

NO TIME FOR RUMORS
The restaurant was crowded and the waiter frowned as he stopped at a table.
"Wassamatter?"
"I think there's a fly in my soup."
"Well, make up your mind. I haven't any time for rumors."

PIANO, VIOLIN PUPILS HOLD ANNUAL RECITAL
On the evening of Saturday, June 13, in St. Paul's United church Sunday school room, the parents and friends of Miss Mignon Telgmann's piano and violin pupils gathered to hear an interesting and varied program of music. This was the annual recital of Miss Telgmann's music class, which includes two violin pupils.

The young performers and their teacher deserve much credit for the high calibre of the music presented. The program commenced with numbers by beginners and continued with selections by the Toronto Royal Conservatory of Music as being in grade four to 10. All played from memory.

LOWVILLE Mission Band Gives Book to Mrs. Lake

The service in the United church on Sunday morning was in charge of the minister, Rev. Wm. Lake, who preached his sermon from the text, "By His Grace ye are saved." The junior choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Howard Coulson and organist Mrs. Mabel Davey, rendered a selection, then retired to the parsonage for their Mission Band meeting.

The worship period was in charge of Eugene Coulter, after which the leaders took charge. Mrs. H. Coulson headed the senior group and Miss Shirley Colling the juniors. At the conclusion, Arlean McArthur, on behalf of all the members, presented Mrs. Wm. Lake with the gift of a book for her untiring efforts in aid of the Mission Band.

Communion service will be observed in the United church next Sunday, when Rev. Wm. Lake will deliver his farewell sermon before leaving the charge to go to Kincardine.

Local News
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Auckland and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead attended the Ontario Poultrymen's Association chicken barbecue held at Aurora on Saturday.

Mrs. J. M. Readhead and Mrs. Velma Norris joined the Campbellville Women's Institute branch on their bus trip to Niagara Falls last Tuesday and report a fine time.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mr. P. D. Hartley, Mrs. E. M. Readhead and the other members of the family on the death of Mrs. P. D. Hartley, Milton, who for several years lived in our midst.

OMAGH Marshalls Observe Silver Anniversary

Hearty congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall who on Saturday quietly observed their silver wedding anniversary and also to Rev. J. N. and Mrs. McPaul on their 26th wedding anniversary on June 15.

Birthday greetings this week are extended to Leslie Peacock, who was six years old on Friday, and also to Miss Betty May, who had a birthday on Wednesday.

Communion services will be held at Omagh Presbyterian church next Sabbath.

The fine new home which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price are building on the sixth line is progressing well.

Mrs. Snow and Earl visited in Hamilton last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stipe and Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson.

Bridal Shower
Miss Jean Rae, whose marriage to Mr. Glen Stringer will take place on Saturday in Bethel church, was honored on Tuesday evening when Mrs. George Rae entertained about 30 friends of the bride at a pantry shower. Many pretty and useful gifts were received and Jean expressed her appreciation.

Contests were conducted by Miss Ellen Chapman and a delicious lunch was served. Assisting the hostess were Miss Shirley Downs and Miss Jacqueline Peacock. Their many friends wish the bride and groom a long and happy married life.

Mining for Golden Qualities
A large number of Omagh ladies motored to Eden United church on Tuesday on the occasion of their afternoon tea. Mrs. S. Hall welcomed the guests and presided for the program. Large baskets of roses and white peonies made an attractive setting.

Musical numbers were given by Miss Ruth Lawson, solos by Mr. Maurice Beatty, accompanied by Mrs. C. Peacock and a duet by Mrs. J. May and Mrs. G. Laidlaw. All were much enjoyed. Miss Jane Emerson delighted the audience with elocution numbers.

The guest speaker, Mrs. George Leck, gave an inspiring talk on gold mining, stressing the fact that each individual has golden qualities in her heart and that each should prospect and develop for peace, love, kindness and charity to fellow men. Mrs. E. May thanked all who contributed to the program, after which all adjourned to the Sunday school rooms, where a lovely tea was served.

