 2 1/2 pounds in their suitcase containers and using a miniature aluminum typesetting outfit, these presses are playing a vital part in underground movements in Europe.

It is a very closely guarded secret as to how these presses get into the right hands, but they typify the uses that aluminum is being put to help win the war.

LIMEHOUSE

Over three hundred pounds of parcels containing soldiers' comforts have gone through the local post office during October. We hope that they will arrive safely to help make Christmas away from home a little more merry for our local boys on active service.

A dance, under the auspices of the W. I. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick on Friday evening. An enjoyable time was spent by all, dancing to music supplied by Garnet Norton and Carl Karns with Jos. Scott as floor manager. Proceeds go to the W. I. war work fund.

The Girls' Lookout Club met at the home of Miss Doris Harding on Saturday. Plans were made for their annual bazaar to be held at Mrs. H. Norton's, early in December.

Lance Sgt. and Mrs. Harry Smethurst called on friends in the village one day last week while Harry is on leave from Sussex, N.B.

Mrs. W. I. Newton of Barrie spent the week-end with the Newton's here. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble of Cheltenham, spent the week-end with the Meredith's.

Miss Brenda Robinson of Georgetown spent the week-end with Miss Mary Kirkpatrick.

Hallowe'en was rather quiet in the village this year.

Wanton Destruction of Tombstones in Dublin Cemetery

Police are investigating the damage in Dublin Cemetery, where recently twenty of the head stones have been knocked over and some of them broken. The damage was not reported until this week, but police believe some of it was done a week ago.

Just why anyone would go into a sacred spot like Dublin Cemetery, where the earthly remains of many of the pioneers who cleared and settled this district are buried, and cause such wanton destruction is difficult to understand.

The general public will hope that those responsible for the destruction are apprehended and such an example made that destruction of this kind will not occur again. It is only the lowest type of mentality that will stoop to such depredations.

KNOW A BLACK MARKET? HERE'S HOW TO TELL

Perhaps you think a Black Market Operator looks and acts like a bootlegger of prohibition days—a swarthy fellow with two days' growth of beard. Or perhaps you think of pre-war speakeasies with peep-holes in their doors.

A Black Market isn't that easy to identify. It may be the gas station where you've dealt for the past ten years, where you can get an extra gallon or two without a coupon. Or perhaps it's the corner grocer who gives you an extra can of this or that without a coupon. Or the butcher who gives you a choice cut—of course his price is above the W.P.T.B. ceiling. Yes, it's as easy and simple as that, and plenty of folks buy and sell that way without meaning the least harm. But it's a lot of little things like this that make Black Markets.

Yet not one in ten realizes, when he gets one of these hard to resist special favors, that he's making the job of winning the war that much harder.

BOW AND ARROW HUNTERS TO EMULATE ROBIN HOOD

Observers say that a lot of Army Commando training really gets back to the primitive days and it is probable that a lot of citizens generally will be glad to accommodate themselves to pioneer methods before the war ends. Scarcity of sporting ammunition presents a bit of a difficulty to outdoorsmen with a few days spare time in the autumn period and the desire to take a shot at a deer or bird. As an example to what this difficulty may lead to, E. G. Poole, who is the out-of-doors expert for the Canadian National Railways, recently received an inquiry for information as to the source of supplies for bow and arrow hunting, as well as the names of individuals capable of providing instruction in the use of these weapons. Mr. Poole furnished the information but, so far, he has not received any news as to the success of the modern bowmen.

MONROE, N.C. (CP)—The Monroe Telephone company has asked the State Utilities Commission for permission to cancel all charges to subscribers for the month of September. Abnormal profits originating in the nearby camp prompted the company's action.

DARNING AND FARMING

HULL, England. (CP)—Potatoes, cabbages and other vegetables are growing on scraggy land around an Ordnance Depot in the north of England because some A.T.S. had a brain wave. They heard that soldiers at the depot were complaining about holes in their socks so they said, "You cultivate the land and we'll darn your socks."

