OMAGH

The Rosalind Goforth Auxiliary and W. M. S. of Omagh Presbyterian Church held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Reid, town line on Thursday afternoon. The Scripture reading was led by Mrs. McFaul and she also gave a fine message based on the theme "The Glorious Resurrection." Prayers were given by Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Douglas. Several letters of thanks were received for fruit or flowers sent during the past month. Three of the members, Mrs. Jas. Galbraith, Mrs. W. McFadden and Mrs. A. Galbraith are in ill health, but we trust will soon be able to be with us.

Mrs. Aitkens of Tamblin's, has accepted an invitation to be guest speaker at our afternoon tea in June.

A nicely made cotton quilt top was received from Mrs. A. Galbraith for W.A. work.

The roll call was answered by a verse containing the word Resurrection. A fine program of readings were given by Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. R. Marshall, Mrs. C. Marshall, Mrs. H. Campbell and Mrs. T. Snow. Mrs. Douglas had an interesting contest.

At the close of the meeting a sale of baking and other articles was held to help provide funds for the flower basket and W.M.S. Supply Fund.

The hostess, Mrs. Reid assisted by Mrs. T. Snow and Miss Bessie Smith served delicious afternoon tea and all enjoyed a social half-hour.

We hope for a speedy recovery for the following, Mrs. Ockerman, who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Armstrong; Mr. Norman Lawrence who is ill in Milton Private Hospital and also to Mr. Ed Ford in the same hospital suffering from a broken arm.

Death called another prominent citizen to his eternal rest suddenly on Sunday morning in the person of Mr. A. Woodley. Sincere sympathy is extended to the wife and family in their sad loss.

Hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Downs of Milton, who on Monday, March 29th, will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Norman Price and baby daughter of Detroit are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Armstrong.

The Sixth Line Euchre club held their usual meeting on Friday evening in S.S. No. 7. A pleasing feature was the presentation of a pen-knife and broach to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reid. Although very much surprised both thanked the gathering for the kind gifts which will always remind them of the good fellowship at No. 7. Mr. and Mrs. Reid are moving soon to their new home in Weston.

An enjoyable family party was held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Englehart Burlington, last weekend where nieces, nephews and their families gathered on the occasion of her birthday to offer congratulations. She was also the recipient of a handsome gift.
