NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

Your correspondent made a mistake in her news of last week in saying no arrangements had been made for the Busy Bees next meeting. Mrs. C. E. Davenport offered her home for the January meeting.

Mrs. Walter Freeman, who has been convalescing from an appendix operation, arrived home on Sunday from Hamilton hospital.

Mrs. Annie Paul was able to leave the Milton hospital to go to her son's, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Paul's home on Monday morning.

The Farm Forum, which meets every Monday evening was at the home of Mr. Joseph Frank last week.

This community was greatly concerned last week when they learned of an accident of the Friday night before.

Messrs Jack and Bob Dredge, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dredge and Mervyn, Wesley and Gerald MacLeod, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry MacLeod, all of St. Helena, were returning from a dance when the car left the road and was completely destroyed. Mervyn was pinned under the car and received a broken jaw and fractured skull; Jack received an injured back and both boys at the end of the week were still in the hospital at Guelph. Wesley had his arm broken and it is healing nicely; Gerald and Bob, although suffering from slight shock were able to return home after examination.

The progressive euchre and Christmas bazaar held by the Busy Bees Club last Friday evening at Brookville was a decided success, although the crowd was small. Ten tables played euchre and prizes were won by, ladies first, Mrs. Wm. Bulard; ladies second, Mrs. Wm. Anderson; ladies consolation, Mrs. Wm. Frank; gents first, Mr. Joseph Frank; gents second, Mr. Lloyd Law; consolation, Mr. Bud Ellis. Doll draw was won by Mrs. C. E. Davenport; toy draw was won by Mr. Wilfred Kennedy. Receipts from the bazaar amounted to $70.00, from the euchre $10.00 and from the booth, $6.13.

A number in the district are suffering from heavy colds. Mr. Bert. Auliffe reports that his son Lloyd has received his discharge from the air force.

MOFFAT

The boys and girls of the various school sections are busy preparing for their Christmas concerts and closing exercises.

The old year is fast closing and what a wonderful year it has been. It will go down in history as victory year, or peace year. It probably has been the most eventful year for many generations. The prospect of the New Year is not as bright and heartening as one might hope for. However, we believe that Canada is the brightest spot upon the earth. Surely our Christmas this year should be one of sincerest gratitude.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser and Catharine spent a day in Toronto Christmas shopping.

The Dredge and McLeod boys are recovering nicely from their motor accident which occurred while returning from Eden Mills.

Isobel Donaven spent the week-end at her home.

The Community Church has been equipped with two new stoves and preparations are being made for the annual Christmas entertainment and Christmas services.

Mrs. Poole attended the Christmas meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church in Acton on Tuesday afternoon.

The Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church held their Christmas entertainment on Wednesday evening.

The Auction Sale held at the farm of the late James Simpson was well attended and quite successful. The farm has been rented to E. A. Archibald who will be moving in soon.

We wish the editor and staff of the Acton Free Press a very Merry Christmas.

CAMPBELLVILLE

The Grace Mission Band held their December meeting at the home of Marina Hood with the president, Diane Mitchell presiding. Norma Brown read the Christian message and Mrs. Menzies explained the old, old story and illustrated it with a pair of hearts, clean and unclean.

Marina Hood read a story, prepared by herself, on the Kafir babies. This was interesting. The story of Robin of Delhi was finished and all the members enjoyed the story very much. Beth Pogue sang sweetly unaccompanied, the hymn "Silent Night." Prayers were offered by Marilyn Moore and Beth Pogue. The birthday song was sung for Marina Hood. A short time was spent in sewing. Mrs. Hood and Marina served dainty refreshments which needless to say, were enjoyed by all. Officers elected for 1946 were: President, Alice Sharpe; Vice President, Norma Brown; Secretary, Marina Hood; Asst. Secretary, Ann Parker; Treasurer, Mrs. Menzies; Pianists, Norma Brown and Marilyn Moore; Cheer Com. Ruth Roberts, Beth Pogue and Virginia Mitchell.

The December meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Moore. The Christmas story was read from Matt. 2nd Chapter by Mrs. McPhee and Christmas Carols were sung. Prayer was offered by the president Mrs. Moore. The Assistant Secretary Mrs. T. McPhail gave a review of the year's work and also read some notes of appreciation from those who had received baskets of fruit when ill. Several activities were planned for the next two weeks. Election of officers for 1946 was conducted by Mrs. C. A. Elsley. The present officers were re-elected. The Choir Committee appointed is Mrs. J. K. Mahon and Mrs. Wm. Roberts, The Quilt Committee Mrs. C. A. Elsley, Mrs. R. Inglis and Mrs. McPhee.

The Christmas meeting of the W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Mahon, with the president, Mrs. Cameron Agnew in charge. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford led in singing Christmas Carols.

Articles left from the bazaar were sold. The roll call was answered by all ladies gathering in a circle with a 15c Christmas gift exchange.
