LOWVILLE

On Tuesday afternoon of last week the annual meeting of the W. A. of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Harbottle. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. Elmer Foster; Vice-President, Mrs. A. W. Coulter; Secretary, Mrs. Maurice Readhead; Asst. Secy., Mrs. Ewart Colling; Treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Harbottle; Pianist, Mrs. Burdge Gunby; Flower Committee, Mrs. A. W. Coulter; Mrs. F. W. Harbottle, Mrs. A. C. Colling, Mrs. S. T. Coulson; Parsonage Committee, Mrs. Wm. Featherstone, Mrs. E. M. Readhead, Mrs. F. W. Harbottle, Mrs. E. C. Foster.

The annual meetings of the Church Trustee Board, Cemetery Board and Parsonage Board were held on Tuesday last at the parsonage. Officers elected were: Church Trustee Board, chairman, A. C. Colling; Secy. Treas. Geo. M. Colling; Cemetery Trustee Board, chairman, Erland Colling, Sec. Treas. F. W. Harbottle; Parsonage Trustee Board, Chairman Burness Coulson, Sec. Treas. E. C. Foster.

The Y.P.U. of the United Church met on Tuesday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melford Colling with Helen Millar in charge of the meeting. Ross Colling was in charge of the program. Miss Mary Vivian gave a reading.

Lieut. James Buchanan of Saskatoon spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Featherstone.

HORNBY

We were in error last week in reporting the re-opening of the Public School on Wednesday January 3rd. Owing to adverse road and weather conditions, school remained closed all week but re-opened on Monday morning, January 8th with a full attendance.

Miss Lois Merry, of Toronto Normal School is doing some practise teaching under the supervision of Miss Jardine the first three days of this week. She returned to Toronto on Wednesday evening.

Miss Eldred Sibbald spent Christmas holidays with her father and was snowbound until Thursday last when she left by sleigh to catch the train for Merriton to resume her duties in the public school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eyre and their two young sons spent the holidays in the home of Rev. Benj. and Mrs. Eyre, Uxbridge, and returned home on Thursday last after a difficult motor trip.

All services in the local churches were cancelled last Sunday, as were those in Ashgrove and Bethel United Churches.

Only the main roads are now open for motor traffic, though the plows have been busy day and night.

People living on the back concessions have had to resort to the use of horses and sleighs to get their milk out and to go to town for provisions. More horses are seen on town streets than for many years, and they are good looking ones and well cared for.

Mr. John King left home last Saturday to spend the remainder of the winter in the home of his son, Dr. Leslie King, Galt. His cheery presence will be missed in the community, but we look forward to his coming back with the birds in the spring.

We are still looking for that January thaw.

CAMPBELLVILLE

(Intended for Last Week)

The Campbellville correspondent wishes the Champion staff and its readers a prosperous 1945 and may victory come to the United Nations and peace to our war weary world soon.

We, the people of Campbellville community are thoroughly convinced that this is the longest spell of winter while the snow ploughs haven't come to our aid in one whole week. St. David's Presbyterian Sunday School and Church was cancelled last Sunday owing to the condition of the roads.

Mail drivers James Roberts, George Stokes and James Early are complaining of overflowing bags of mail, which can't be delivered due to the weather conditions.

Mr. Melvin Agnew had a narrow escape while working on the C.P.R. snow plough last week when it was meeting a freight train. Apparently a board off a box car severed the snow plough van passed Mr. Agnew's chin within an inch.

Miss Eleanor McLaren, Hamilton, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLaren.

James Bradley, R.C.A.F., Trenton, spent the week-end with his wife.

Omar VanSickle took up his new duties at Ottawa on Monday.

Lieut. Crawford Mahon and Mrs. Mahon spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahon.

W. H. Clements, R.C.N.V.R., Halifax, spent the New Year season with his wife who resides with her mother Mrs. Peter McPhail.

NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

Twelve members answered roll call with twenty-one quilt blocks at the December meeting of the Busy Bees Club held at the home of Mrs. Stan. Robinson.

Overseas correspondence had messages from Ft. Officer Reg. Finney, Pte. Glenn Britton and Sgt. James Wallace. Several thank you cards for good cheer were read. Nine overseas boxes were to be packed and sent during the month. Mrs. Wm. Frank was to be convenor to arrange for a gift for Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kennedy on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary and Mrs. Wm. Service was to purchase a gift from club and neighbors for Mrs. D. Talbot on the occasion of her birthday. Mrs. Alf Allen had charge of the Christmas greeting cards from the club. A quilt discussion took a few minutes and plans for a euchre and dance. Mrs. Allen gave the closing prayer. Mrs. Robinson served a lunch that was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Dredge made the vote of thanks to the hostesses for her hospitality. A quilt was quilted during the day. Mrs. C. E. Davenport quilted a quilt for the club during the month.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ken. Harris, Toronto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence King for Christmas.

