

NEWS OF DISTRICT

Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

HORNBY

Owing to the dry spell our enterprising neighbours, the Chrysler brothers have installed an irrigation system bringing the water from the 16-mile creek on their own farm. It certainly will mean many hundreds of dollars on their large acreage of vegetables.

ZIMMERMAN

Mr. and Mrs. M. Martin and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. Stein at Dunnville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones of Freeman were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. C. Bridgman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith and Reginald visited Sunday at Simmy's Bend.

Vern Galbraith visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. McKay at Thorold.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunter and family visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Fisher at Georgetown.

Mr. John Ford and Mrs. Jennie Ford of Oakville visited Sunday with the Hunters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunter of Detroit visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunter and Mrs. J. Hunter.

NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Neil C. Martin, Guelph Rd. former No. 7 residents, upon the birth of their baby son. Mother and baby doing well in Hamilton Hospital.

Many from this district attended the recital at St. David's Church, Campbellville, sponsored by the Campbellville Community Jr. Choir with Mr. Alex Pudwell conducting. Master Martin Davenport and Miss Donna McMillan took their part as members of the choir. Donna also took part as assisting pianist.

We are pleased to report Mrs. Annie Paul has been engaged for next term as teacher of No. 7 school.

Some of our No. 7 boys are in the Haltonville softball team and are in the league this year.

Mrs. John Frank has taken a position as a teacher in Milton Public School.

Last Friday evening No. 7 section and Dublin School section joined together in a presentation party for Mr. and Mrs. John Frank and Miss Eileen Frank at No. 7 school.

First part of the evening was spent chatting and playing cards. About ten o'clock the floor cleared for dancing and Mrs. Annie Frank, Mrs. O'Rourke, Douglas Frank and Jack Black supplied splendid music. At midnight Mr. Wilfred Kennedy asked Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Eileen to come forward. Miss Verna Webster read an address telling of the neighbourliness of the Franks and the loss the community felt at their departure wishing them the best in their new home and assuring them of a welcome at any time they wished to return. Mr. Joseph Henderson presented them with a gift of money and Miss Donna McMillan presented Eileen with a pen on behalf of all.

Several speeches were made by both No. 7 friends and Dublin friends. The Franks' each gave heartfelt and humorous replies telling of their reluctance at leaving and pleasure of the evening, thanks to the committee who arranged the evening and an invitation to visit them in their new home. A lovely lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing.

Eileen Frank is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Frank until school is finished and Mr. Frank is assisting Mr. John Wilson with the harvest. The family moved to their new home at Georgetown on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Donna McMillan won first place in her class and a $5 scholarship Saturday night at Milton in the Halton Male Choir Music Competition held in the High School.

Martin Davenport, although having a head cold carried on and obtained second prize and received $4.00 in his class. Again our No. 7 did credit to the community.

Many on Monday enjoyed ball games, bingo, etc at the opening of Halton Community Park and saw the turning on of the electric lighting.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Robinson attended the McMaster-Grey wedding at East Caledon on Saturday afternoon. School children enjoyed a holiday in honour of the King's birthday.

This Community will miss the voice of "Your Talking Reporter" over the radio and the loss of a friend was felt upon hearing of his death today at noon.

Prayers are offered by everyone for rain. The need is evident everywhere one looks. I hope by the time this is in print we have had three days of rain.

KILBRIDE

Rev. A. D. Penman, of Lowville, preached at the Kilbride Church on Sunday while Rev. N. Truax occupied the Lowville pulpit. Church service have been changed to 9.45 a.m. during the summer months with Sunday school at 10.45. There was special music at the Sunday School. Miss Monica Paquet of Hamilton sang two beautiful numbers, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peir visited on Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Dick and Mr. Dick in Hamilton.

Mr. Charles McArthur of Trochie, Alberta, who came here by plane, last week, is visiting with relatives in this community.

Among the Sunday visitors with Mrs. E. Harbottle were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Merritt of Grimsby and Mrs. Wm. Lambier and daughter from Hamilton.

A number from here attended the celebrations at Lowville on Monday.

ACTON

Activity on the swimming pool project shook off the lethargy of winter when every member of the committee was present at a meeting last Thursday evening.

The committee in charge of the canvas of retail business men was added to and will have this work complete before July 1st. The present funds are nearing the $9000 mark and there is no doubt but the first objective can be attained. The objective for the retail businessmen is $5000.

