Comes East at 83, Visits Home Town

A very interesting visitor was in Milton Wednesday afternoon in the person of Mrs. Harry Holgate Watson. Mr. Harry Holgate Watson, who died about one and a half years ago in Vancouver, was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Watson who owned and operated Watson's Drug Store on Main St., Milton with a family of 12 children.

Mr. Watson went west on one of the first C.P.R. trains to the west to start his own drug business when in his teens. There he met Kathleen Black of New Westminster and they were married.

Mr. Watson never stopped talking about Milton, his home town, where his father's drug store was. Mrs. Watson, who is now 83 years of age, came by train to Toronto to attend the wedding of one of her grandsons and persuaded one of them to drive her to Milton so she could see, for the first time in her life, her husband's home town.

Harvest Festival At Church Sunday

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby, celebrated Harvest Thanksgiving Festival Sunday, September 16. The service, which was well attended, was in charge of Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson of Georgetown, who took as his text, "Honour the Lord with thy substance and the first fruits of all thy increase". The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit, grain and vegetables emblematic of bountiful harvest.

The Rev. Mr. Perry, who had taken services at St. Stephen's 48 years ago, when he was a student minister, read the lessons.

Archdeacon Thompson congratulated the choir who were wearing new surplices for the first time, the new vestments being presented to the members of the choir by the ladies of St. Stephen's W.A. The Rev. Mr. Maxwell, rector of St. Stephen's and the congregation felt justly proud of the choir's new appearance.

At the conclusion of the service two beautiful gifts were dedicated by Archdeacon Thompson. The first was a beautiful cross made in England by skilled craftsmen and presented to the church by Rev. Norman Noble and his family in memory of Mrs. Harriet Brain Noble, and the other was a Missal Desk presented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph Weller, who lost his life in the last war.

Carol Hunter is in hospital suffering from rheumatic fever. Jill Alexander is in the Thistle-ton hospital, a victim of polio. Bill Thompson of the 9th line has recently painted his barn a bright red.

Mrs. Wilfrid Thompson's sister arrived here by plane from a trip to Ireland.

The Hornby Young People held a wiener roast at the home of Mary Thompson recently. A large number of young people attended and had a most enjoyable evening.

The 8th line Bridge Club held their first party of the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Ball last Saturday night. The prize winners for the evening were Margaret Leslie and Alf Ball.

A very enjoyable party was held on Saturday afternoon, September 15th at the home of Mrs. Clifford May, in honor of the North Trafalgar Community Club's thirtieth birthday, the guests being the members and ex-members of the club.

The president, Mrs. Jack Beattie, welcomed the guests and the Club Ode was sung. The Ode was composed especially for the Club thirty years ago by Mr. D. McGregor and sung at every meeting since.

Vocal numbers were given by June and Glen Waite. Mrs. L. Caulfield of Toronto gave an interesting talk on the early history of the Club—the first meeting having been 30 years ago that day in the same house, then the home of Mrs. May's mother, Mrs. J. Wagner.

Two anniversary contests were conducted and a letter of interest from ex-member Mrs. Millie Spencer from Spencer Port near Rochester was read.

A dainty lunch was served. The birthday cake for the gay occasion was made and decorated by Mrs. C. May and the 30 candles were blown out by the oldest guests, Mrs. Eli Atkinson, Mrs. John Bonham, Mrs. Henry Campbell and Mrs. McCauley. The oldest member of the Club, Mrs. Campbell, cut the cake. The remainder of the afternoon was spent renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Will Noble and son William of Toronto attended Harvest Thanksgiving services at St. Stephen's Church last Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brain.

Three members of the Ash Belles Homemaking Club competed at the C.N.E. competition and did very well. Marie Marshall was in the second group and Barbara Tasker and Donna Marshall were in the third group. These girls are to be congratulated on their fine showing.
