KELSO FORUM FAVORS CONTRIBUTORY OLD AGE PENSIONS

The Kelso Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons with Mr. Lloyd Stokes in the chair. The topic for the evening "In Time of Need". A discussion on social security brought forward many splendid ideas, all were unanimous that regardless of what Government is in power some measure of social security should be enacted especially Health Insurance and Care of the Blind and

We believe a special tax should be levied on all persons on reaching the age of 18, thus at the age of 65 a superannuation would be available instead of "Old Age Pension" and a "Means" test would then be unnecessary. A social half hour brought to a close a very educational evening.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tamplin, of Falconbridge, Ontario, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Mary to Robert Harold Gowland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gowland, of Milton. Wedding to take place January

The monthly meeting of the Omagh Women's Institute was held on January 11th at the home of Mrs. George Dolby with the president, Mrs. Bayley presiding. The Patricia, a sister for Suzanne, at roll call was-"The winter care of house plants".

The Ladies of Drumquin Institute were guests and Mrs. Emerson Ford was the guest speaker. She chose as her subject "Elizabeth our George Stanley Anderson, belov- | Modern Queen" and told of many ed husband of Grace Gibson, of incidents in her life and character which make her the beloved Queen of so many loyal subjects. We might all take for our own, her motto-"meet to-day, meet tomorrow, meet the next day, in the ROFFEY-In loving memory of a best way that you can."

> -Mr. Jack Mountain and Mr. Jack Bristow will be singing and playing over CHML Thursday, January 27th at 10 o'clock.

TIMBERS-In fond and loving | On the air Saturday a group of memory of a dear father, James Halton Junior's will broadcast on Saturday evening January 22 over radio station CHML from 830 to

The discussion group will deal with that all-important agricultural term "conservation". The specan interesting talk on 'Recreation'. Time takes away the edge of grief, Those taking part in the program But memory turns back every leaf. will be Bill Lawson, John McClure, Ever remembered by John and Dave Pelletterio, Vera May, Ray Kay, Eveline, Jack and Theo.
