NASSAGAWEYA

Last Monday evening No. 7 School Farm Radio Forum held their annual oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Locker, where 31 met at 7:00 o'clock to enjoy first apple juice, then oyster soup, next salads, ham, jellies and pickles. To finish we nibbled on cookies and wafers until a slab of pie and about 8 oz. of ice cream was served. After dishes were disposed of and tables made ready progressive euchre was played. Highest score went to Mrs. W. Kennedy. Highest lady was Mrs. C. E. Davneport and second Mrs. William Tuck. Highest gent was Mr. Gerald Henderson and second Mr. David Henderson. A motion of thanks on behalf of all was sponsored by Mr. W. Kennedy to Mr. and Mrs. Locker for the use of their home and hospitality.

We still have a sick list. Miss Eileen Frank, Master Ralph Price and Master Jimmie Frank, little Doris Robinson have all had the flu.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Rev. J. C. MacNeil of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church and hope he is soon well again.

Mrs. George Redman and baby daughter, Orton, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Locker several days last week.

Mr. Gerald Henderson, Windsor, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson.

LOWVILLE

On Tuesday of last week there passed away in this community a highly esteemed resident in the person of Mr. A. W. Coulter. Mr. Coulter in his 73rd year, was born at Tweed, Ont., but had resided in this community for many years. He was a member of the United Church, a teacher of the Bible class of the Sunday School and a member of the Church session. He had been Clerk of the Session for a number of years. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Ira Cowan, Palermo and Mrs. Chas. Lockley, Hamilton; three sons Roy and Jack of Lowville and Merna of Welland.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon from his late residence to the United Church for service. The service was in charge of Rev. A. D. Penman assisted by Rev. E. G. Riddolls of Brantford and was largely attended. The Male Quartette sang during the service.

The pall bearers were Messrs. S. T. Coulson, F. W. Harbottle, J. B. Coulson, Geo. Colling, John Harbottle and Burdge Gunby. The floral bearers were Russell and Thos. Dales, Erlend and Stanley Joy, Howard Coulson, Roland Music and Keith Coulson and Stanley Price. Interment took place in Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

Special Easter Services will be held in local churches next Sunday with special music.

OMAGH

Mr. Robert Brownridge attended the Wool Growers Convention and banquet in the Royal York Hotel last Thursday.

Friends will be pleased to know that Mr. Tom Colbeck (now of Port Colborne) is improving slowly from injuries received before Christmas. Mr. Colbeck was cranking his car which happened to be in gear and it jumped forward and pinned him in the garage and broke his leg in several places. We hope he is soon able to be about again.

Mr. Willard Featherstone has been on the sick list the past week. Birthday greetings to Mr. Will Robinson, now of Milton, who celebrated his eighty-third birthday last Friday.

Mrs. H. Turner was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the members of Bethel W.A. and W.M.S. The devotional service was in charge of Mrs. Stanley Turner who gave a fine talk on the picture "Christ in Gethsemane." The study book review was by Mrs. E. Ball. Twenty eight ladies answered the roll call. Mrs. C. Ford rendered vocal numbers. Afternoon tea was served and a social half hour enjoyed by all.

The judges of the essay contest sponsored by the Omagh Farm Forum have announced that Vera Huska and Johnny Eves were the winners. Prizes of books were presented by the president, Mrs. E. Pell. The judges were Mrs. G. Brownridge and Mrs. Maurice Beatty.

MILTON GIRL GUIDES GUARD OF HONOR FOR STITT-SMITH WEDDING

Milton April 2—Ferns, white snapdragons and Candelabra formed the background in St. Paul's United Church on April 2nd, when Marion Elizabeth Stitt, Milton, daughter of Mrs. George W. Stitt, Toronto, became the bride of Frederick Wm. Smith, Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Milton. Rev. James L. Blair officiated. During the signing of the register Mrs. Fred Hayward rendered the Lord's Prayer accompanied by William Lethbridge at the organ.

Given in marriage by her brother, Wesley A. Stitt, Toronto, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a bustle and long train. A halo of orange blossoms held her long veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses and sweet peas. Her attendants, Phyllis Powell, Toronto, Mrs. W. A. Stitt, Toronto, and Heatherann Hayward, Milton, wore similar gowns of pink, blue and yellow taffeta respectively with picture necklines and bustles. Their headbands and bouquets were of spring flowers. Fred Barnes, Milton, was groomsmen and Frederick Timbers, Milton, and Raymond Glenn, Toronto, ushered. As the wedding party left the church they passed through an archway of blue and white ribbons formed by the 1st Company of Girl Guides, Milton. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayward, Milton, the bride's mother received in a 2-piece gray crepe dress with black accessories and corsage of white roses. For a wedding trip to the United States, the bride chose a spring black flowered dress with harmonizing pink hat and dress-making coat with black accessories.

When minutes count, nail polish will dry faster if the fingertips are dipped in cold water immediately after applying the polish. Allow the fingertips to dry without wiping.
