Jumbo is another member of our dog colony, and is what you might call a prince among dogs. He is one of our dog elder statesmen, somewhat diplomatic at times, and goes abroad with his tail aloft and an air of importance befitting his station in life. I see him foraging far and wide up and down the highway and through the fields, apparently in search of substantial morsels of food to tuck inside his form-fitting skin. Friendly and kind, he puts up with the children's whims, seldom barking or whining. A good dog withal, and being meek he inherits the sofa.

Some of us are at variance in our own minds as to whether to be thankful to the snowplow crews who widen our roads to ditch-covering widths, or consternated by the mountain high chunks of ice snow that have heaved into our driveway entrances in the process. Milton's P.L.R.'s are still running into tough luck, in breaking into a first Ontario Rural Hockey Association series. They were to have played their home game against St. Jacob's Monday night but road conditions prevented the team from arriving.

Sombody slipped in the O.M.H.A. league when they failed to draft a schedule between Acton, Oakville and Milton. Instead they advanced each team into play-offs with other clubs. The teams representing the three clubs could have a short season's practice and competition before advancing into play-off series.

Many thanks for the Valentine received from D. A. Houston, of Toronto. This scribe is pleased to note that the sender included a street-cleaning tool known as a brush. It will assist greatly in giving the said O. H. A. official a thorough scrubbing and cleaning.
