IN MEMORIAM

AUGER—In loving memory of our beloved son, Arthur George Auger, who gave his life in France, September 4th, 1944.

We lost our boy with a heart of gold Who was more to us than wealth untold.

Without a farewell, he fell asleep With only happy memories for us to keep.

We have lost, but God has gained One of the best of the world contained.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by

Mum and Dad

AUGER—In loving memory of our dear son-in-law, Arthur George Auger, who gave his life in France, September 4th, 1944.

We are thinking of you to-day Art, Thinking of you and the past Picturing you in our memory Just as we saw you last.

If all the world were ours, We'd give it yes and more To see the face of our loved one Come smiling through the door.

Sadly missed yet fondly remembered by

Mum and Dad Wilson

AUGER—In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, Pte. Arthur George Auger of Queen's Own Rifles, who died results of an accident in France on September 4th, 1944.

He went away so bravely, His head held very high His footsteps never faltered As he waved his last good-bye And on the field of battle He proudly took his place He forgot he died for Britain And the honor of his race.

Ever remembered by Charlie, Harry overseas, Marguerite and boys

AUGER—In loving memory of our dear brother-in-law, Arthur George Auger, who gave his life in France September 4th, 1944.

We still can't believe they've taken him away.

This boy we called our brother They can't believe it neither. His wife, his father, his mother. He's gone to his heavenly home on high.

His earthly pain is over We know he rests in peace at last The son, Her husband, our brother. Our brother Art, his smiling face A cheerful word for all.

We never knew until too late That he had heard his call. He asked us not to worry. He told us please don't cry.

He said Buck up I'm ready now To go to my home on high. So Brother Art look down on us And help us carry on This life is not worth living Dear Now that you are gone.

Always remembered by Your Sisters and Brother-in-law Verna, Shirley and Gertie, Leslie (overseas), Mervin, Earl and Donald Wilson

AUGER—In loving memory of a dearly beloved husband, Arthur George Auger, who gave his life in France, September 4th, 1944.

There is a wife who misses you sadly And finds the time long since you went.

And I think of you daily and hourly And try to be brave and content. But the tears that I shed in silence And I breathe a sigh of regret For you were mine and I remember Though all the world forget.

To your graveside I hope to wander And I'll picture your face so dear In sorrow I'll stand and whisper I am so lonely for you Art dear.

I have lost a darling husband. A life linked with my own And day by day I miss him more As I walk through life alone. In my chest of cherished memories I've locked up thoughts of you.

Your smiling face, your tender love And the things we used to do And now and then when I'm all alone I open up this chest And spend a while just thinking of The one I loved the best.

Good was your heart, your friendship true Loved and respected by all you knew. To a useful life came a sudden end You died as you lived, everyone's friend.

Sadly missed, but always remembered by Your Darling Wife Laurnette