Well over thirty enthusiasts attended the Annual Opening Night program at the local Tennis Courts.

A committee has been formed by the service clubs and women's organizations of this town to raise funds for the addition of wings to the existing memorial to allow for about 25 names to be added. The committee has organized a town-wide canvass which will begin June 10th.

Tuesday's luncheon and many extra meetings of Acton Rotary Club have been devoted recently to the annual Rotary Fair scheduled for Dominion Day.—Free Press.

LOWVILLE

A large audience attended the W.A. Anniversary service in the United Church on Sunday morning last. Rev. N. J. Truax, B.A., of Carlisle was guest speaker. Special music was provided by the Lowville Double Male Quartette.

Mrs. H. A. Foster and Mrs. Lucille Walker visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Foster.

Mrs. Florence Butts, of Milton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Colling.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold King and family of Trafalgar were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Burdge Gunby.

The June Meeting of the W.M.S. and W.A. Societies of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Norman Langton, with Mrs. Featherstone Colling in charge. Mrs. Erland Colling and Mrs. F. A. Colling read the scripture lesson. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Stanley Coulson and Mrs. Robert Early, Mrs. Howard Lush and Mrs. Gordon Downs. Others contributing to the program were Mrs. B. Gunby, Mrs. E. Foster, Mrs. Melford Colling, Mrs. Roy Coulter, Mrs. L. Coulson, Mrs. Maurice Readhead, Mrs. E. B. Coulson. The W. A. followed with Mrs. Maurice Readhead presiding. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the committee.

GEORGETOWN

Norval has entered a team in the Intermediate grouping of O.L.A. lacrosse. While final groupings have not yet been arranged to date 24 teams have signed up and there will be at least three groups.

A new business in Georgetown has resulted from the recent merger of McNally Wood Products, operated by William McNally, and Lane's Haulage, operated by Bob Lane. The latter has retained certain parts of his business including the garbage contract with the town and his ice delivery business.

James Kenneth Cross, who spent his boyhood in the Georgetown district, died in Brooklyn, New York on May 11th. He was the eldest son of the late William H. and Isabella Cross, who formerly lived in Stewarttown and his father was at one time bandmaster in Georgetown.

Mr. Athol Stewart, of Georgetown, has been appointed copy chief of Walsh Advertising Office in Montreal, and he will also act as director of a newly formed radio department in the same branch.—Herald.

CAMPBELLVILLE

The Campbellville Community Junior Choir presented their recital in St. David's Presbyterian Church, here with Mr. Alec Pudwell conducting. Assisting artists were Miss Norma Brown, mezzo-soprano and Miss Donna McMillan, pianist and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, accompanist.

Those in the choir were: Soprano, Helen Agnew, Eleanor Cairns, Gordon Cramp, Martin Davenport, Tommy Elliott, George Greenlees, Audrey Hurren, Kathleen MacNeil, Donna McMillan, Gloria Purdy.

Mezzo-Soprano, Norma Brown, Douglas Cramp, Judith Elsey, Lois Greenlees, Gerry Homewood, Anna Hurren. David McMullen, Skipper Purdy, Ruth Roberts.

Contralto, Audrey Cairns, Marilyn Cairns, Jean Dennis, Katharine Fraser, Glen Leeming, Marilyn Moore, Eileen Oats, Anne Parker, Margaret Pickett, Thelma Pickett.

A good appreciative audience attended. $100 was cleared.

Nassagaweya Township has reason to be proud of the contestants who entered the recent music competitions held in Milton on Saturday afternoon, sponsored by the Halton Male Choir.

Winners were Norma Brown of Campbellville $50 scholarship. Donna McMillan, No. 7 school, Martin Davenport No. 7 School, Gerald Homewood, Guelph Junction and Helen Agnew, Campbellville all winning honors and were given a great deal of encouragement by Dr. Reginald Cooper, England, who was the adjudicator.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Quinlan of Ottawa spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quinlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Howard were guests at the wedding of Charlotte Sault and Norman Smith in Kilbride United Church on Wednesday afternoon, June 8th.

Miscellaneous showers were held in honor of Miss Elsie Cairns bride-to-be, who will be married June 11th, at the following homes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scheer, Aldershot; Miss Eleanor Stewart, R. R. No. 2, Campbellville, Carlisle Community Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott were guests at the Harris-Agnew wedding on Saturday in Milton when Mr. Elliott was soloist.

