—Be wary tomorrow if you're superstitious. It's Friday the 13th

—The freezing and thawing weather may have some detrimental effect on the crop of wheat and new hay.

—Bruce Gates, R. R. 3, Milton, has sold his farm, east half con. 7, lot 8, Nassagaweya to a Burlington buyer.

—Town Foreman Iain Sillars and Clerk Adam Sprout attended the Good Roads Convention in Toronto Wednesday.

—Valentine's Day Saturday. St. Valentine would be surprised at the sugary sentiments evolved from his kindness long ago.

—Don Merritt of Merritt Hardware Co. attended the Hardware Convention at the Coliseum, Toronto on Thursday, February 5.

—Bill Elliott suffered a dislocated shoulder and strained ligaments while playing with the Milton Juniors in Orangeville Tuesday evening.

—The mild weather continued at the first of this week, while there was a snowstorm yesterday. There has been very little skiing so far this winter.

—Teachers from Milton public school joined those from Georgetown and Acton at a meeting in the new Howard Wrigglesworth school in Georgetown Wednesday afternoon.

—Last week's winners of the weekly Roxy Milton Talent Show were Ken Cartwright, first prize for solo trombone playing and Faye Clements, second prize for solo singing.

—A Winchester 30-06 rifle was reported stolen recently from J. Thistlewaite, R. R. 3, Milton, police report. The rifle was in a garage adjoining the house. It was noticed in place a week earlier.

—An error crept into the advertisement of Milton Department Store last week. The store was incorrectly advertised as being open Thursday evening. This is not so and we regret the error.

—The Omagh Softball Club held a very successful party at Trafalgar Hall, Friday, February 6, with 160 persons attending. Dancing was to the music of Lorne Bentley's orchestra. Mrs. W. Dent and M. C. Beaty won at cards; Mrs. M. C. Beaty and Cameron Marshall received consolation prizes.

—Grace Anglican Church W. A. entertained members of the W. A. of Milton Heights, Hornby, Lowville and Nassagaweya on Wednesday, February 4 at the Parish hall to a showing of slides and film strip on their study book of the year, "Thine is the Glory," with Mrs. F. Thompson in charge of the script. A vocal selection by Miss Carol McMaster and reading by Mrs. Wm. Dales was enjoyed by all, as was the light refreshments served later.

Milton High School News

By George English Sports

Oh, the shame and ignominy of it all! First the boys and now the girls of grade 11 have defeated 5th form in the hockey finals. All this adds up to the fact that grade 11 seems to contain all the skillful skaters this year. Two games were played on Thursday, with these results: grade 11 over grade 10, 1-0; grade 11 over grade 13, 1-0. One penalty was served by Gwen Neilson of grade 11 for cross checking. (We knew there was foul work behind that success.)

Social
The S. C. dance on Friday night was the most successful one so far this year. A magnificent crowd attended much to the satisfaction of the S. C. Prexy, Dave Dobie. We had a few anxious minutes at first due to the erratic action of the record player. This, however, was remedied by a new needle, donated by one of the girls and the P.A. system, except for the nut behind the mike, worked perfectly the rest of the evening. Of the

NO ORCHID

And then there was the radio program where they gave the oldest lady present an orchid. After the broadcast one silvery haired lady came up to the master of ceremonies and said, "I was older than the lady you gave the orchid to today—I'm 83." "Why didn't you come forward?" asked the M.C."

"Oh, I couldn't; you see, my husband is in the studio with me and he thinks I'm only 81."
