HORNBY

The Bethel United Church Y. P. U. put on their two one-act plays, together with a musical program in the Orange Hall on Monday, April 1st. It was a good evening's entertainment and quite apparently was enjoyed by all who came to hear and see. The plays were "The Happy Day" and "Sister Sue."

Sixteen women of the Hornby W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Gear Sinclair on Thursday afternoon April 4th. Mrs. Archie King led the devotions by reading an article on "The Personality of Jesus." The treasurer, Mrs. Milton J. Brown, reported that $16.33 had been made at the Crokinole Social held recently in the Hornby Orange Hall. A lawn social to be held at the parsonage the latter part of June was planned for. Some discussion was had in regard to a new devotional book. It was decided to co-operate with the Bethel Church ladies in the securing of a speaker for one Sunday in August when the minister is on his holidays. Quilting was also done, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Sinclair.

The Albert Marchment family have moved onto the William Sibbald farm which they have purchased. Mr. Sibbald expects to live with his daughter in Merriton.

Doug. Shaw, who is managing the Hornby Poultry farm on the seventh line is making extensive repairs to his house, and is also building a fine poultry house. Twelve hundred chickens are already in the brooder houses.

Fred Robertson has begun work on his new bee house on his property at the Hornby Station.

A very pretty, double-ring ceremony was performed in the Bethel United Church on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when Mary Uella Hall was united in marriage to Lloyd Fred Workman by the Rev. Fred Ainsworth. Mary was assisted by her bridesmaid, Helen Margaret Aitkin of Georgetown and Fred had his brother Allan as best man. Following the wedding ceremony invited guests gathered at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hall where a delicious luncheon was served. The happy couple sped on their way, their car adorned in the usual manner.

Mrs. Mark Bussell was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Anglican Church held April 2nd. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Wilfred Thompson. The usual business was transacted and it was voted to make the customary Easter donation towards the funds of the Church. While the members engaged in quilting, Mrs. Foster Brain gave a few brief notes in connection with missionary work. Rev. Leigh-Pink closed the meeting with prayer. An enjoyable cup of tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Bussell.

By all means bury hate, fear and greed. But don't bury them alive.

ACTON

A book that should be a best seller in Acton but is actually free to rate-payers has been issued this week. It is the Auditor's Report of Acton for 1945 and citizens may secure a copy at the Clerk's office or at the Free Press office.

Another well-known and long established business in Acton has changed hands the past week. Mr. E. J. Hassard has sold his drug and stationery business to Mr. Harold W. Baxter of Kenora, who is now in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Hassard will continue to reside in the apartment of the building until September.

The spring fashion revue arranged by Acton Y's Men's Club provided quite an interesting and humorous evening. Of course the ladies were particularly interested in the styles of spring and summer outfits displayed by Acton young ladies who modelled the garments and were displayed by courtesy of B. D. Rachlin and Co.

Prominent dinner speakers have recently favored the Acton Y's Men's Club at their fortnightly dinners. Two weeks ago the speaker was the Professor of English at the Ontario Agricultural College. Last week the guest of the evening and speaker was Dr. Martin Fisher, a psychiatrist of Toronto. Dr. Fisher is a graduate of universities in Vienna and Toronto. The topic of his address was "Problems of Psychiatry"—Free Press.

BURLINGTON

Trinity Men's Club held their annual Ladies' Night on Wednesday evening, last, and it proved a most enjoyable and successful affair, being largely attended. A banquet was served in the gymnasium, following which an evening for entertainment was provided.

The arrival of Stella Mitchell and baby, Jacqueline at Freeman station on Friday afternoon was a very happy event for her husband, Doug Mitchell, Junction St., and for the family. Mrs. Russell Peart was observed writing in her little book; no doubt she was putting in another two names for the tea party she is cooking up for her English ladies to have a get-together very shortly.

As an aftermath of a visit of W. P. T. B. inspectors to the town on Jan. 2nd last, the Burlington Fruit Market was fined $100.00 and costs on two counts by Magistrate Langdon on Friday last. One charge was offering goods for sale above ceiling prices, and the other for displaying goods in bulk without proper price cards. J. P. O'Reilly, K.C., represented the crown and Lloyd D. Dingle, K.C., acted for the accused.—Gazette.
