BORN

SMITH—At Grace Hospital, Toronto on Tuesday, April 4th to Mr. and Mrs. N. H. M. Smith (June Randall), a daughter.

GALLOWAY—Mr. and Mrs. Ken Galloway are happy to announce the birth of a daughter, a sister for Johnny, at Milton Private Hospital, on April 3, 1950.

IN MEMORIAM

DOLBY—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Peggy-Anne Dolby who passed away April 6th, 1948. Calm and peaceful she is sleeping. Sweetest rest that follows pain; We who loved her sadly miss her. But we trust in God to meet again. Lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad and Marjorie.

FOX Egbert E. — In loving memory of a dear husband, daddy and granddaddy who passed away April 5th, 1948.

Time speeds on, two years have passed Since death its gloom, its shadows cast Within our home, where all seemed bright, And took from us a shining light. We miss that light and ever will, His vacant place there is none can fill. Down here we mourn, but not in vain, For up in heaven we will meet again.

Lovingly remembered by his wife Minnie, his family, Norma and Bob Brown, Vera and Bob Summers and Earl and Francis Fox, also grandchildren, Norman, Bud, Robin and Patsy.

CARDS OF THANKS

Beverly Royce and her parents wish to extend their sincere thanks to neighbours, school chums and others, for their kind messages and actions during Beverly's recent sickness.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to my many friends for their thoughtful acts of kindness, floral offerings and so many beautiful cards and letters that came to cheer me while ill in hospital and at home. Thanks a lot. Mrs. E. B. Coulson.

Miss Millie Peacock wishes to thank Presbyterian W.A. of Omagh Church, also Milton Presbyterian W.A. ladies, her brothers and sister in law, nieces and nephews, neighbors and friends for their generous gifts of boxes of fruit and candies, plants, jams and all kinds of delights. Also Mr. McFaul for his calls.

- Brevities -

—Good Friday tomorrow.

—Easter and all the traditions of bunnies, eggs, hot cross buns, etc.

—Sunday night's snow storm was as lively and heavy as any this winter.

—Special Easter services in the churches on Sunday and during the Eastertide.

—Too bad more of the surplus water now running off couldn't be stored until summer.

—Hot cross buns to-morrow. At least they used to be a special treat for Good Friday.

—Send in your Easter visitors personally or your visits out of town for our personal column.

—Flood waters on Martin's Pond rose to flood the yard of Milton Lumber and Coal Co. on Tuesday.

—Joe Harris, Campbellville farmer had cause to celebrate when a Holstein cow gave birth to triplets two weeks ago. He reports the calves are doing fine and growing.

—Not only does 1950 usher in another season of baseball, but it is cause for bigger doings, when the Milton Baseball Club celebrates its diamond jubilee. Plans are now being formulated, officials announce to celebrate the occasion.

WELL KNOWN VARIETY TROUPE SCHEDULED FOR VISIT TO MILTON

Organized in the spring of 1948 by Mrs. Sidney Wilson and Mrs. Dorothy Grafton, the "Sunshine Variety Troupe" composed of clever young entertainers, ranging in age from four to eighteen years, has become well-known in Hamilton and district and is now being brought to Milton by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs C.P. and T. (cancer, polio and tuberculosis) committee.

Mrs. Grafton has been actively engaged in the entertainment field for some years, her specialty being the rendition of comic songs and the impersonation of well known entertainers.

There are dancers, singers, musicians and elocutionists in the troupe.

JET PROPELLED RAILWAY ENGINES

Aircraft jet engine principles are being applied to railway travel in Britain. British Railways expect to be running gas turbine locomotives towards the end of this year. Construction of this new-type engine is about to begin at Manchester. It will generate some 2,500 h.p. and be capable of pulling a train weighing 650 tons at more than 80 m.p.h.

Obituary

MRS. JAMES NIXON

The death occurred very suddenly on Thursday, March 23rd of Mrs. James Nixon at her home in Ancaster. Born at La Prairie in 1906, she came to Freeman, Ontario, spending her early life there, and moving to Ancaster 13 years ago. She was a member of the Ryerson United Church, Ancaster, and active in church work, being a member of the W.A. Surviving, besides her husband, are her mother, Mrs. Alfred Stevenson, Ancaster; one daughter, Bertha at home; two sisters, Mrs. Reginald Sherwood, Appleby, and Mrs. Edgar Cairns, of Campbellville.

The funeral, one of the largest ever held in Dundas, took place from the Cattel Funeral Home on Monday afternoon. Numerous floral tributes attested to the high esteem in which she was held. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Joseph Hampson, with interment in White Brick Cemetery, Ancaster. Pallbearers were Tom Beach, Arnold Marshall, Russell Pegg, Graham Myers, Joseph Crooks and Lloyd Baker.

HUNT UM UP THE GRAY CANOE

Brother, git your traps a-ready. Hunt um up, the gray canoe. Brother, git your eye a-steady. Ol' man Winter, he's all through.

On the shore I hear heem callin' Redwing blackbird's con-quer-ee-Graybird likes the rain dat's fallin'. He's a-singin' in de tree.

Sometime too, the sun, he's shinin' Out of dat beeg sky so blue. Brother, you must stop a-pinin'. Here's de spring; he's callin' you.

In the marsh the moonlight's lyin'. Watchin' for de rats to play. Through the night she's spyin', spyin'.

Where de ripples runs away. Mister Rat, he's there a-workin'. He has levee heet house an' den. In de grass the mud hen's lurkin'. Mos' de people's 'bout again.

Brother, git your traps a-ready. Hunt um up, the gray canoe—Brother, is your eye a-steady? Ol' man Winter, he's all through.