The friends of Stewart Cramp wish him every success in married life. He was married in Brampton on Saturday to Miss Velma Hill of Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brydon and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Inglis were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. George Inglis.

Ronald Roberts is home after spending the past year at University at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Mrs. Robert Early and Lloyd left Milton Sunday night by plane for the west to visit the former's brother, Mr. Harvey Dredge.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kitching of Smith Falls were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Menzies.

The monthly meeting of Campbellville W.I. was held in the Recreational Booth on the school grounds with 25 ladies present.

Mrs. Frank Quinlan presided. The Roll call was answered by "Some memories of my grandmother's we cherish".

In the absence of the secretary, Miss Jane Reid read the minutes and items of business were discussed.

Mesdames A. T. Moore, Robert Elliott and George Inglis were named delegates to the W.I. convention to be held at Palermo on June 14.

Our W. I. donated 15 pies to the Field Day held on June 6th at Lowville Park.

Sports committee named were Mesdames Hartley Anderson, Howson Lush, William Mahon. Plans were made toward making the Nassagaweya Centennial in July a huge success.

Mrs. Howson Lush then took the chair for Mrs. J. K. Mahon who was responsible for this, the Grandmothers' meeting, and was unable to be present. Mrs. Walter Ferrier favored with an auto-har selection, "Rocking in an old Rocking Chair." Mrs. Thomas Wilson gave a paper on "The ideal ordinary member." Mrs. William McLaren favored us with humorous current events. The grandmothers sang in unison "The Old Rugged Cross". Mrs. William Buck gave the motto, "Age is not a matter of years, but of the mind".

Mrs. Sophia Patterson being the oldest member present, aged 93 years was presented with a dainty box of goodies.

Mrs. Robert Elliott was the winner of the lucky draw which was a beautiful brooch and case. The meeting closed with "God Save the King".

Mrs. Frank Quinlan entertained on Tuesday in honor of her daughter, Mary Teresa, on Tuesday afternoon, it being the occasion of her birthday. She received many good wishes, cards and gifts.

—While rumors still persist the first of July week-end may be a two-day holiday, other merchants along the Main Street, maintain that there is no foundation for the report.

"WAVE DEPARTMENT! BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR A GRAY BATTLESHIP THAT JUST WENT DOWN THE DRAIN."

LIMEHOUSE

Recent visitors in the community included: Mrs. McAdams, of Toronto, with Mrs. Ellerby.

Saskatoon, Sask., and Mrs. Thos. Dr. and Mrs. R. J. McEwen, of Taylor, of Guelph, with the A. W. Benton's on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pearson, of Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Greenlees and children, of Campbellville, at the same place on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hodgson, of Brantford, at the A. C. Patterson's on Sunday.

With Mrs. Lane on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and Elaine, of Toronto; and Mrs. Fred Packer and children, of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane and children and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Packer and children of Georgetown.

Miss Flossie Coleman, of Acton, with the Scott's over the week-end.

Mrs. Smethurst visited in Barrie, where Mr. Harry Smethurst is recuperating following an operation for appendicitis a week ago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones and little girls spent the week-end at Alliston and Everett.

Anna Spitzer and Neilson Benton were vocal solo contestants in the Halton Male Choir Musical competition in Milton on Saturday.

The Roughley's and A. Spitzer's visited in Aurora a week ago Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Toronto following an operation last Friday.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Andrew Mino in her sad bereavement in the death of her aged mother Mrs. Hill in Glen Williams on Sunday.

BURLINGTON

Although Burlington's telephone system will not be converted to dial until this fall, the official opening of the Bell Telephone business office in the new dial building at the corner of Brant and Caroline streets is scheduled for Monday, June 6th, according to E. J. Radigan, the company's manager for this region.

A beach patrol, as in former years is again being formed to assist in protecting the lives of our boys and girls who use the swimming beach. Allan Binkley, who will be assisting in supervising the activities at the Nelson Ave beach this season, has already chosen some half dozen young men and women to work on this important patrol.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane, knocking the infant down.—Gazette.

Donald Tuck, the young 16 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tuck, Queensway, was struck by a truck driven by Burton Cooper, and owned by the Wonder Bread Co. near his home on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The man had been delivering bread to the home and it is thought that the young boy crawled behind the truck and was unnoticed by the driver as he started to back out of the lane,