HORNBY

A candidate for the title "Our Meaneast Man" has paid our community a visit. His first visit occurred just after Rev. J. O. Totton left here and before the new minister came. It is believed he is now warming his shins and heart with the larcenous wood and will be sending along a substantial contribution to the church funds when his warming up process has been completed. In the meantime we shall find it easy to keep him in mind.
