BURLINGTON

During the past few days soldiers stationed at the Farm Service Camp on Water Street, have been helping growers in the district harvest their celery crop.

At the regular meeting of the water commission, held on Friday evening last, a conference was held between the members and Ed. Sherwood on whose farm it is proposed to place a town reservoir. It was agreed that three independent men be named to arbitrate and set a price on the land needed.

At the regular meeting of the town council held on Friday evening last, Mayor Blair asked the members to give thought to the immediate necessity to the appointment of an "area forming commission," which might be termed or named "Burlington Rural Metropolitan Area Commission."—Gazette.

PALERMO

Friends of Capt. and Mrs. Herbert Burton are sorry to hear of the death in Hamilton on Monday, October 6, of Capt. Burton's father, Mr. William Burton.

The October meeting of the Palermo Women's War Service Club was held at the home of the President, Mrs. A. Cowan on Friday afternoon. Letters were read from boys overseas thanking the club for cigarettes and parcels.

Twelve Christmas parcels were sent with seven more to be packed. Mrs. H. Wilson, Mrs. S. Millard and Miss Moodie offered to pack twelve Christmas parcels for boys and girls in Canada. Cigarettes are to be sent to all boys next month.

A vote of thanks was extended the committee who were in charge of the last two parties, $79.35 being cleared. It was decided to hold another party next month.

The sewing committee reported 20 children's nighties, 19 children's garments and 3 quilts.

The school children are gathering waste paper and bottles for a salvage to be collected in the near future.

A supper meeting and conference of Halton County ministers, Sunday school superintendents and junior children's workers was held in the Palermo United Church on Tuesday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to study a program of evangelism for the boys and girls in Sunday schools. Leaders in the discussions were Rev. Clayton Searle of Fergus; Rev. Frank Cryderman of Elora and Mrs. N. B. Causland of Oakville.

A large crowd attended the banquet and dance held in Palermo Community Hall on Thursday evening by the Garage Operators Association of Halton County.

CAMPBELLVILLE

On Saturday afternoon, October 14th, the Grace Mission Band held their thanksgiving meeting at the home of Mrs. Menzies. The President, Alice Sharpe, had charge of the meeting. The Scripture Lesson was read by Ariel Mitchell, prayers were offered by Diane Mitchell and Marina Hood. The topic was given by Miss J. I. Reid and was a brief outline of the life of Mary Slessor and was very interesting. Mrs. Little told the girls a story of the "City Without Churches," this too was well told and was very interesting. The twins, Ariel and Diana Mitchell played a piano duet. Piano solos were played by Anna Early and Ariel Mitchell and all were very much appreciated. The hostess served a cup of tea and all enjoyed a nice little visit. There were twenty present. The sale of quilts and Christmas gifts were on display.

Several ladies of the W.M.S. attend the October meeting of Knox W.M.S. at the home of Mrs. Robertson in Milton last Thursday afternoon. The Campbellville members provided the program. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

The Blair Y.W. held their Thank-offering meeting at the home of Mrs. Menzies on October 21st with the president Miss Laura Black in charge. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Sadie Buck, prayer was offered by Mrs. Jas. Robertson. Mrs. Odium of Hamilton addressed the meeting and gave a very interesting talk on "Thanksgiving." Everyone was delighted with the beautiful thoughts brought out in such an interesting manner. Miss Milroy and Miss Shaver of Hamilton sang two very lovely duets. Articles for the sale, quilts and clothing for a little four-year-old girl were on display. Refreshments were served by the girls and a friendly half-hour was enjoyed.

Word has been received that Pte. Bob Snyder of Campbellville has fractured a bone in his foot while training with the paratroopers at Shilo, Man.

NASSAGAWEYA

A large gathering of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James Easterbrook of Darbyville met in the Ebenezer Church last Wednesday evening, October 18th to honor their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McPhail on their recent marriage. Games were played first, after which Rev. R. W. Pickersgill, chairman, invited Mr. and Mrs. McPhail to chairs provided for them and Mrs. B. D. Young read the address. At the proper time, Miss N. Henry and Mr. Gordon Darby presented them with an electric lamp and end table. Both Mr. and Mrs. McPhail made a fitting reply, thanking all for the beautiful gifts and the fine address. The ladies served a dainty lunch and a social time was spent.

Anniversary services are being held in Ebenezer United Church next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. Rev. R. H. Somerville of Binbrook will be the guest preacher for the occasion.

At the Ebenezer United Church parsonage on Monday, October 23rd by the Rev. R. W. Pickersgill, Miss Marion Ferguson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Ferguson, Nassagaweya, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Maude, son of Mrs. and the late Jos. W. Maude of Eramosa. Congratulations and best wishes are extended to them for a long and happy married life.

OAKVILLE

Lady Baillie has accepted the chairmanship of the 7th Victory Loan Committee for Oakville and District. Pte. Walton O. Young, 35, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Young, of Reynolds Street, has been reported missing in action on September 19th, according to word received by his parents.

Government restrictions compelled the council to reduce street lighting in the municipality early in the war, but the removal of these restrictions has been followed by prompt action on the part of the council and many new lights will be installed as quickly as possible.—Record-Star.

LOWVILLE

Large congregations attended the anniversary services held in the United Church on Sunday last, when two inspiring sermons were preached. In the morning, Rev. R. A. Steed, B.A. of Ayr a former Lowville boy was the guest speaker. In the evening Rev. R. M. Geiger, M.A. of Paris was the preacher. Special music was provided under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead. In the morning, Rev. Arthur Steed sang the "Holy City". In the evening the Quartette of Lowville gave the special music. Rev. E. M. Carter, M.A., B.D., preached at Ayr on Sunday morning and at Lynden in the evening.

