QUICK COURTEOUS SERVICE TERMINAL

PHONE MILTON 404

TAXI

RON FEATHERSTONE Electrician

PHONE MILTON 158r3

PROMPT SERVICE

LET US DO YOUR

BUILDING

Traynor Construction Co.

GENERAL CONTRACTOR Phone 485W P.O. Box 86 Milton

MASTER SEAL

Aluminum Storm and Screen WINDOWS - DOORS Sun Porch and Breeze-way

Enclosures All material supplied No Down Payment Easy Terms

FREE ESTIMATES AND

DEMONSTRATION LLOYD JONES

Phone Oakville 567 Collect

OBITUARY

Home on October 6 In Halton Traced

cemetery on October 8, following Mrs. Chapman on Tuesday, Octob-funeral srevice, for Lulu Alice er 7. Following the reading of the Snure Johnston, who died at her minutes of the last meeting, Mrs. Trafalgar township home on Oct- McDougall told the ladies that the ober 6. She was born in Jordon on course on "Your Food and Your December 30, 1888. She was a Figure" would be given in the member of the Church of Christ at Farmer's Building. As many ladies

G. M. Johnston of Beamsville of- and guests are invited. ficiated at the funeral.

Malcoln McDuffe, Stewart Snure, be responsible for the program. Donald Snure and Lloyd Hoover. husband, Albert H. Johnston, two there being in the usual sale at the sons and two daughters, Alice and end of the meeting. Mrs. W. Sanderson of Hamilton district finals, for which there Beach, and one brother, Lloyd were 59 entries. Snure of Hamilton

Announce Winners Of Hog Specials

Howard Armstrong received the champion carcass award in the T. Eaton hog specials at Milton fair. With 15 entries, competition was the largest ever. Entries were judged on carcass basis.

Following are the winners, in order, Howard Armstrong, R.R. 1, Mil- ton county called themselves "The ton; Howard Armstrong; C. Gregg, Grangers" and was composed of Inter-school field day postponed R.R. 1, Georgetown; Fred Dixon, R.R. 1 Milton; Jack Simpson, R.R. 1, group but was responsible for the will be held. Further news on this Hornby; Jim Carney, R.R. 3 George-

Offers Help, Laid Line 50 Years Ago

Recent publicity about the town searching for the exact route of a water line from Agnew Spring to Milton attracted the interest George H. Gordon of Fort Erie, who made a special trip to town to offer his assistance.

than 50 years ago, dug the path for the line installed at the time by the town. Unfortunately, the scene had changed considerably in the half century and Mr. Gordon was unable to recognize the area and location of the line.

worked here.

Farmers' Groups

The regular meeting of the Om-Interment was made in Omagh agh W. I. was held at the home of as can attend from Institute groups

The ladies of the local institute Pallbearers were six nephews, were invited to Mrs. Cameron Wil-Willis Johnston, Arnold McDuffe, son's of Scotch Block and were to

The unusual roll call, "an ex-Surviving Mrs. Johnston are her change of pickles" resulted in A report of the directors' meetter of Sullivan, Mo.; two sisters, then given. The ladies were told Bood Mrs. T. V. Hoover of Hamilton and that the Dublin quilt reached the Reed.

> A discussion followed re district areas while awaiting the arrival of the guest speaker, Victor Hall, whose subject was "Agriculture successful organization of the W. for tests. and the fact that it had existed them weakened. The first farmers group in Hal- handsomely rewarded. nine men. It was not a political and it is not yet known when it existing Halton Farmers' Mutual next week, we hope. Fire Insurance Co.

The next club was known as "The Patrons of Industry." He recalled cept Japan and Germany, as they that a former resident of Omagh would undersell our products. Engdistrict, Crawford Norris, whose land would like our trade and we father had been a local preacher at McCurdy's church, had become premier of Manitoba.

organized but it got into difficult- our Ontario fall wheat, which ies when it entered politics as it manufactured into flour here. was not strong enough to oppose organized labor.

It was Mr. Gordon who, more ness in farm organizations had been people were present at the politthat they were too Scotch about ical meeting in Milton the night money to support them and urged the nominee spoke. with the other industries.

He was still quite interested in today are confronted with are Mr. and Mrs. Hall for attending the town despite the fact that it surpluses, taxes and social services. the meeting which closed with the was more than 50 years ago he He said we could have free trade Queen. The usual sale and rewith any country in the world ex- freshments followed.

By George English Kiddies, we have a problem today! As the fellow says, "no news started.

Social

dance on Friday night. There will beauty roses, with white heather. be dancing to the music of all the The bride's sister, Mrs. Ted Lawrname bands. The master of cere- ence, was her only attendant, wear-Wright (Jean) of Weston and Wal- ing in charge of Mrs. Ellerby was monies will be that celebrated im- ing turquoise blue faille taffeta,

Chit-Chat

Congratulations to Barry Archer who did so well at the Internation-Plowing Match. We wondered why all the pupils around the school were so sad and and Canadian Industries." Mr. Hall studious lately, but then we recomplimented the ladies on the membered that this is the season by Charles Reay of Oakville.

