Reports Reflect Year of Progress

Hear Sanitary Inspector

The February meeting of the Campbellville Women's Institute was held in S.S. No. 10 school and despite the cold weather, 46 attended, with Nassagaweya and Mountsberg branches as guests. Mrs. Sid Hartley presided and opened with a poem, Winter Wise. The roll call was answered by How to Educate Oneself. Mrs. Roy Parker gave the secretary's report and read items of business. Plans were made to entertain husbands and families next week at the school. The March meeting will be held in the Halton Manor.

Mrs. Frank Quinlan took the chair and called on Mrs. James Wallace to give current events. Misses Marianne and Lois Greenlees sang suitable duets, Look for the Silver Lining and Grandfather's Clock. Mrs. Harry Phillips presented a monologue, Buying New Shoes.

J. Robson, sanitary inspector for the Halton County Health Unit was by. guest speaker and told of his work concerning sewage, drainage, water supply, schools, dairies, funeral parlors and restaurants, etc. Many points were brought out of the good work the Health Unit is doing. Mrs. George Inglis thanked the speaker and Mrs. Quinlan thanked all those who helped to make the meeting a success. After the Queen the Women's Institute Grace was sung and a social half hour followed.

The annual meeting of St. David's Presbyterian church was held in the basement on Monday evening. Rev. Gordon Baulch presided and after hymn 95 he led in prayer and devotion. Murray McPhail was named chairman and Robert Elliott. secretary-treasurer, gave efficient reports.

Edward Mahon, chairman of the managers spoke briefly on the work of the managers last year. Murray McPhail paid tribute to Mrs. R. C.
