Various Items Concerning Activities in Communities Nearby Where Many of Our Readers are Interested

CAMPBELLVILLE

Lieut. Crawford Mahon, H.M.C.S. Star, Hamilton, has been posted to H.M.C.S. York, Toronto.

Pte. Murray Mahon, Forestry Corps, Huntsville, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. James Mahon at the week-end.

Ronald Roberts, Bombardier of Milton, has returned to his duties at Malton after furlough at his home here.

Miss Lois May, Toronto, spent the week-end with Miss Olive Mahon.

Miss Donna Love, Milton, spent the week-end with Miss Della Vansickle. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Markle and Lorne of Millgrove were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George Ingles.

Mrs. William Roberts suffered shock and bruises last week when she fell downstairs while carrying her daughter Beverly.

Mrs. T. H. Synder, Mrs. R. C. Menzies, Mrs. James Mahon and Miss Jean McPhail spent Tuesday in Guelph at the Presbyterial Rally.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black entertained on Tuesday evening on the event of their seventh wedding anniversary. Progressive euchre was enjoyed by all and a social hour followed.

LOWVILLE

A splendid evening was spent on Thursday, January 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson when members of St. George's Church and a few friends and neighbors met to honor Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thompson who were married last month. They were presented with an electric lamp. The evening was spent in Progressive Euchre, the winners being Mrs. Vernon McArthur, Bruce MacNab, Ruth Harris and Russell Dales.

The January meeting of the W. M. S. of the United Church was held on Thursday afternoon last at the home of Mrs. Maurice Readhead. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. E. M. Readhead and Mrs. F. W. Harbottle. A duet was given by Mrs. Mervyn Coulson and Mrs. Roy Coulter; a reading by Mrs. Clark Readhead and a paper on blessings by Mrs. F. W. Harbottle. Prayers were taken by Mrs. Wm. Featherstone and Mrs. Jos. Henry. Mrs. S. T. Coulson contributed a reading.

The W. A. meeting was conducted by Mrs. Maurice Readhead.

A Red Cross quilting was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Harbottle.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dent have received official word that their second son Stanley Bertram Dent serving in Italy with the Engineers, has been awarded the Military Medal for bravery. John his brother, won the award last May.

NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

Pte. Fred Beavis and Tpr. Arthur Davenport are now serving overseas.

Those of the community on the sick list are Mr. Sam Frank, Mr. Thos. Kennedy and Mrs. Wm. Frank. We hope they are soon well again.

Former neighbors and friends of L. Cpl. Leslie Forbes are sorry to hear of him being wounded while serving in Holland and hope the wounds are not serious.

The seriousness of the blocked roads is realized when in the middle of the night the telephone operator calls for help to fight a fire five miles from your place and you know it is useless to try on foot through heavy drifts to reach the fire and learn in the morning that help would have saved a great deal.

Township roads have all been opened by the township plow but only sleighs and cutters have been able to get through the county roads of this district since New Year's day.

Mrs. Wm. Bullard, Kilbride, has been spending a few days with her mother, who is ill.

The Busy Bee Club held a Progressive Euchre in the school house Friday evening. Because of blocked roads only four tables played, but a real sociable time was enjoyed by those attending. Mr. Jos. Frank Sr. won first prize for gents and Hazel Kennedy for ladies. Prizes were donated by Mrs. Stan. Robinson. Mrs. Wm. Service prepared tea and arranged lunch for the players. The club is continuing these parties for a time.

Mrs. Arthur Diamond spent a few days with her sister Mrs. Walter Freeman, who has arrived home from Milton Nursing Home with daughter Carol.

Children were back to studies again this week after the long holiday.

ONE-CENTRES SCARCE

ST. THOMAS (CP) — A new addition at Christmas time to the list of scarce articles here was the one-cent postage stamp. Nearly 100,000 were sold in one day, exhausting local supplies, and an emergency shipment was sent from London.

KILBRIDE

A surprise party of twenty ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. James Lillycrop on Thursday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Lillycrop on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The guests were well received and entertained and all enjoyed a most pleasant evening. Mrs. Robert Weir and Mrs. Jabez Nicholson were prize winners for Progressive Euchre. A good old time sing-song was enjoyed with Mrs. H. R. McDonald at the piano. Refreshments were served.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the United Church on Sunday afternoon. Owing to the weather and snow drifted roads the congregation was rather small.

The euchre and dance which was planned for Friday evening, January 5th in the community hall had to be postponed but is being held this week on Friday evening 19th.

Rev. N. J. Truax had charge of the program for the Y. P. U. which met at the home of Mrs. Orlo Coulson last week.

HORNBY

Mr. Howard Bradley underwent an operation in Milton Hospital last week. He is making satisfactory progress toward recovery we are pleased to report.

There are several cases of measles among the children of this community but all are recovering nicely.

Though the members of the Women's Association were not able to hold their January meeting last week they are meeting in small groups in different homes for quilting bees; thus improving their time in spite of bad roads and cold weather.

