Mrs. E. Dredge Busy Bees Hostess

Sunday, July 5, visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hetzel were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Walz and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heinz of Astabula Cleveland, U.S.A.

On Wednesday, July 8, the Busy Bees Institute met in the home of Mrs. E. Dredge. The president, Mrs. S. Robinson presided. The meeting and roll call was answered by an achievment of the Institute. Correspondence was then read.

Arrangements were made for a hope chest to be shown at Milton Fair. Ways of making money for the Institute were discussed. The motto was then given by Mrs. R. Lindsay. The paper was ended by a poem, "Come into the Garden."

A demonstration on sewing hints was given by Mrs. Jack Dredge and Mrs. R. Lindsay which proved very interesting. Mrs. Robinson gave current events. The hostess and her assistants served a lovely lunch which was very much enjoyed. The president thanked Mrs. Dredge for the use of her home.

We are very sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. S. Coxe's mother in Guelph and hope for her a speedy recovery.

Well, Slit My Throat!

On doing a little research work to find out "why are barber poles" this lowly one turned up a point or two that seemed of interest. For instance, did you know that the barbering profession was strongly established before the year 1300? In 1308 "Richard le Barbeur" was appointed "Master, to have supervision over the

In the time of Edward IV, barbers were also the surgeons (incorporated 1462). Their surgical activities were taken over by the "Surgeons of London" finally but the barbers were still allowed to practice blood-letting and drawing of teeth.

Oh, yes, it seems that the barber pole got that way to represent blood and bandages! So if you are in need of stationery or anything in office supplies and can't find us, just look for one of the local "blood-letters" and
