MILTON HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Art Coulbeck

Well, after the useless frivolities of the last two weeks, maybe

Item. In the football game playond win.

Item. Still on the subject of hearing. football, our last game of the sea- After being duly sworn in, the as the weeds they had bordering Her assessment was confirmed. son should be played on the 10th Court was ready to hear the ap- the land. of this months against Georgetown, peals. Robert Kollard of 423 right here on our own stamping George Street asked for a reduct- E. T. F. Milloy acted as spokes- on his property, stating that the in both our home games, so here's it had risen this year from $3800 to the four residents to the court in walk and flooding conditions were hoping we'll wind up with three $3900, while the house is one year colorful terms. He pointed out that not rare. Mr. Woods outlined his wins. I don't like to be pessimist- older. He was told that the increase the noise from the factory was own method of figuring assessment, they were not yet the owners of lafter he was struck by a car on donors. Thanks were extended to ic but I am told the Georgetown was a general increase on land val- unbearable last summer and when but the court did not agree, and the property. They had apparent- No. 10 highway at Victoria. five the Canadian Legion and Mr. team hasn't had a point scored ues throughout the whole town. the forges were operating, the his assessment was confirmed. against them this year.

and other suitable regalia. I might non-possessors pay 50 cents.

entatives have Student Cards on view. He stated that he bought the sta sale at 50 cents. Get them while the old house next to his was to be first assessment notice, it was not the old house next to his was to be first assessment notice, it was not the old house next to his was to be first assessment notice, it was not the old house next to his was to be first assessment notice. they last.

shall tell you that Commencement the roadway was poor, that there been made for the brick structure $1600 when he appealed that he was Queen Elizabeth into one of the Cawthra Road; Mississauga Road; J. Haslam, Kenneth Dick, will fall on the 17th and 18th at was no drainage ditch alongside the and thus the $50 rise. not living in the house and the province's safest highways. There Clarkson Road; Sheridan (an over- David Young Wilson, Mrs. Marg-8.30 p.m. Anybody taking part road and that there was no pro- Mrs. P. E. French of 388 Martin house was not completed. His as- will be no traffic lights and no pass); one just west of Oakville aret Clements, Mrs. Jean Eves, Mrs. should be there well beforehand. Vision for access to his house. St. stated that her property had a sessment will remain the same as crossroads for the 100 mile stretch and the other at the entrance to Daisy Wilson, Mrs. Dorothy Had-The play is quite funny and A neighbor of Mr. Horton's, Mrs. lower value because it was situated last year. should prove entertaining at least. D. A. Brunton of 18 Bell St., said next to a used car lot but was in- Ivan Claridge of Woodward Ave. gram is completed. Christmas exams begin November view of the poor condition of Bell the car lot is to be sold. sessed for his new house as it was No. 27 highway will be built north of the Wallis, Stanley W. Water, Kenneth 25. That should be fair warning St. and the fact that they could not to little grade niners to start use their driveway. Assessor Mc- W. Charlton, David DeForest, John studying.

The Canadian Champion Volume 96.-No. 24.

MILTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10th, 1955

County Court of Revision Hears Appeals Monday should get down to some serious reporting. Item. In the football game play On Town of Milton Assessments, Notes Decisions high school, the Acton high school vision sat in the Council Chambers. not do so until all the Bell St. too high, owing to poor drainage house on Robert St. which he own-discussed. team was defeated by a score of 11- Milton Town Hall, on Monday houses were completed. She was conditions. She stated that she has ed had been nearly destroyed 10. I'm not a very good reporter morning to hear all appeals against asked to go to a council meeting. been living in the house for three fire and asked that the $2,050 for a thing like football, because assessments. The court is composed either by herself or with the oth- years but since she moved in, Elm sessment be deleted until a new I don't understand the game too this year of Col. Brown of Es- er Bell St. residents, to get further St. has been opened beside their one is built. The court granted the well, but I believe Theo Charlton quesing, Alec Near of Nassaga- action in her case. home. This, Mrs. Bush explained, request. and Bill Thompson got the touch- weya, chairman, Theron Jones of The next appeal was a joint ap- has left their land flooded each Dr. C. K. Stevenson appealed downs for us and the first was Acton, John Blair of Burlington peal from four Martin St. residents year and a garden was lost this that the commercial assessment on week in the Champion. converted successfully. It was a and Dewart Fleming of Trafalgar. whose homes backed on the Ont- year as a result of the flooding. She his Main St. house should be reducvery exciting game, holding quite Assessor for the town of Milton ario Steel Products factory land also stated that the culvert in front ed to residential assessment, owing a bit of suspense. This is our sec- Frank McNiven and County Assess- They protested the $8 a foot front- of the house does not drain the ex- to the fact that the house was beor Ford Rogers also attended the age rate on their land because of cess water away and that there ing used an an apartment instead to Mr. Begin and the entire team. ing land values in proportion with trees could be set up between the confirmed. who have made a lot of people values in the balance of the county. adjacent properties, but nothing G. E. Rocke of 366 Martin St. ants. only about half appeared in happy around Milton High this Robert Brannigan of 348 Moun- had been done. In the meantime, the brought forth the same appeal as court, and the other appeals were season. Also, congratulations are tainview Drive, whose appeal was land the other four Martin St. res- heard by the court afterwards. The due to our wonderful cheer lead- the same as Mr Kollard's, was not being assessed too high, in comp- idents regarding the factory nuis- court spent some time after dinner being assessed too high, in compers, those six lovely girls who present, but his assessment was arison with the residents on the ance. He also asked that his taxes Monday viewing the various propstand shivering with the cold in confirmed as there were no grounds east side of the street, who were be directed toward the Holy Ros- erties in question. those short, short skirts each game. for appeal. A similar case to that not particularly bothered by the ary Separate school as his children Item. Our second dance, the of Brannigan's and Kollard's was factory. ever-popular Sadie Hawkins dance that of A. Koch, 354 Mountainview Mr. Milloy informed the court upheld. Come dressed in jeans, plaid shirts confirmed. $175 Reduction that if you own a Student Council high for a house in that location. that their assessments would re- the appeal was granted. card the admission is 35 cents, while He explained that his house was main as originally stated.

O. Sclisizzi, Angelo Tonelli and The Ontario Highways Depart- Service roads will be built by John Blinco, Andrew Anderson, house with the understanding that that when Mr. Brown received his school supporter. moved, but nothing had been done known that the garage was made K. J. Brush of 361 Broadway for the following intersect- Thompson, A. Morrison, Carl Early, Item. For the third week, I with it. He also pointed out that of brick. This year, allowance had Ave., had his assessment reduced objective the development of the ions:

the noise from the factory, as well was a pond on their front lawn. of offices as originally planned. Struck on Highway ever-popular Sadie Hawkins dance is on Thursday the 10th at 9 p.m. is on Thursday the 10th at 9 p.m. on the control of the the had bought the house. Sometimed the control of the control number 350 Martin St., his legal assessment notices, S. Filipowski of counsel had given him to under- 354 Martin St. had been assessed warn you that the first people cast K. A. Horton of 18 Bell St. re- stand that the factory was classed a a public school supporter instead out in an elimination dance are ceived a $175 reduction in assess- as "light industry", but that, in his of a separate school supporter. His those not in jeans, so govern your- ment on his buildings after he ap- opinion, it was the heaviest type appeal was to be changed back to Entrances to the Queen Elizabeth Municipal Board to close 13 roads Herbert Higgs. Leonard Newell, self accordingly. I am glad to see pealed that the figure was too of industry. The court advised a separate school supporter, and highway from Nelson and Trafal- that intersect this six mile stretch

Red Glow in Sky

Item. On a note of sadness, the that her taxes were too high in formed that he should not be as- Fourteen interchanges between At this point a new stretch of Zuest. Stanley Mann, Raymond

Pond on Lawn

B. E. Woods of 351 Oak St. ap- will receive a $1450 reduction i pealed the $350 land assessment assessment.

When Mr. Kollard asked the reason flames cast a red glow in the sky | C. A. Wattu of Halton Ave. felt brooke estates, but did not yet said the car was driven by Robert and donors. Item. No matter what the out- for this increase, county assessor at the back of their homes. He also that there was some error made in have the deed for the land. The Parkinson, 49, of Snelgrove. come of the last game is, we will Rogers explained the whole picture protested the weeds on the factory his assessment, as a letter from assessor felt that by the time the have broken our jinx, and I think of Halton county assessment and property. Mr. Milloy had been to the bank differed from his assess- taxes on the land were paid, the very large congratulations are due explained that Milton was increas- council to see if a "buffer area" of ment notice. His assessment was owners would have their deeds.

