DIED

McNIVEN—On Tuesday, June 21st, 1949, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Wagner, Springbank Dr., R.R. 4, London, Elizabeth Jane White, wife of James A. McNiven, mother of John G. McNiven and Mrs. Robert A. Wagner. Interment took place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery on Thursday, June 23rd.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Rayner wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness during her recent illness, with special thanks to the nurses and doctors of the Milton Hospital.

- Brevities -

—June has certainly been a month of weddings.

—Newspapers and election workers can revert to normal routine for a while.

—Approaching a holiday weekend be sure and drive carefully. Remember the other driver may be a fool.

—Thinking of holidays reminds us that the shortest distance by railway from Halifax to Vancouver is 3475 miles.

—The 32 voices of the Halton Male Choir led the singing in the Evening Anniversary Service at Moorefield Presbyterian Church on June 19th. An account of the service in The Drayton Advocate expressed the appreciation of the congregation and the admiration they have for this group.

—Mr. George Prudham, of Edmonton, Alberta, was a successful Liberal candidate in the recent Federal election winning with a wide majority over his opponent in the riding of Edmonton West. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prudham, of Kilbride, and his many friends in the district wish him success in his new work.

NEW MACHINE FOR PICKING STONES

We read the other day that a farmer in Montana has invented a stone-picking machine operated by a tractor. What is more important is the added statement that the invention really works. What a boon such a machine would have been to the pioneer farms of old Ontario. It would be hard, probably impossible, to estimate the amount of tedious, back-breaking labor it would have saved the early settlers of such townships as Mono, Mulmur and Caledon. In some places in these townships stones were so plentiful that the farmers used them for building stone fences, another back-breaking job, for only large stones could be used for the bottoms of these fences and it was a heavy task to haul and pry them into place. Have you ever picked stone on a farm? The writer has and still has vivid memories of the tediousness of the job, the walking back and forth to gather the stones and then carry them to the wagon, which was used to haul them to some fence corner, or unused piece of ground, where they were piled out of the way. The farmers of that earlier generation disdained to use gloves to protect their hands. They did their work bare-handed, even to stone picking. After a day at the job skin and nails were worn almost to the quick and the rough stones gave the picker a jangled, raw-edged feeling that was anything but pleasant and far from conducive to good nature. So with our boyhood recollections still fresh despite the passing of the years, we wish, with heartfelt sincerity, the best of luck to this Montana farmer and his invention.

Menu Hints

Hello Homemakers! This is the time of year of strenuous outdoor exercising and jaded appetites. The family must eat well, so it is up to us to serve cool tempting meals. Salads are the best pick-ups. No salad has to be exactly measured and made. One new addition, (perhaps a dab of something left over) will alter the whole character of the dish. You become enthusiastic over your own creative ability when you mix different combinations. However, be sure to season salad carefully—the taste's the test. As a starter, here are favourite salad suggestions:

1. Chopped leaf lettuce, sliced radish, grated raw carrot, minced young onions with French or thick dressing. Diced cheese or hard-cooked egg or cold meat is a good addition tossed in.
 2. Coarsely chopped spinach, grated raw beet, scraped onion, broken crisp bacon and thick dressing.
 3. Diced cucumber, finely shredded cabbage, chopped tomato, minced chives, flaked fish and sour cream dressing.
- Cooked Vegetables
4. Diced carrot, green peas, kidney beans with minced raw onion and raw celery—with mayonnaise.
 5. Cooked or canned corn niblets with half as much diced cooked potato, and a few sprigs of peppercorn or nasturtium leaves with mayonnaise.
 6. Cooked cauliflower pieces, strips of green beans, with sliced raw radish and salad dressing.
 7. Diced cooked potatoes, sliced cucumber and parsley, mixed together with chili sauce and mayonnaise.
 8. Shredded cooked cabbage, chopped nuts, cubed pineapple and French dressing.
 9. Tomato or perfection jelly with diced celery, peas and cheese.
- Meat Salads
10. Cubed cooked veal, a little sliced ham, diced parsley and celery, diced orange and thick dressing.
 11. Meat, potato egg salad may be spooned into tomato shells — cubed tomato mixed with cold kidney beans and tart dressing for a cold meat roll (jelly-roll fashion).
 12. Jellied meat with pieces of tomato, diced prunes and finely grated cabbage.
- Colorful Salads
13. Grapefruit sections, diced orange cubed panned peaches and fruit salad dressing with dates rolled in cocanut.
 14. Cottage cheese with minced candied peel, canned apricot halves rolled in chopped nuts and jelly mold with whipped cream dressing.

TAKE A TIP

1. One raw vegetable should be chopped coarse when other tossed greens are minced or grated.
2. Toss greens together using a fork in each hand.
3. Add beets only at serving time because of their running colour.
4. Drain fruits thoroughly for salad or they will have a tendency to thin the dressing.
5. Chill plates as well as ingredients to hold fragrance and crispness.
6. Fresh fruit juices are fine in a French dressing for fruit molds.

