Various Items Concerning Activities in Communities Nearby Where Many of Our Readers are Interested

PALERMO

On Sunday afternoon, November 18th at 2:30 p.m., Miss Greta Clarke will be the special preacher at St. Luke's Church, Palermo. Miss Clarke is a Deaconess and while a missionary in China, she escaped through the Japanese lines about a year ago. She has preached to capacity congregations in many churches in Canada since her return and will have much of interest to relate.

ZIMMERMAN

Quilting for the Red Cross is being held this Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Coulson.

Mrs. F. A. Heslop of Nelson spent the week-end with Mrs. Roy Coulter.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the Limestone School on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McPhail and sons Leonard and Donald, who are moving to Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. McPhail were presented with a coffee table and hassock and the sons with bedroom lamps. Maurice Readhead read the address.

The November meeting of the W. M. S. and W. A. of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Coulter on Tuesday afternoon. The program for the W.M.S. was taken by Mrs. G. H. Harbottle and Mrs. Elmer Foster. The president Mrs. E. M. Readhead presided for the business meeting. The chapter from the study book on Africa was given by Mrs. Geo. Colling and Mrs. Elmer Foster. A duet was rendered by Mrs. Roy Coulter and Mrs. Mervyn Coulson, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Colling. Others taking part were Mrs. A. W. Coulter, Mrs. G. H. Harbottle, Mrs. Melford Colling and Mrs. E. Foster. The W.A. president presided for the W. A. meeting. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The Farm Forum held their meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead.

ACTON

William Murphy, 26, Jane Street, C.N.R. employee, who saw over four years' service overseas and suffered 26 shrapnel wounds, was instantly killed when crushed by the couplings of two passenger coaches in the Bathurst Street yards at Toronto.

Scottish blood tingled in Acton Tuesday night to the tunes of the bagpipes and Scottish numbers were enjoyed at the concert sponsored by Acton Boys' Band and presented by the Girls' Pipe Band of Georgetown and assisting artists.

The November meeting of the Acton Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. Marchmont, with the president, Mrs. Lappin presiding.—Free Press.

MOFFAT

The regular Remembrance Day service was held on Sunday, November 11 in the Presbyterian Church. The veterans met at the Cenotaph at 4 o'clock and conducted a service, in which the names of the fallen were read. At 4.15 the church service was held in Nassagaweya Church and was addressed by Canon Russell Smith of Oakville.

The anniversary services of the various churches are over for the year and our thoughts are now turning to the Christmas season.

Mr. Andy Laing has returned from the hospital, where he was confined because of a painful accident while sawing wood by which he lost part of his hand.

We are sorry that Mrs. John Peer continues on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser, Catharine and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell spent the holiday in Hamilton.

A fine collection of used clothing was shipped from our local Post Office last week.

Rev. C. L. and Mrs. Poole spent a few days in Ridgeway.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Dawson of Maple Creek, Sask., and Mrs. Winnifred Adams of Toronto are the guests of Mrs. Poole.

Mrs. Duncan Campbell is planning to spend the winter in the south.

Mr. James Martin and son Sandy are working on a kitchen and coal bin at the rear of the Community Church.

Rev. C. L. Poole preached the preparatory sermons at Sodom and Campbellville Thursday and Friday evenings.

Rev. J. C. MacNeil is confined to his bed with a severe cold. We hope he will soon be able to resume his duties.

HORNBY

Visitors to our community over the week-end were Mrs. William Kent, Mr. Sherborne Blake and his bride, formerly Miss K Allan of Toronto.

The Bethel United Church W. A. and W. M. S. met at the Ball Brothers' residence on the 8th line on Thursday afternoon November 8th. Plans were made for the Bazaar when Mrs. L. Skuce of Milton is to be the guest speaker. Boxes for the overseas boys, and some minor church repairs were talked about. The W. M. S. treasurer reported being well on the way to the missionary objective, and that during the month of October about $25.00 had been raised. Mrs. W. H. Dawson had charge of the devotional period, and Mrs. Ellison Ball gave a very fine paper on Christian Stewardship, bringing out the fact that systematic and proportionate giving is the Christian way. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. Alfred Ball.