THIS WEEK

Specially Written for The Canadian Champion BY JOHN C. SCOTT Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP)—Ontario provincial police will no longer obey orders issued by the federal oil controller in the matter of padlocking premises in the province unless directed to do so in a court of law.

This was made clear in a directive to the police issued by Attorney-General Blackwell which informed all officers that they "shall no longer carry out any order issued by the oil controller to padlock the premises of any individual or company in the province." A "grave injustice" may have been done the citizens by such action, the order to the police said.

It added however, that Ontario police are to continue to assist the oil controller in doing everything possible to enforce the speed limit on the highways, to prevent bootlegging of motor fuels, the trafficking in gasoline coupons, the sale of motor fuel during prohibited hours, "and in such other public ways, except padlocking, as may be in the public interest."

"Successful law enforcement in the final analysis depends on public support both for law and the method of its enforcement, and the Attorney-General for Ontario feels very strongly that the method of enforcing the regulations of the office of the oil controller on evidence received and accepted by the oil control office is not acceptable to the public," Mr. Blackwell said.

Agriculture Minister Kennedy thinks an efficiently-operated county unit system in Ontario would place the province's farmers in an advantageous position when peace comes.

The Ontario government has an eye on post-war markets in its plan to set up the unit system, Col. Kennedy said as he announced that the system—designed to bring the principle of co-operative action to the farmer—will move toward realization at a conference of county and township council representatives in Toronto on Monday, Nov. 15.

"The county council and the township council are closer to the farmer than any other body and we want to get representation on the county unit committees that will speak the voice of the men in agriculture," Col. Kennedy said.

The report of the agricultural committee, set up recently at a conference of farmers and farm bodies, will serve as the blueprint for the county units. The report, covering all phases of agriculture, is in the course of preparation.

Each of the 38 counties in Ontario will have a unit committee which will be responsible for agriculture in its particular county. The system is aimed at increased production of foodstuffs, more efficient marketing, eradication of diseases, improving methods of soil conservation, better quality in products, increased prices and the solving of the storage problems.

A $50 Victory Bond—Fifth Loan issue—is on its way to Russia, addressed to the famous Marshal Timoshenko.

The bond is a gift from Russtabor Steve Yuicyezyn, a resident of London, Ont., who walked into Victory Loan headquarters, slapped down five $10-bills and asked for a bond for his hero. Details were soon arranged and the bond started on its long trip.

FITNESS OF THINGS

The Irishman was relating his adventures in the jungle. "Ammunition, food and whiskey had run out," he said, "and we were parched with thirst." "But wasn't there any water?" "Sure; but it was no time to be thinking of cleanliness."

GROWING TOWNS

You make plants grow by giving them fertilizer and water, and by removing such obstacles as weeds that hinder their growth. So towns grow by such fertilizing processes as business enterprise and home town and residence improvements. When people discover that a town is a good place to work and do business in, such a place is likely to grow.

War-time experiences have hampered the growth of some towns, while in any community that can fit into war production the growth may be rapid, though perhaps only temporary. Wartime experiences pass, and the towns that do the most in the way of public improvements and in creating attractive homes, are the ones that can expect to grow permanently. The people who make their home places more attractive do valuable advertising for their town, which attracts the interest of all who come there.

BLIND BOYS ARE SCOUTS

Believed to be the only Troop of blind boys in the world, 15 sightless boys on the Island of Cyprus do regular scouting under a lady Scoutmaster. Several of them have gained their Swimmer's Badge, can strike a tent without help and can pitch a tent with very little help.

THE "CABLE PARADE"

CANADIAN NATIONAL Telegraph men and women call it the "cable parade," because it develops each time general leave is granted to airmen receiving instruction at one of the larger training centres in Canada.

Young men from many parts of the Empire are trained here under the Commonwealth plan. On arriving at their depot or on the eve of furlough they storm the nearest telegraph and cable offices to send messages to the folks at home.

The upper photograph shows the staff doing capacity business at one of the 1,076 Canadian National Telegraph offices while (below) other airmen outside await their turn to file messages.