Among the many visitors in Lowville on Sunday were:

Mrs. Walker with Mrs. Carter. Mr. and Mrs. Ford of Omagh with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Colling of Waterdown with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colling.

Arnold Coulson, Miss Buttenham, Mr. and Mrs. Geo Brecken and Mr. and Mrs. L. Gunby with Mr. and Mrs. Milroy of Plains, with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Coulson.

Miss Shaver and Miss Milroy of Plains with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coulson.

Mr. Guy and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ottman, of Lynden, with Mrs. Rachel Harbottle.

Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Steed, of Ayr, and Rev. R. M. Geiger, of Paris, Mr. McEdwards and Miss McKay, of Lynden, with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harbottle.

Miss Frances Wigglesworth, of Toronto, with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Readhead.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Blanchard, of Appleby and Miss McGilvray, of Moffat and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Coulson with Mr. and Mrs. Langton.

Rev. G. F. Kelly, of Lakeeld, spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harbottle.

The Y. P. U. of the United Church held its meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burdge Gunby. The President Miss Irma Rochafort was in charge. Miss Mary Vivian was in charge of the program and gave the topic on "Christian Missions." A duet was given by Misses Betty and Jerry Beach. Games were enjoyed and lunch was served by the hostess.

HORNBY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson motored to Guelph on Tuesday last to do some house-hunting. They located a suitable apartment into which they intend to move when they leave Hornby on December first. Mr. Robertson has accepted a position as representative of the J. A. Willoughby Real Estate Agency. We wish him every success in his new undertaking and hope that they will soon feel at home in the Royal City.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Tremble Sr. is confined to her bed with illness. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Our local hunters were out in full force after pheasants on Friday and Saturday last. They all returned to their homes safely bringing with them several fine feathered trophies of the days of sport. The wary birds seemed hard to locate this year owing to the unusual growth of grass and weeds in which they were able to hide from the eyes of the hunters.

We were treated to an autumn thunderstorm on Monday evening last. The weatherwise tell us that is a sure sign of warmer weather to come. Here's hoping they are right. Rain is badly needed for fall ploughing. The ground in this locality is very dry and hard. A local resident was telling us on Monday that he had to make use of the crowbar to pry his carrots out of the ground in his garden.

Anniversary services will be held in Ashgrove United Church next Sunday. The guest preacher for the morning service will be Rev. J. C. Cochrane, D.D., of Toronto. For the evening service the Rev. M. J. Carter of Lowville will be guest preacher. There will be no evening service in Hornby United Church owing to the special services at Ashgrove.

KILBRIDE

The October meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Peer. Mrs. B. Cartwright and the hostess were in charge of the program and conducted the devotional exercises. The president, Mrs. Chas. Peer presided.

The roll call was answered by a verse of scripture containing the word reap. The president presented a most interesting chapter in the new study book.

Mrs. Cartwright took up the temperance problem. Other contributing were Mesdames W. Ford, W. Bullard, A. Cairns, Rev. N. J. Truax was a guest and gave a brief address. The thank offering was received.

There will be a special service next Sunday, October 29th at the regular time 9.45 a.m. under the auspices of the W.M.S., when Rev. John Stinson, B.A., a missionary on furlough from China will preach. Mrs. R. Stevens of Hamilton will sing.

The W. A. of the United Church were guests of the Carlisle W. A. to an autumn tea in Carlisle Church on Tuesday afternoon. The guest speaker was Rev. C. R. Albright of Freeport. Owing to the busy season and lack of transportation many regret they were not able to attend.

Mr. Victor Nixon had the misfortune to fracture an arm on Sunday evening while leading a colt to water. The animal became frightened by a dog and suddenly plunged forward over Mr. Nixon. He was attended by Dr. H. R. McDonald and was taken to the Hamilton Hospital on Monday where further treatment was required.

346 ration books were distributed from this centre last Thursday with Mrs. H. R. McDonald in charge.

Mrs. (Dr.) C. Copeland of Glendale, California and her sister, Mrs. A. S. Ferguson of Hollywood, California were guests for a few days last week with their cousin Mr. Elmer Harbottle and Mrs. Harbottle.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harbottle and their California cousins were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. La Verene Thompson and family at Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sprowle, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sprowle and family of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox of Palermo were Sunday visitors with Mrs. B. Cartwright.

Mr. Alex. Hanna of Mitchel was a week-end visitor with his cousin, William Mitchel.

While Eric McArthur was working in a near by woods last week, he noticed a very large bird hovering about the tops of the tall pines. After returning home for his rifle, he soon brought the bird to the ground. It proved to be a turkey buzzard, somewhat resembling a farm yard turkey only much larger. Its wing spread measured over 6 feet.

The mission band reorganized on Monday afternoon under their new leader, Miss E. Simpson. After a devotional period, election of officers resulted as follows: President, Alice Pegg; Vice-President, Norma Pegg; Secretary, Louise Pegg; Treasurer, Marie Nicholson.

Among the visitors during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacMillan were: Mrs. F. Belyea and Miss Anna of Port Hope; Mrs. W. H. Speers, of Bronte; Miss C. Breckenridge, Dr. and Mrs. G. DeJardine and Miss Helen DeJardine of Toronto; Sgt. Victor DeJardine, R.C.A.F. of Newfoundland and Mrs. E. Joyce of Port Credit.

CANNED GRAPEFRUIT

Canned grapefruit in glass containers has been temporarily removed from the list of rationed fruits. This announcement was recently made by the Prices Board ration administration.

Suspension of the rationing of this product is temporary to permit sales of last year's pack now in the hands of dealers. It will again be rationed from Oct. 15 on the basis of 20 fluid ounces for each valid preserves coupon.