attended there. The assessment was located beside a house over 70 W. A. Brown of 338 Martin St. A. P. Kiervin were all changed to ment has launched a multi-million the department all along the high- Jim Morley, Robert Thompson, Roy Item. That brings up the fact years old, which is about eight feet one of the four appellants, asked become separate school supporters. dollar program to make the Queen way to provide access to those Harris, Geo. B. P. Evans, Marvin from the road blocking his north why his assessment had been raised Geoffrey Cooke was not changed Elizabeth Way a controlled access living or doing business along the Sire, Mrs. H. Rutledge, Geoffrey Niven explained that the town $300 assessment on the land at their reduced to assessment on the land. The Queen Elizabeth is already ton interchange.

pealed that the $175 depreciation another six miles west of that an interchange at No. 2 highway er McGibbon, R. H. Hamilton, Otthat he was allowed on his home point is in the process of being over the Burlington Skyway. ello Sclisizzi, La Verne Robinson, was not enough and the court closed. South of Burlington there will be Roy Brownridge, Lena Ellsworthy. granted him a depreciation of $300 Last week the department was an interchange at Windermere Mrs. G. E. Mills, Bob Titus. Irwin or 12 per cent. given permission by the Ontario Road.

DANCE

SATURDAY, NOV. 12

Couples Only

AND EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

LEGION HALL

9 P.M.

STAN KNISLEY'S ORCHESTRA

His request was granted and he

In the case of Wm. Harbrow ed. although the builders informed gar townships will be curtailed. west to No. 10 highway.

Two Ladies Engaged To Welcome New Families Moved To Town

Chamber of Commerce was held at the town by the use of Main Street Second Section the town hall on Thursday night lights. He urged the businessmen were informed that Mrs. C. K. Hous- action was taken. ton and Mrs. A. Tufford had been | Stan Clark urged all the merchengaged to call on the new families ants to be friendly with their cusin town. It was pointed out that tomers, stating that each merchant there had been 14 new families should be a "personality behind the move into town on the previous counter." Saturday. The various problems of Mr. Clark also outlined the plans

James Croll of the Roxy Theatre ing before the new year.

A general meeting of the Milton encouraged the "brightening up" of ast, with about 20 members present. to turn on as many lights as possible The actions of the previous meet- and stressed the town should take ing were reviewed; and members action toward new street lights. No ed Monday, October 31, at Milton | The Halton County Court of Re- | wanted to widen Bell St., but could cottage at 396 Broadway Ave. was | Murray Sproat appealed that the | welcoming these new people were on a percentage draw. All possible information was to be obtained in A suggested directory for inclu- order to go ahead as soon as possion in the Champion was outlined sible with this plan. By his plan, -one that would list every mer- all the merchants would contribute chant and businessman in town— money to a grand total, and the and was well received by the mem- customers would be entitled to a bers of the chamber. The directory percentage of the total, based on is to be published every eighth the size of their purchases. It was not expected this would be operat-

Dies in Hospital

Oliver Shields, 86, of R. R. 1 the court through their appeal that hospital on October 29, three hours Blood Clinic. There were 144 blood ly purchased 20 lots in the Falling- miles north of Brampton. Police Sproat and the following helpers

> Mr. Shields is survived by his wife, Janet Ann Wilkinson, and a Pringle, Mrs. Charlie Wilson, Mrs. brother Edgar of Milton. He is the Dave Wilson, Mrs. G. Neuman, father of Rebie, Hugh, Edgar, Har- Mr. C. H. Mills, Mrs. G. Hadley, ry, William and Joseph of George-

Funeral service was held in Brampton on November 1. Interment was in Nixon's cemetery.

over to municipalities.

the Nelson sideroad.

OBITUARY

Esteemed Member

S. and the Evening Auxiliary.

relatives, friends and neighbors.

ery, Milton.

grounds. We have been successful ion in his assessment, stating that man and conveyed the feelings of property was lower than the side- Ltd., the assessment was confirm- Inglewood, died in Peel Memorial The Milton Branch of the Canadian Red Cross held a successful

Blood clinic helpers—Mrs. Bradley, R.N. Miss I. Wilson, Miss Mrs. M. Ezeard, R.N., Mrs. Cavell. Mrs. Gilbert, Mr. Patterson, Mr. H.

Legion Ladies' Auxiliary - Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Auger, Mrs. C. Gervais. Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Forkes, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Patterson.

ray Currie, Geo. Kelman, James Controlled Access Super Highway Hopkins, Geo. Kelman, James Hopkins, Geo. Vaughan, Percy Hall, Gordon Harris, J. R. Patterson, Sidney Childs, John Reynolds, Wellington H. Gould, Art Charlton, Thompson, Alf Waldie, Mrs. C. W. T. Randell, Mrs. J. Grenke, Mrs.