Georgetown Bows With 8-3 Defeat
Heavy scoring in the second and fourth frames by Milton Intermediate ball club downed the Georgetown team on Monday in Georgetown by a score of 8-3.

A scoreless first was followed by four runs in the second frame as Melanson, Heipel, Mills and Gervais rounded the diamond for Milton. Errors, hits and walks accounted for runs in the fourth as Milton added three more runners.

Big scoring inning for Georgetown was the third when Jenner and Kirkwood scored on hits with Dillon making first on an error. The rally almost brought the score to an even tempo with Milton leading the home club 4-3 but the next inning proved a swamping as the county towners introduced three additional runs and a final counter in the sixth when Fay scored for his second time.

Costly errors were fatal for the Georgetown crew with eight credited to that club contrasted with two for Milton and a smooth double play in the second frame.

Gervais on the mound for Milton allowed eight hits, and issued no walks while Walters and Timleck, doing the Georgetown hurling, allowed seven hits and issued four walks.

MOFFAT Nassagaweya W.I. Held at Amos Home

The Nassagaweya Women's Institute held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Tom Amos. Reports of the district annual were given and a solo by Mrs. C. Pembleton of Guelph.

Miss Marjory Chester of Campbellville spent Saturday with Miss Catherine Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart of Toronto were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. W. Black.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Perry of Guelph were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. G. Rozell.

Duties of Citizens Discussed by W.I.

The June meeting of the Mountain Union Women's Institute met at Clembrook cottage, with Mrs. E. B. Clements as hostess. The meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect, with the president in the chair.

The minutes were read and adopted. The correspondence and treasurer's report were given and it was decided to send a donation to the C.A.S. Ladies were chosen to attend Canada Day at the Triennial Conference, which is being held in Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, in August. The sick were to be remembered by the committee in charge.

The president thanked the program committee for the appearance of the 1953-54 program. Mrs. E. B. Clements made mention of the Coronation scrapbooks as well as the record books that had been on display on Achievement Day. The two leaders, Mrs. Roy Coulter and Mrs. Y. E. McArthur, were thanked for their splendid co-operation and the interest they had shown in helping the girls.

Mrs. E. B. Clements read an article from the I.O.D.E. paper on the Coronation. Mrs. Maurice Readhead gave the highlights of the district annual.

Mrs. Allan Clements, in a few well chosen words, thanked Mrs. Lake for her help and co-operation during her stay in the community, and as a token of appreciation presented her with a cup and saucer. Mrs. Lake thanked the members and wished the branch every success.

The motto, "On Guard," was given by Mrs. J. Robertson. The ladies were asked to stand and sing the first verse of O Canada. This was followed by the reading of the verses, emphasizing the well-given motto that the members should accept as individuals.

Mrs. Eleanor Coulter introduced the guest speaker of the day, Mrs. Eleanor Sims of Merton. In her talk on citizenship, Mrs. Sims spoke of what a privilege it is to live in this fair country. Canadians have great opportunities and to be a good citizen, all have many roles to play. Responsibility means participation; therefore group discussion is advisable.

After meeting in the different discussion groups, the ladies assembled together and their findings were given. The example of the Queen's respect for her parents was pointed out and the group decided they should put forth an effort to encourage the interest of New Canadians and work through the children at home and at school.

Mrs. Langton, as courtesy convener, thanked the hostess, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Booth who also had charge of a group and all others having a part in making the meeting a success. Mrs. Maurice Readhead presented the two ladies with a gift. The branch had the pleasure of having some of the ladies from Kilbride as guests. Mrs. Matt Howard thanked the branch for inviting the Kilbride group to join Mountain Union in the meeting.

Mrs. W. Hume had the honor of being invited to the 50th anniversary of Macdonald Institute, Guelph. She gave the group a few of the highlights.