Those who entertained the families for Christmas dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Stan. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman, Moffat.

Mr. Mathew Job was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Britton, Acton.

Pte. Ben Beavis, Simcoe, was home for a five-day leave.

Tpr. Arthur Davenport and Pte. Fred Beavis are in Debent, N.S.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman upon the arrival of a daughter. Both doing nicely at Milton Nursing Home.

Mrs. Evans and her pupils entertained a splendid audience at a concert in No. 7 School on December 21. There were Christmas plays and songs by the children and comedy was introduced by Mr. Thos. Simpson of Moffat. Mrs. C. L. Poole, Moffat, gave a solo that was much appreciated. A lunch was served that made the event complete.

A few of the neighbors of Mrs. D. Talbot, representing the neighborhood and Busy Bees Club met at her home on December 26th, her birthday. Mrs. Allen gave a solo; Mrs. Service a reading. Mrs. Thos. Kennedy on behalf of the ladies presented Mrs. Talbot with a basket of fruit.

Mrs. Talbot thanked the ladies for the gift and the visit. A lunch was prepared by the ladies and an exchange of Christmas cake enjoyed.

Miss Elinor Davenport, Acton, enjoyed a few days at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Kennedy attained their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Monday, January 1st. Because of poor health they were unable to mark the occasion in any special way. Nevertheless their many friends and neighbors and family remembered them and many gifts, telephone calls and cards reached them, showing the high esteem in which they are held.

On Friday evening, December 29th a gathering was held at Brookville Hall in their honor. The evening was spent in friendly conversation and dancing. In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy their two eldest sons, Wilfrid and J. J. were asked to represent them while Mrs. David Henderson read an address signed by Ida Henderson, Maggie McPhail, Verna Campbell and Boyd Anderson, expressing the love, respect and best wishes and congratulations of all. Mrs. Wm. McPhail presented Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy with a pair of woollen blankets. Wilfrid on behalf of his parents thanked all for the kind wishes and gift and told how disappointed his parents were at not being able to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were married at Nassagaweya Presbyterian Manse by Rev. Dr. Blair. Mrs. Jennie Howard and Mr. Robt. Smith their attendants are both living. Mrs. Kennedy was Sarah McBain and spent her childhood in Dublin district. They have lived their entire married life in this community and Mr. Kennedy all his life except a few years in Hamilton. They have three sons, Wilfrid on the farm, J. J. also of this community, and Lyle of Milton. One daughter, Mrs. Massey (Olive) resides in Acton. Another daughter Alice died in her 27th year. They have ten grandchildren living and two deceased and one great grandson. We wish them many more happy years together.

A happy New Year to the Editor and Staff and fellow correspondents.

At time of writing there is no chance because of weather conditions of a mail man going through and it appears as though it may be days.

OAKVILLE

Wing Commander Noel Eaton was mentioned in dispatches in the New Year's Honor List.

KILBRIDE

The congregational meeting of the United Church will not be held this week as was formerly announced, but will be held on Friday evening January 19th in the hall of the church.

Miss E. Simpson, teacher, who spent the holidays at her home in Nassagaweya was unable to resume her duties at the school until Tuesday January 9th owing to blocked roads in both districts. The pupils of the school were also snow bound with the exception of a few who reside in the village.

The mail driver delivered no mail on this route from Saturday, December 30th until Monday, January 8th, when the snow plough opened the Guelph Road from Campbellville.

Quite a number of children in this district were disappointed with the usual holiday pleasures and outings, not only on account of snow drifts and extreme weather, but owing to an epidemic of chicken pox.

Mr. George Burns has been quite ill. His many friends will be pleased to learn his condition is much improved.

Mr. James Shields of Manitoba has been a guest with his uncle, Robert Shields and Mrs. Shields.

Mrs. William Small returned home on Friday having been snow bound since New Year's Day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison and Robert Harrison, Tanslev.

New Year's Day snow bound guests were numerous in the district last week.

Pte. Kenneth Bullard of Orillia was home for the New Year holidays and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bullard were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson of Guelph on New Year's Eve, and guests on New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Mrs. James Evans of Nassagaweya.
