

LOCAL NEWS

Items for this column may be phoned to 220 or sent to the Canadian Champion Office in Milton.

—Quite a change in temperatures this week from last week's 85.

—The Woodward Ave. bridge was re-opened to traffic at the completion of the construction last week.

—The frost is on the pumpkin and other vegetables out of doors these cooler October mornings.

—Evelyn McCann, Omagh, won the Reserve Grand Champion on her Hereford Calf at Erin Fair last Monday.

—One writer says that women who think no man is good enough for them are perfectly right — and likely left, too.

—Crushed gravel has been applied to the boulevard on the north side of Main St. west of St. Paul's United Church, which improves its appearance.

—Next public holiday this year is Christmas — just 11 weeks from next Tuesday.

—Foreman Sillars reports a strong odor of gasoline in some Main St. cellars this week that may have been caused by disposing of gasoline in the sewers. This is prohibited and dangerous.

—Don Perie, Woolwich Street, Guelph, turned over to police Sunday a purse which he found on Woolwich St. containing money, personal belongings and vehicle licenses. The purse belonged to Ruth Howden of Milton.

—Help keep Milton clean by raking up the leaves so they do not accumulate in ditches and drains. Main St. on Sunday morning "looks like a circus had been in town" as one citizen put it. Despite containers, wrappers are still thrown on the street.

Teen Town Topics

By Thelma Hunter

They tell me that this column of doings and don't-ings of Teen Town is to be printed every week and we hope you will read it once in a while, just to keep up with the news.

Well, kiddies, we have had two Teen Town dances already but the official opening is yet to come. There will be no Teen Town this Friday night.

As most of you know, your new council for 1951-52 was elected on Friday night. Well, this select group of officials held their first meeting on Sunday night at the home of Isabelle Wilson and we shall endeavor to tell you some of the more important details.

First, you should know just who's running this little shindig. Of course, the Milton Rotary Club is sponsoring us and with their support we hope to make Teen Town a success.

And now for your council (such as it is). Our chief cook and bottle washer is His Worship John C. Willmott. Clerk is Nancy Hannant. She has more work than the rest of us but she also has complete charge of the treasury—ahem! We also have six councillors as follows, chief door man, Terry Walker; program director, Isabelle Wilson; property director, Dorothy Wood; recreation, boys, Ken Moore and girls, Ruth Lawson; publicity, Thelma Hunter.

And here are our newest rules and regulations. (1) Applications for membership will be given out until the end of October and must be received by council by November 9. After approval (by council) of applications, members will receive membership cards for which there will be a slight fee of 75c. After November 9, all members will be admitted for 25c, non-members will pay 50c. Anyone 13 or over may apply for membership. (2) Official by-laws: 1, no drinking; 2, no smoking; 3, no loitering around the door; 4, no admittance to anyone after 10:30 p.m.

Well, that's all for now. See you all again next week.

LOWVILLE Local Guests At 15th Anniversary

(Intended for last week)

Mrs. A. W. Coulter and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coulson were guests at the 15th wedding anniversary dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coulter, given at Hawthorne Lodge on Sunday, September 30, 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dolbel and family motored to Kingston on Sunday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Valpy of Percé, Gaspé Peninsula, who will be visiting with them for some days.

The United Church withdrew their morning service to join with St. George's Anglican Church on the occasion of their Harvest Home services.

Mr. George Bell of Nelson visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robertson this week-end.

CLOVER BOUQUET HAS 20 OF FOUR LEAF VARIETY FROM MRS. R. BUSH

With not a Friday the 13th in sight until well on in 1952, Mrs. Robert Bush brought us a bouquet, yes, a bouquet, of four leaf clovers that she had picked at her home on R.R. 2.

There was no doubt about the number of leaves; there were four and the bouquet had well over 20 different four leaf clovers in it. Mrs. Bush said she wasn't particularly looking for them they just seemed to stand out and she picked some on Thanksgiving Day and on Tuesday morning again, all within a small area on her lawn.

Some five leaf clovers were also in the area but Mrs. Bush didn't bother to pick them. Of course, there is supposed to be good luck attached to the finding of a four leaf clover and if so Mrs. Bush should have plenty of it for awhile.

C. R. BURNE ELECTED VICE CHAIRMAN DISTRICT PROVINCIAL BOWLING ASSOCIATION

C. R. Burne was elected chairman of District nine Provincial Lawn Bowling Association Ontario, at a meeting held Thursday at the Canadian K. Co. Recreation Building in Milton.

R. F. Bean, Acton was elected chairman of the District and representative on the Provincial Bowling Council. The appointment of a secretary treasurer was left to the hands of the new chairman.

This marks the first time offices have been filled by members from this section of the district. Officers hope it will be a stimulus to the game in this area.
