Please help your Bus Driver Speed up the Service

You can co-operate and do much to speed up service. Have your tickets ready when boarding and leaving bus. Get correct information in advance. Do not travel unless absolutely necessary, and even then avoid peak hours and week-ends. Leave children at home. Do everything you can to make room and speed up service.

Your bus drivers are doing a fine job endeavouring to cope with difficult war-time travel. If you have any annoyances, please do not blame the driver, for he has no control over conditions and only carries out his orders.
