BURLINGTON

At the regular meeting of the town council on Thursday evening the members in session gave two readings to a by-law to lift residential restrictions on Brant Street from Maria to Caroline Street and at the same time a deputation of residents strongly opposed the allowing of a machine shop on the rear of lot assessed as 104 Brant Street and facing John Street.

J. B. Dunham was named Truant and Traffic Officer for both the public and high school boards for a period from March 15th to June 15th at a salary of $50.00 per month and 6c per mile car allowance. The expense will be divided equally between the two boards.—Gazette.

MOFFAT

The March weather has been rather lamb-like and has been a severe disappointment to those farmers owning and operating extensive equipment for producing maple syrup. Many have folded up that equipment for another year without realizing the desired financial returns.

We are sorry to lose from our community Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowers and family, who are moving this week to the neighborhood of Elora. They will have the good wishes of many friends in their change of location.

The St. Patrick Social and Irish stew held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Amos was well attended and greatly enjoyed. It was held under the auspices of the Woman's Association of Sodom Presbyterian Church.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser on Friday evening, it being the occasion of the birthday of Miss Catharine Fraser. The evening was spent playing cards after which a very dainty birthday lunch including the customary cake and candles was served. We congratulate Catharine on her 12th birthday.

Our chopping mill is again busy after a time off for repairs.

Mrs. May Baynton has returned from the hospital and is considerably improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser of Galt were Sunday visitors at the home of their son, Mr. W. A. Fraser.

Pte. W. H. Bayliss and Mrs. Bayliss and baby have been spending a few days at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Baynton. Pte. Bayliss is home from the Halifax district and expects to return at the close of his leave.

Mr. George Poole, of the Workmen's Compensation Office of Toronto, spent the week-end with his parents.

Misses Irene and Ruth McGillivray of Guelph were guests of their sister, Mrs. Clarence Dredge.

Mrs. S. Sparks of Woodstock formerly Miss Ruth Henderson visited at Mrs. W. A. Fraser's during the week.

The Community Church, which has been closed during the past few weeks will again hold service beginning with April 7th at 7.30 p.m.