Many farmers in this locality are still unable to get out with their cars owing to the roads not being plowed out yet. And still it snows and blows and the roads fill up again after being plowed out.

Mrs. Fred Huffman returned home last week after spending some time in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Munroe Hooper, helping to care for the new grandson.

PALERMO

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Palermo War Service Club was held on Thursday, January 11th, at the home of Mrs. F. Rivaz, with the president Mrs. A. Cowan in the chair. Officers elected for 1945 are: Honorary President, Mrs. G. C. Atkins; Past President, Mrs. E. Wettlauffer; President, Mrs. A. Cowan; Vice-Pres., Mrs. G. S. Wood; Secretary, Mrs. M. Dearing; Assistant and Overseas Box Secretary, Mrs. C. W. McFeeters; Treasurer, Mrs. G. Millard; Representative to Oakville R. C. Society, Mrs. H. Burton; Auditors, Mrs. Ira Cowan and Mrs. A. Hill; Wool Committee, Miss A. Wood, Mrs. G. S. Wood, Mrs. H. Wilson; Sewing Committee, Mrs. F. Rivaz, Miss L. Moodie, Mrs. Wendover, Mrs. A. Galbraith, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. C. Spencer, Mrs. C. Kingstone; Quilt Committee, Mrs. Lucas, Miss H. Vansickle, Mrs. Christner, Mrs. W. Cowan, Mrs. R. Fox; Finance Committee, Mrs. C. W. McFeeters, Mrs. R. Meares, Mrs. I. Cowan, Mrs. H. Burton.

Reports were given for 1944 by the committees as follows:

Wool Committee reported 89 garments from Red Cross wool and 118 garments from wool purchased by the Club, 1 afghan donated.

The Quilt Committee handed in 24 quilts.

The Sewing Committee reported mostly children's clothing, 132 articles turned into Oakville.

The Club held a shower of linen for Russia, a shower of children's clothing, shower of mending articles for personal property bags and parcels of used clothing for civilian relief. $454.63 was raised by the Club in the year. 180 boxes were sent to boys overseas and 110 lots of cigarettes. Parcels were sent to boys every second month as well as Christmas gifts to all overseas and serving in Canada.

The Ratepayers Club held a Euchre and dance in the school on Friday night. The prize winners were first Mrs. Millard, second Mrs. D. Wendover, gents first Roy Fox, second G. S. Wood. A short program was enjoyed after which Mrs. D. Clements played for dancing. A committee was appointed for the next party, Mrs. J. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. John Vansickle and Ira Cowan.

Mrs. Burden has returned from Hamilton Hospital and is making favorable progress. Her daughter, Mrs. J. Bishop is staying with her.

Word has been received by his mother that Pte. Wesley Lambert has been wounded while fighting in Italy. A social evening was held in Palermo Public School on Saturday night and the gift of a watch was made to Pte. Wilfred Inglehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Inglehart, who was home on leave. The evening was spent playing Euchre and dancing and everyone wishes Wilfred the best of luck.

ZIMMERMAN

The roads are open now, but for how long remains to be seen.

Mrs. Edgar Eaton and two children returned home on Saturday after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Cartwright.

Miss Marion Atkins of Aldershot returned home Saturday, after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gowland.

There was no church on Sunday as the road to Lowville had not yet been opened.

School opened on Monday morning the first since Christmas.

It is an ill wind that blows none some good. The snow plough broke down on the Zimmerman road last Thursday night. The roads filled in during the night. When the plough was fixed we were the first out.

Mrs. Clarence Bridgeman had the misfortune to fall on the ice in Milton on Friday last and hurt her back and head.

Many farmers in this district are out of water for their cattle and with conditions as they are, are having a difficult time in getting water to them.

OAKVILLE

The Conspicuous Gallantry Medal has been awarded P. O. Jackson C. Cooke, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus L. Cooke, Division Street.

Mayor J. M. Campbell, Reeve C. V. Hillmer, Deputy-Reeve A. E. Whitaker and the Councillors were sworn into office by Mr. C. H. Byers, the Town Clerk.

The evening and morning Blood Donor Clinics were attended by 144 blood donors.

The annual meeting of the Oakville and District Red Cross Society will be held on Wednesday, January 31st at 2.30 p.m. in the Masonic hall.

Steadily mounting interest in the activities of the Ladies' Auxillary of the Legion was evidenced by the enrolment of five new members at Tuesday's meeting.

Mr. L. C. Anderson, of the Provincial Fire Marshal's office, and Fire Chief Fred Shaw recently made an inspection of public buildings in Oakville and during consideration of the report, the Council decided that a by-law covering the situation be prepared.

Pilot Officer Bruce "Barney" Barnstaple took the Oakville Lions on an interesting 13,000 mile hitch-hike from Libya, Africa, to Clarkston, Ont. his home town, at their meeting in the Masonic temple on Friday evening.—Record-Star.
