IN MEMORIAM

WILSON—In loving memory of my dear friend, Rfmn. Donald Wilson, Q. O. R., who was killed in Normandy, France, June 11th, 1944. Somewhere in France in a soldier's grave

Lies my dear friend among the brave. He died the helpless to defend A faithful soldier's noble end.

A Friend WILSON—In loving memory of our beloved son, Rfmn. Donald A. Wilson, Q. O. R., killed in action in Normandy, France, June 11th, 1944. They say that time heals all sorrow And helps us to forget, But time so far has only proved How much we miss him yet. God give us strength to fight it, And courage to bear the blow, But what it meant to lose you, Don No one will ever know. Ever remembered by Dad and Mother

WILSON: In a soldier's grave in a foreign land Lies a brother we loved most dear. His smiling face didn't come home. When they sounded the last "All Clear." As angels keep their watch up there; Please God, just let him know That we down here do not forget; We love and miss him so. Ever remembered by Sisters Marie, Jean, Doris Margaret and Brother Roy

TALK ON HOSPITALITY FEATURE JUNE MEETING OMAGH INSTITUTE

The June meeting of the Omagh Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Joyce on Tuesday, June 4th. The president, Mrs. Bayley, presided and there was a good attendance of members and visitors. The new programs were distributed and promise interesting meetings for the year. The July meeting is to take the form of a picnic. A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The members were asked to keep in mind the bazaar.

A most interesting talk on the subject of hospitality was given by Miss Ada Turner, who gave a picture of hospitality as practiced in various countries and in the early days in the west. We were warned against the abuses of hospitality and asked to open our homes and hearts to those of other races living among us. A roll call of brief impromptu speeches followed and proved most amusing. The hostess served a dainty lunch and a social half hour closed the meeting.

YOUTH AND MONEY

Someone was telling of a boy who had earned a good deal of money at various jobs during the war period, and had saved up something like $500. The family had no automobile, and he formed a strong desire to buy a car. His family thought he would need most of his money for his education and various needs, and they opposed the purchase of a car, at which he felt considerably sore. Probably there are many similar cases.

The boys and any who earned money easily during the period of labor shortage, should realize that conditions were very exceptional while these jobs and high pay were offered them, but that these conditions are not likely to continue. Money spent on their education will permanently increase their earning power. They are entitled to their recreations and fun, but if they feel a desire to spend a lot of money on pleasures, they might well consider whether the money will do them more good if spent on training for life and work.
