Final Meet Held By Mission Band

The Mission Band of Omagh Presbyterian Church held its final meeting on Wednesday afternoon when the leader, Miss Jane Raynor, and the children entertained the mothers.

The opening hymn was followed with a prayer by Margaret Pell. The Scripture reading was led by Marion Marshall. Nineteen children answered the roll call. The offering was taken by Kathryn Ford and Anna Peacock read the offertory prayer.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Will McFadden, was then introduced by Irene Peacock. Mrs. McFadden gave a splendid talk using the text "Go and Tell." Christine Marshall thanked the speaker and all others for their fine help and co-operation. The meeting closed with a hymn and the Lord's Prayer.

Afternoon tea was then served and all had an opportunity to see the bale. This consisted of crib quilts, ditty bags, scrap books, toys, infants' wear and clothing.

The friends and neighbors in Boyne school section gathered in the school to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Featherstone, recent newlyweds. A pleasant time was spent at cards. The winners with high scores were Mrs. Charles Jarvis and Mr. Mel. Dolby.

Mr. Wilfred Lawrence was master of ceremonies for the presentation. Mrs. Denzil Lawrence read an address and D. Lawrence and William Raynor presented the gifts, a handsome occasional chair and smoker. The young couple expressed their appreciation. A lunch brought to a close another enjoyable evening.

Donald and Elizabeth VanWyke of Toronto were week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed and family.

Once again the summer vacation is just a memory and the children will be going back to classes, some perhaps for the first time.

Unidentified Man Shown Once More

It was several weeks ago that the last unidentified man was pictured in the Champion, but just this week that an answer to the pictorial query was received. The kindly looking gentleman with the moustache was identified by Thomas Douglas of Georgetown as Rev. Tough, a minister of the Presbyterian Church at Hornby.

This week brings another face for Milton perusal. There has already been one guess, but it may not be the right one.

Contact the Champion office if you know who he is, will you?

INTRODUCTIONS

"You're a cheat!" the first lawyer accused his opponent.

"You're a liar!" the other retorted.

Then from the judge: "Now that these attorneys have identified each other, we shall proceed with the case."
