

LOWVILLE

Many Travel To See Royal Couple

It would be hard to estimate the number who motored to Hamilton and Toronto to join in welcoming their royal highnesses, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. We will long remember them, as will many school children who were granted an extra holiday by a request from the Princess.

The congregation from the United Church joined with Zimmerman United Church in their anniversary services on Sunday, October 1, 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. McCready and Carol had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hartley and daughter on Sunday.

An opening fall missionary and maintenance rally was held at Waterdown United Church on Monday evening. Those representing Lowville United Church were Rev. W. R. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harbottle, Mrs. J. Maurice Readhead, Mr. Norman Langton, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Coulson and Mrs. Ellen Readhead. A profitable evening included hymn singing, a challenging address, six discussion groups and two fine illustrative films on the stewardship of missionary and maintenance work.

Three Groups Hold Church Meetings

The Ladies Aid of St. David's Church held their October meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Geo. Inglis, who opened the meeting by reading an interesting article on the origin of Thanksgiving.

After singing a hymn, prayer was offered by Mrs. Wm. Roberts. Mrs. R. B. Elliot was in charge of the devotional period. The roll call was answered by naming "Something I am thankful for".

Mrs. W. Greenlees gave the report of the previous meeting. Mrs. A. Moore gave the financial report. Mrs. R. C. Menzies, cheer secretary, reported having written eight letters, and read several thank you notes. Several items of business were discussed and plans made for a quilting.

Mrs. Greenlees read a poem "We thank Thee, Lord". Rev. J. Sutherland then gave a very interesting talk on the "Christian Outreach" and made very clear the responsibility laid upon us as church members in reaching out to help others. The offering was received and dedicated by the minister. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Menzies.

The Grace Mission Band held their meeting at the home of Joan and Sandra Black on Saturday afternoon with the president, Marianna Greenlees, presiding.

Anita Smith opened the meeting with a call to worship and prayer by the president. Joan Black read the Bible lesson. Lois Greenlees gave a recitation "October".

A short business session followed after which the roll call was answered by naming "what subject you like best at school".

Rev. J. Sutherland gave a very interesting talk to a little girl who was a Mission Band all herself, referring to the little Hebrew girl who was a servant in Naaman's house and was true to the teaching given her in her own home.

He also told a story of a little twelve year old girl in British Guiana known to John Elder, a missionary there and who became a Christian, through whose influence many others were helped to become Christians.

Gloria Purdy favored with a piano solo. The offering was dedicated with a Mission Band prayer. After singing a hymn, the meeting was closed with prayer by Audrey Early.

The Blair Evening Auxiliary held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Roger Mahon on Monday evening with the president, Mrs. J. Robertson, in the chair.

The meeting was opened with a psalm selection. Mrs. Wm. Mahon read the 23rd psalm.

Reports were received from the secretary, the treasurer and the convener of supplies. The sale consisted of a layette valued at $28.89. The president thanked all who had helped to make the anniversary such a success.

Arrangements were then made for the thanksgiving meeting. Mrs. Hamby read an interesting article "Momeduc, the Land Rover" from the Glad Tidings.

Mrs. R. Mahon gave the story of the work of Dr. Ida Scudder in Vellore, India. The roll call was answered using the word "Comfort".

Miss Della Vansickle, who will be married next Saturday, was presented with a nice cup and saucer from the group.

The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Menzies. The meeting was closed and the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Mahon and Mrs. Baynton, served refreshments and a very pleasant half hour was enjoyed.

Missionary Ladies Entertain Visitors

The Rosalind Goforth Missionary Society of Omagh Presbyterian Church entertained the ladies of Palermo, Milton and Bethel congregations at their thanksgiving meeting on Thursday afternoon in the church.

Mrs. Wm. McFadden and Mrs. Cecil Patterson received the guests. Mrs. Clarence Peacock, W. M. S. president, presided for the meeting and welcomed the ladies.

After the opening hymn, the scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Patterson, followed by prayer by Mrs. T. Snow and Miss Christine Marshall favored with vocal solos.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Arthur Cherry of Toronto, was ably introduced by Mrs. McFadden. Mrs. Cherry gave an interesting talk on her work as secretary of Christian Literature for the W. M. S. She showed several small papers printed in a number of foreign languages, which she explained are distributed in this country and also sent to many distant countries to carry the gospel message. She stressed the great need for this work.

Mrs. Robert Marshall thanked the speaker for her fine message and all those contributing to the program. Mrs. McFaul closed the meeting with prayer, following which the ladies went to the Sunday School rooms where afternoon tea was served and all enjoyed a social half hour. Lunch convenors were Mrs. W. Smylie and Mrs. H. A. Peacock.

Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. James Peacock on the recent death of her brother, Mr. Walker Dale of Waterdown.

Sincere sympathy is also expressed to Mrs. Harvey Campbell in the loss of her mother.

A tragic fire on Sunday took the life of John Dolby and his son, Ed., is critically burned and is a patient in Milton Private Hospital. We trust he will soon be better.

A large number from this district motored to Hamilton on Sunday to see Princess Elizabeth and her husband.

On Friday evening, a shower for Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnston, recent newly-weds, was held at their home. This pleasant evening was arranged as a surprise for them by members of Christ Church of Omagh. Guests were also present from the Lindsay district.

Congratulations are due this week to Arnold Howden, who captured several prizes at the Plowing Match at Woodstock.

The Omagh Institute Girls' Sewing Club held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Chapman recently. The following officers were elected: president, Miss Jessie Gillies; secretary, Miss Joan Clare; press secretary, Miss Jacqueline Peacock.

There were 10 members present, also a number of mothers. Miss Ellen Chapman and Mrs. H. Robertson, leaders of the group, explained the purpose of the club and the project "Cottons may be smart". At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Chapman served a dainty lunch.

HORNBY

Visit, Compete At Int. Plowing Match

Congratulations are due to Jack Marchmont, who was a successful contestant in his class at the Plowing Match.

Visitors to the International Plowing Match at Woodstock included three from Hornby, Bill Brain, Ross Brown and Richard Course.

The word "Hornby" appeared on the pages of a Montreal paper a few days ago but it was referring to an island off the Vancouver coast which was noted for the growing of seeds. The word also appeared on the joke page of a Toronto magazine, the joke being about fishing at a place called "Hornby". But as far as news from "Hornby, Ontario" is concerned, everyone is keeping that a deep, dark secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ingram and daughter Dorothy spent the weekend in Peterborough.
