OMAGH

An event of outstanding interest last week was the Thank Offering meeting of the Sunshine Mission Band of Omagh Presbyterian Church, held in the church. Miss Jane Rayner and Mrs. Cameron Marshall are deserving of mention for the manner in which the children were trained to carry through their meeting.

The regular meetings have been held each week during vacation with an average attendance of eighteen in ages from four to twelve years. Miss Marion Ford, president was in chair and Ruth Marshall led the responsive Scripture lesson and Christina Marshall led in prayer.

The program consisted of a solo by Margaret Crozier; a duet by Marion Ford and Christina Marshall; guitar numbers by Annie Crozier and a piano solo by Wanda Lawrence who was also accompanist. The following gave recitations, Lottie Galbraith, Jo-Anne Galbraith, Frances Featherstone, Doreen Ford, Betty Hannon, Dorothy Marshall, Marjorie Galbraith, Joan Dolby and Ruth Marshall.

Mrs. Wm. McFadden was guest speaker and spoke on "Four rules to make a success of the Mission Band." Marjorie Galbraith tendered a vote of thanks to the guest speaker and all who had helped with the sale, which was seconded by Joan Dolby. Dorothy Marshall and Doreen Ford took up the offering.

At the close of the meeting, the guests were invited to the basement to inspect a bale valued at about one hundred dollars. It consisted of a complete layette, crib comforter, children's clothing, knitted goods, cuddle toys, scrap books and other articles.

Lunch was served by the Band leaders and members to a good attendance of visitors. Mrs. Robertson of Milton, district vice-president, spoke a few words of appreciation and encouragement to the children during the lunch hour.

PALERMO

The Palermo W. I. held their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Christener on Thursday afternoon. The roll call was answered by an interesting event. A farewell letter was read from Miss Mary Clark who is training for her new appointment after 12 years work with the Federated Women's Institute, thanking the W. I. for the gift she received. It was decided to purchase a community song book and leaflet for the meetings. The Institute rally was discussed and the Milton Fair exhibit.

Miss H. Vansickle read an article on poultry feeding. Mrs. H. Burton gave hints on Home Economics. An article on Sulpha drug was read by Mrs. H. Proud.

Mrs. Russel Lawrence reported on the reception held for returned boys from Merton. Mrs. A. Hill gave a paper on Penicillin, telling how Winston Churchill's life was saved by a young man, who later became a doctor and discovered the drug that again saved the life of Churchill in Africa. The discoverer was Sir Alexander Fleming.

The sale of garden produce netted a good sum, after which the meeting closed and a social half hour was enjoyed.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wood on Thursday evening, August 30, to present Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wood, a recent bride and groom, with an occasional chair. An anniversary contest was won by Mrs. D. A. Wendover. The evening was spent playing euchre and dancing.

The Halton County Game and Fisheries Association met in Palermo School on Thursday evening and the members decided against holding an open season for deer in the county. It was stated by some that difficulty was being experienced in rounding up foxes because the dogs insisted on chasing the deer instead of the fox. Although deer are numerous in the county, particularly Trafalgar township, the men voted for their protection. The meeting was attended by members from various districts.
