BOWLING

Bowling as I see it from behind the foul (language) line.

PL.R. men's league was out in full force Monday night instead of Wednesday as a majority of the boys wanted to go to the Rotary Dance Wednesday night. All teams except a couple are in the running and battle royal was on from start to finish. No outstanding scores were made but fair averages were chalked up. League standing is as follows:

The 50-50 Club were all on hand except one player. High score for ladies was made by Audrey Brush who got 244, and high for men was Gord Lucy, with a score of 265. Everything went smoothly with one exception. One of the ladies let her team down badly, but we won't mention any names at the present time. Present standing as follows:

Screwballs	17
Ozarks	13
Cutups	17
Outlaws	9

Lowville teams were out in full swing and got going in fine shape. The play was very keen, and some nice scores made. This league was a little late getting going, but we are looking for some real action from these players. League standing not available.

The Ladies Afternoon league, was out Tuesday afternoon in full force, and a pleasant afternoon was had by all. Even the kiddies seemed to be enjoying themselves very much. There are a few new players who have not bowled before, but they are catching on fine, and with a little practice should develop into good bowlers. League stand not available.

A new league is being formed, and will bowl on Monday nights, as far as we know this will be known as the Milton Rural League, which will be composed of eight, seven-man teams. So far six teams have been formed, and will go into action next Monday night. We are looking forward to some real action from these rural teams.

An open letter to Milton High's rugby coach:
Dear Coach:

I am taking the liberty of forwarding to you a plea on behalf of the students of Milton High School. Please, under any circumstances, never arrange to have Milton play another rugby game on Friday the thirteenth. The results of the game last Friday were disastrous and may be repeated in any future game on such an inauspicious date. You see, coach, we lost the game 17-0. That wasn't so bad, because it was a good game, with the teams see-sawing back and forth across the field. Milton probably would have lost even if the game had been played on Thursday the twelfth. But maybe "Boogie" Hood's teeth wouldn't be so loose to-day if it had been played then. Maybe Milton would have made a touchdown when John Willmott intercepted a pass on Brampton's five yard line and maybe what happened after the game wouldn't have occurred. You probably know what happened, coach, but I might be able to add a few details.

After the game, everyone decided to go home. (Under the circumstances, I think this was a natural decision.) Anyway, I loaded up my chariot and started away. It was about this time that I discovered a nail firmly embedded in one of my tires. That was fine, but it was Friday the thirteenth, my spare was flat and my jack and tire pump were at home. Fortunately, I was able to borrow your jack and Bill Rowney's spare to get back to Milton.

John Willmott wasn't so lucky. He broke an axle, had to get a tow truck and wait till late at night to get his car fixed. And he thought I had troubles! Friday the thirteenth was lucky for the garage and restaurant owners only. Noreen summed up the thoughts of Milton's students when she sighed, "Well, anyway, it's a beautiful sunset."

So please, coach, never plan another game for Friday the thirteenth.

Yours very sincerely,
Seymour English
