Mr. King has been with his son, Dr. Leslie King, in Galt during the winter months, and is now back to his old home with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. Russell and Mrs. King. They are both well.

The Ashgrove School baseball team were guests of the Hornby School recently. Following a game between the two teams, sides were chosen and another game was played.

On Friday evening, May 17th, the regular showing of National Film Board pictures was given in the Hornby School to a very appreciative gathering. The film, "Saving your own Garden Seed" showed the best plants in the garden being marked and later pulled, dried, sorted, and put away in neatly labelled packages. "Defeat Diphtheria" was a very timely picture, as toxoid is being given now to the school children of the county and parents are urged to see that all pre-school children have the treatment. Scenes of Newfoundland in color were most interesting showing, as they did, the life and industries in England's oldest colony.

A picture of the beaver showed some of these animals being captured in Algonquin Park and transferred to the waters of James Bay. In the film "The Cowboy" a boy's ideas of life in the "Wild West" as depicted in Western Magazines, were sadly, though wisely shattered when he visited his uncle and saw the varied and useful tasks of the helpers on a western ranch. Shorter films showed the liner Queen Elizabeth arriving in harbor with returning veterans, the salmon run and canning of salmon, and china brooches and ornaments being made from the clay of western Ontario.

After the pictures a light lunch was served by the ladies of the Hornby Women's Institute.

BURLINGTON

W. T. Davidson of Burlington is among the 343 Bell Telephone employees who have been awarded safe driving buttons for 1945 by the Ontario Safety League.

NASSAGAWEYA

There was a large gathering at the social evening last Wednesday evening in Ebenezer United Church. A program of games and contests was first enjoyed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Wilson were invited to come forward to chairs placed for them and an address was read by Rev. R. W. Pickersgill and a miscellaneous shower of many beautiful and useful presents were presented by Messrs. Gordon Darby, Elias Easterbrook and Mrs. Harlan Wilson, Lois Wilson, and Donna Easterbrook. Both Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wilson made very fitting replies, thanking all for the kind words and beautiful gifts. Then "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung and after the opening of the presents and reading of the names of the donors, a dainty lunch was served and a social time was spent in welcoming and getting acquainted with Mrs. E. G. Wilson, an English war bride who recently came to Canada.