REQUESTED RECIPES

- Buttermilk Dressing
- 1/2 clove garlic
 - 1/2 medium sized green pepper, finely chopped
 - 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
 - 3 radishes, minced
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon paprika
 - 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 - 2 tablespoons white vinegar
 - 6 tablespoons cottage cheese
 - 1/2 cup buttermilk (or thick sour Cream)
- Rub the salad dressing bowl with the cut clove of garlic. In the bowl mix the green pepper, hard-cooked egg, radishes, salt and paprika. Add lemon juice, vinegar, cottage cheese and buttermilk. Beat with rotary beater to combine. Serve on head lettuce, sliced cucumbers, shredded raw cabbage and so on. (This recipe makes a rather generous amount of dressing — it may be stored in the refrigerator and used as required.)
- All-Star Dressing
- 2 tablespoons salad oil
 - 1/2 cup enriched flour
 - 1 cup water
 - 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 3/4 teaspoon sugar
 - 2 egg yolks
 - 1 cup salad oil
 - 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- Make white sauce of first three ingredients; pour into combined remaining ingredients. Beat rapidly with rotary or electric beater. Makes 2 1/2 cups.
- Thousand Island Dressing
- Combine 1 1/2 cups All-Star Dressing, 3 hard cooked eggs, chopped 1 1/2 dill pickles, chopped, 1/2 cup of chopped celery, 1 green pepper, minced, 1 small onion, minced and chili sauce to taste. Serve on cool crisp lettuce wedges.

Historical Interest Discovered Inside High Board Fence

Jail Fence is Demolished — Old Papers Reveal Amusing Incidents— Wooden Match Box is Cache

In many instances it has been found difficult to establish the age of old landmarks, but not in the case of the high board fence surrounding the Jail Yard at the Halton County buildings.

Workmen engaged in the demolition of this age old fence discovered an old wooden match box containing proof of date of construction. Recently County officials ordered the fence to be removed and a new one constructed around the jail yard.

Three newspapers, two of them weekly, were found in excellent state, having been wonderfully preserved in the cache between the double boarded fence. The three, dated August 6th, 1885, included the Canadian Champion, published by Campbell and Panton; the Milton Sun, published by W. J. Watson, and the old Toronto Globe.

Claiming to be Halton's largest weekly at that time, the Sun carried a brief note establishing the time of the erection of the high fence so common to most readers. The note stated, "It was not a picket fence, but a high board that Gaoler Van Allen is building around the gaol yard. The old fence has stood 29 years. Gaoler Van Allen has occupied his present position for 29 years. We doubt if any gentleman in public position, can show a longer term of service. Older residents and W. I. Dick, K.C., recall that Gaoler Van Allen retired about 1910.

The fence which is being demolished was solidly constructed of heavy cedar posts, braced with heavy timber, and boarded both on the outside and inside, to prevent anyone from climbing the eleven and a half foot structure. Most of the material salvaged from the fence will be used in the newer fence, being built by inmates of the jail.

Many interesting articles are to be found in the three papers, but all featured the Louis Riel trial at Regina along with the sentencing of the man tried for treason, to be hanged on September 18, 1885, at Regina. They also featured a two train collision which killed two men near Streetsville. It was claimed at that time the conductor on the gravel train fell asleep and did not call his train to lay over at Streetsville until the freight had passed.

Both local papers covered the usual local happenings among which was headed "Drunks—Last Sunday was observed here in the usual way, and drunks were numerous. One of them Mr. was so disorderly when the thoroughfare was crowded with people who were going to church, that Constable Bradley was compelled to run him in, which was with considerable difficulty." The Champion while the Sun added he was fined $1 and costs or 15 days.

Builders would raise their eyebrows if they knew the steam sawmill owned by John Readhead and 100,000 feet of lumber was destroyed by fire. The loss was said to be $3,500.

The Scott Act, apparently contentious at the time, was given excellent coverage by all three papers. Comparison of prices and current events took this writer's eye. Return trip to Detroit for $4.00; Coffee, 25c a pound; tea, 40c a pound; 10 bars of soap, 25c; barrel of salt, $1.00; lace curtains, 60c pair.

And under County news, Acton has no street watering system... Oakville has no cow by-law and is happy in the knowledge that it's cows are not law breakers... in Campbellville the hotel was overhauled, and fitted for the public where they could purchase a meal for twenty-five cents and subscription rates (paid in advance) were one dollar a year, or five cents a copy.

There was very little difference between the Champion found and the paper printed by Blight and White, several years ago. It was a mammoth four-page tabloid boasting a coat of arms on the front page. The Sun was similar to the old Milton Reformer, an eight page paper with the interior made up of boiler plate printing. But there is a decided change in the Globe of those days to the one readers purchase today.

To bring readers up to date, The Champion was printed in the store now owned by A. Restivo, next door to Knox Presbyterian Church. Mr. Hemstreet who volunteered the background said the Sun was printed over his photographic studio the building now tenanted by T. G. Ramshaw and Clement Paint and Wallpapers. Mr. Hemstreet also said the life of the Milton Sun was short-lived. He thought Mr. Watson agreed to a five year lease, but failed in his venture before the lease expired.