Math teacher and you will be corsage of yellow roses.

need gold or else the government has to subsidize us. Some of our agricultural products can be con-The U.F.O. was the next group sumed by our own people such as

Mr. Hall urged the ladies to take more interest in politics and com-Mr. Hall felt that a great weak- mented on the fact that only 20 that members get behind the Fed- He deplored the fact that when eration of Agriculture and farm fo- people have lots of money they rums and try to get a square deal sometimes forget the church, but this should not be the case.

The problems that farmers of A vote of thanks was moved to

BOULEVARD CLUB SCENE OF RECEPTION OF RICKABY-TURNER WEDDING

Bronze and yellow mums with fern decorated Knox Presbyterian church, Oakville, when, on October 3 at 7.30 p.m., the marriage of Christina Turner of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Milton, to John H. Rickaby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rickaby of Toronto, was performed Rev. Charles Nicoll officiated.

A gown of blush satin which featured a fitted bodice, wing colis good news," so apparently we lar edged with seed pearls, a full are loaded with goodies to-day. skirt and circular train was worn We have a great pile of nothing to by the bride, who was given in tell you, so we had better get marriage by her father. A coronet of seed pearls held her veil which fell the length of the gown's train. Don't forget to come to the A. A. Her bouquet was of American and bronze mums.

Stanley Crawford of Toronto was groomsman with the ushers John Turner of Eden Mills and Alan Johnson of Toronto.

"The Lord's Prayer" was sung The Boulevard club in Toronto

We have a problem for all grade was the setting of the reception, in Halton county for 50 years and 11 Algebra students. How long when the mother of the bride rethat this group was celebrating its will it take a termite with a wood- ceived almost 100 guests wearing a 25th anniversary this year. He re- en leg to bore through a two inch gown of blue crepe and lace with gretted to say that men's farmer marble slab if a 2-wheeled steam- black accessories and a corsage of organizations had not been as suc- ship can cross the ocean in 2 apricot roses. She was assisted by cessful or enduring. Various ones years, burning wet cement for the groom's mother, who chose had been started but interest in fuel? Take your solutions to your deer brown lace and crepe with a

After a honeymoon trip to the Laurentians, the couple will live in

CAMPBELLVILLE

Mark Thanksgiving At Services, Supper

Anniversary Thanksgiving services were held in St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, on Sunday when the Rev. John Ross, M.A., B.D., Ph. D. of Woodbridge was guest speaker of the day and brought inspiring messages at both St. David's choir rendered special music, assisted by Mrs. W. Maxwell of Guelph.

On Monday evening a congregational Turkey Supper was held and the program was contributed by Murray McPhail, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Tom Elliott, Helen Agnew, Miss Sutherland, Mrs. W. Maxwell and Harold Speers with Rev. J. Sutherland as chairman.

Everyone enjoyed the week-end.

GUERNSEY BREEDERS!! REMEMBER

Friday - October 24th - 7 p.m.

The Third Annual

Halton and Peel Invitational Sale

Fully Accredited 45 HEAD Calfhood Vaccinated from R.O.P. Herds

EVERY ENTRY A CAREFULLY SELECTED HEADLINER

HAYS SALES ARENA

On No. 5 Highway, 1/4 mile West of Trafalgar between Toronto and Hamilton

HAYS FARMS LIMITED - Sale Managers Box 64, Oakville, Ont. Phone: Oakville 1308

FAMILY STYLE ENTERTAINMENT ACTON Mon.-Tues. Oct. 20-21 "Singin' in the Rain" Fri.-Sat. Oct. 17-18 Color by Technicolor Matinee Sat. 2 p.m. Starring Technicolor Action GENE KELLY Thrill Adventure! DONALD O'CONNOR DEBBIE REYNOLDS "Denver and is proof that . . . Rio Grande' "Movies are Better Than Ever!" Starring EDMOND O'BRIEN STERLING HAYDEN Added Pleasure -"Mealtime Magic" Mon. to Fri. From 7 p.m. "Wild Water Champs" Sat. & Hols. "Two Mousketeers" From 6.30 OCT. 22-23 WED.-THURS. THE BIG 3 FOR SHOW (1) "THE LION AND THE HORSE" (Color) (2) "5 COLOR CARTOONS" (3) FREE POPCORN FOR THE KIDS! Plus WORLD NEWS EVENTS

THE OPENING OF

Carrying a Complete Line of

SHOES and RUBBER FOOTWEAR

For the Whole Family--For Every Occasion

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Cheertully Refunaed

MAIN ST.

MILTON