The Hornby United Church Young People's Union met at the parsonage on Friday evening, November 9th for their first meeting. New hymns were practised, a talk given by the minister and games and refreshments enjoyed. Some of our boys, accompanied by their girl friends, bent the "Stop" sign, and pulled out the "Curve" sign at our main intersection, and so for a couple of weeks motorists have been unable to see where to drive through at forty or more miles an hour. Someone, possibly community-spirit inclined, has remedied all this by putting the signs back in order again. Motorists may now proceed at high speeds past them both, as heretofore, without further inconvenience till next Hallowe'en.

Remembrance Day services were held in our churches on Sunday, when, after the sermon, a period of silence was observed in honor of those who had paid the supreme sacrifice that we might be free. We all felt that we could never pay the debt we owe to them; we should like to be able to carry on the torch thrown to us by them.

A bit of last minute news brings the information that Mr. W. N. Kennedy brother of George Kennedy of Hornby Station, passed away in Toronto on Saturday evening, November 10th at 8 p.m. Mr. Kennedy was in his 83rd year and had been unwell for some time. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

CAMPBELLVILLE

The regular meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Melvin Hood with the president, Mrs. Cameron Agnew in charge. The board of directors were named a committee to make plans for a bazaar this month. Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Jas. Mahon are a committee to make a quilt for the bazaar.

Roll call was answered by an exchange of childhood pictures. $3.00 was donated to the girls' trip to Chicago. $1.00 to the area convention and $1.00 to the president's expenses. Mrs. James Mahon, the social welfare convener gave a paper on Education in rural district. Mrs. George Harris, gave a paper on home economics, "Just a Housewife."

Mr. Skuce of Milton, School Inspector, gave a splendid talk on problems of education. He stressed that the child allowance is enabling the children to be clothed and fed more adequately, also a correspondence education sent to families, where there are children unable to attend school is a help to-day.

Mrs. Houson Lush moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Skuce after which a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Robt. Hurren, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. Geo. Harris, Mrs. Geo. Inglis. Twenty-six ladies attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pogue and family of Alliston, will move and reside with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elsey this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Elsey and family are moving to Milton this week and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker and family of London will occupy their house, the Anglican Rectory.

OMAGH

Omagh Women's Institute held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Clifford Tasker with twenty-two ladies present.

The highlight of the occasion was an address by Mrs. Emerson Ford. She reviewed a current book "Anna and the King of Siam." Mrs. Ford held the keen interest of her audience as she presented picture after picture of life for this English woman, through horrors and degradations of thousands of women, where she was posted as teacher in the harem of the King of Siam and governess to the children. Although she was ordered not to teach religion, she managed to teach Christianity to one boy, the King's son and heir to the throne. Mrs. Ford brought her address to a climax with an account of the influence this young woman had on the life of this man and the reforms he brought into Siam as the result of her teaching in his early life.

It was decided by the members not to apply for the legislative grant.

The president, Mrs. Bayley appointed Mrs. George Brownridge and Mrs. Charles Jarvis to assist her in sending boxes to boys in the military services. She also announced that Mr. Nixon had decided on January for the motion picture which the Institute are to sponsor in his theatre.

It was decided that the Branch buy a book to be circulated among the members. A sale of home-made articles suitable for gifts netted a good profit.

A social period with refreshments served by the hostess brought to a close a very entertaining afternoon.

NASSAGAWEYA

A large crowd attended the special Memorial Service held in Ebenezer United Church last Sunday morning with quite a number of service men and ex-servicemen present. The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. R. W. Pickersgill. Two minutes silence was observed and a wreath was placed under the Church Honor Roll, followed later by the unveiling of a memorial in the form of a baptismal font, dedicated to the memory of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice. LAC. John Henry placed the wreath and Pte. E. G. Wilson unveiled the memorial.

There was a large gathering at the Remembrance Day service, held at the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church and at the Monument last Sunday afternoon.

It was with regret that the father, brothers and sisters and friends learned of the accident in Acton on Monday, where Mr. Earnest G. Wilson had both bones broken in his left ankle. He was taken to Christie Street Hospital in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Wilson of Acton attended the Memorial Service in Ebenezer United Church and also visited with relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sherwood and Mr. Wesley Pickett, of Arkell attended the Memorial Service at Ebenezer Church and also visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. Ken Watson will be pleased to learn that he was able to come home from the hospital on Monday after his recent accident and that he is making satisfactory progress.

Mr. Charles Darby and Miss Jean Moffat visited with Mr. and Mrs. Leag Robertson for two days last week.

The many friends of Mrs. Harlan Wilson will be sorry to learn that she is under the doctor's care in the hospital. All hope for a speedy recovery.