T. R. McKim, Wm. Kress, Joel not completed and he was not are underway or in the blue-print present road to connect with the McMullen, Neil H. McPhail, John R. Pearson Sr., Jim R. Forkes, and a garage on the property. a controlled access highway from From here the highway will con- Mrs. M. Thomas, Lewis Herman, E. J. Booth of 76 Prince St. ap- the Humber to No. 27 highway and tinue along its present route, with Mrs. R. Powell, Ernest Wilson, Pet-DeForest, Sydney Dance, Miss F. Lemon, Paul Brush, Jack Coulter, Albert Downs, John C. Arnold Jr.,

Chas. Auger, Harvey Pettigrew, Wm. Pearson, John Axton, Kenneth Schultz, James Timbers, Keith Durnan, Mrs. Sclisizzi, Ernest Pell, Of Community Dies Durnan, Mrs. Schsizzi, Ernest Pell, Howard Eves, Mrs. A. Troyko, Milton has lost a highly esteem- James Bell, Mrs. Mary Tufford, ed member of the community in Thomas Joyce, R. McDowell, Harthe person of Miss Nellie B. Cun- vey Brush, Morris McGinnis, Duningham. She died November 1 and one Hackenbrook, Don Kearney, A. was interred in Evergreen cemet- Posthuma, Chas. H. Mills, Mrs. H. Partridge, Alex Borbely, Ronald She was the daughter of the late Pell, Harold Wilson, G. S. Lockie, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cunningham and Robert Ervin, Thomas Wheeler, was a faithful member of St. Guido Rigo, Varo Mauro, Fred Paul's United church and its many Johnson, Douglas Booth, Mrs. John organizations including the W. M. Irving, Alex Lithgrow, Francis Chisholm, Gordon Hadley, Maurice Up to the time of her retirement Rose, Ron Byerman, Miss Rena Rishe was a highly valued member go, Fred Barnes, S. W. Gazley, on the staff of the Bell Telephone Johnston Neelands, David Johnson, Co. here. Miss Cunningham took a Ivan Shepherd, Mrs. D. Comber, keen interest in all community Lyle Wallace, Vernon Zuest, Geo. work and welfare and took an MacDougall, Lorne Evans, Frank active part when health permitted. McLaughlin, Roy Elliott, Miss Rita She is mourned by a large circle of Naylor, Fred Lever, Donald H. MacLean, Russell Dryden, Ronald Shannon, David Martin, Ted Kress, Mrs. J. May, Bobby Robb, George Ferguson, Wm. Schultz, Ted Lyle, Raymond Waters, Father Lardie, W. J. Wilson, Bruce Bird, Uriah Waters, Wm. Dyer.

sets a new record in Milton. The

The province of Newfoundland has Canada's smallest area of occupied farmland.

Domestic Gas Service

PER COUPLE

NOW AVAILABLE FOR SUBURBAN AND RURAL DISTRICTS

ENJOY THE CONVENIENCE OF

Gas Ranges 🔵 Water Heaters 🕒 Clothes Dryers

Incinerators

A Superior Bottled Gas Service distributed by

Carter Welding Supplies L i m i t e d

Call— 186 Hunter St. E.

JAckson 2-1364 Hamilton

OR YOUR LOCAL APPLIANCE DEALER

DAILY SERVICE - - LOW FARES

TO ALL CANADIAN AND U.S.A. POINTS

CHARTERED BUSES OFFER IDEAL SERVICE AT ATTRACTIVE RATES FOR ALL GROUP TRAVEL

FOR BUS TRAVEL INFORMATION SEE YOUR LOCAL AGENT

Traynor's Store Phone TR. 8-5582 Gray Coach Lines

WATCH next week's issue of the Champion for good news. A group of participating merchants will be offering valuable prizes for you when you shop in Milton--prizes that will involve hundreds of dollars. You won't want to miss your chance for these valuable prizes, so plan now to shop in Milton with the participating merchants.

MERCHANTS

Most of you have been contacted regarding this promotion and the deadline for participation is Monday, November 14. Some may not have been contacted in the limited time available. Complete information can be obtained by contacting Lloyd Davis, Bus Knight, Gord Gowland, Henry Sloski or Jim Dills. This is a promotion that offers shoppers a real inducement to shop in Milton where a great variety of goods is available.