

of this year, tossed away the razor the poor wife, you see!! growing contest.

win a prize, incidentally) Ken de- the massive project underway. cided it would be a shame to part hairy chin fuzz. his best and kept it trimmed and change, eh? it didn't itch-much.

The day before Christmas, Ken completed this series of photos -- can't!!

Ken Jensen, amiable proprietor | decided the time had come to part | and that would have been one of | Twas 10 of the Milton Tire Service on Mill with the protrusion, which now the changing expression on Mrs. Street, was one of about 300 men measured a good four inches. A Jensen's face when her husband And grumbling at spouse.

before the drastic massacre began. have been unable to cope with just Unlike many other starters, Ken Next job was using a large pair of such a situation. Besides, Mr. and was also a finisher, and kept the scissors to get most of the hay off, Mrs. Jensen probably wanted to beard the full five months. Came and friends Ulf Andersen, left, and share that first few beardless mocentennial time, and after all the Karlo Christensen, holding the ments together-alone. the contests were over (he didn't stuff, gave a helping hand to get A happy ending to this story

After cropping as much as poss- ily ever after" but the story isn't with his new-found friend. So he lible with the large clipping shears, quite over yet. left it to grow and thicken. While Ken went to work on the quickly- First of all, the 300-odd other other Milton males were shaving departing fuzz with a smaller pair beard growers who started off in Of just kissing your brow. theirs off, Ken was combing and in the third picture. By this time the centennial festivities must cerwashing his greyish-brown crop of he looked a mess, but things kept tainly be ready to congratulate Ken Now please take it off." getting better as he went along. Jensen, who managed to "stick it grew longer, and bushier. Friends, was trimming his face up with an beards for a few weeks and then especially his wife, chided him on electric razor. It cleaned him clean gave up in disgust can imagine his And all through the house. his rather frightful appearance, but as a whistle, and there he is in the feeling after nearly 11 months. he took it all in his stride. The picture at right, proudly admiring But the cincher is this—recalling Of grumbling at spouse. worst part was keeping it clean, he the new (old ? ?) look while hold- many happy occasions while the admits, because working in a tire ing most of the departed fuzz in beard was still ripening. Ken says repair shop isn't exactly the clean- his hand. Now compare the picture his greatest thrill was the time he est job in town. However, he tried at left with the one at right. Some went to a wedding and "all the

And all through the house The missus was grumbling who, around the first of February | wonderful Christmas present for returned home Christmas eve with "Who ever said a shiny face bearing nothing but a You looked good in a beard? and began fulfilling his life's dream Yes, off it came, as the above pic- few hours' chin growth upon it. You look like a freak, -growing a full beard so he could tures can prove. At left is Ken Jen- But even the expensive cameras The missus, she sneered. enter Milton's centennial beard sen with the full beard, moments used in the newspaper trade would "But it's just for the contest," Bearded hubby replied would be to say "they lived happ-

You didn't win a prize, Time travelled on, and the beard | Last stage in the great unveiling out" for so long. Those who grew girls wanted to dance with me at When all of a sudden Only one picture would have once." Can you understand it? We There arose such a clatter,

There' stood a strange man And he stood staring at her Who are you, strange man, To walk into my house?' Why darling, 'tis me.

the original "Night before Christ-

"And no-one in Milton

Can grow beards like I."

And all through the house

As always, at spouse.

"The contest is over,

Please take it off now.

Said missus, "I'm sick

He said with a scoff

The missus had tired

The stockings were hung

She knew bearded hubby

Soon would be there.

By the chimney with care.

The missus was grumbling,

"No, I think I'll just keep it."

Twas the night before Christma

Exchange Greetings Across the Border

the border last week when Mayor ern boundary will lie 4,000 feet in the community. J. M. Ledwith phoned season's from Milton's western edge. greetings to Mayor Charles S. Bar-

Mayor Ledwith extended the town's greetings to the Mayor and his wife who were guests here during the Milton Centennial and made many friends.

The Delaware mayor reciprocatcommittee, and G. F. Thompson of ficial to all and promised early ed to all the friends he and his

The Canadian Champion

MILTON, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31st, 1957

Large Skating Rink 'Twas five months before Christ-Built at Play Area In Kingsleigh Court

Good community spirit was shown Sunday by residents of the Kingsleigh Court area when many of the men pitched in to build a skating rink 96 feet by 64 feet at the play area in the centre of the

A welcome break in the work was enjoyed when Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Clark provided hot coffee as an incentive toward better work. Arrangements are being made to have the rink flooded if the cold weather holds out. It is also hoped to have the area floodlit for evening with a gala official opening

Friday evening, a successful dance was held in the Legion Hall by the North Milton Ratepayers' Association, and proceeds will go toward financing the recent children's Christmas party and the new

-It's Burlington and Nelson and East Flamboro today, but just plain Burlington tomorrow. It used to be that the pioneers could walk to Burlington in several evision show Sunday afternoon hours, hiking across country. To- payed tribute to Ontario's weekly Greetings were extended across morrow. Burlington's north-east- newspapers and the parts they play

A. Marshall R.R. 5, Milton.

SYDNEY G. CHILDS

Mr. Childs takes over his duties as Mayor of the town of Milton tomorrow (Wednesday) and will convene the first 1958 council meeting next Tuesday evening, Jan. 6.

-CBC's "Country Calendar" tel-

—It is reportedly just a coincid ence that triplet calves were born Miss Margaret Marshall R.N. of in perfect health at the Water-Houston, Texas, spent Christmas down farm of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hollinrake. Dr. Hollinrake is a well known Hamilton obstetrician.

Nelson Approves $16,580 Toward Milton Hospital Nelson Township Council recent- | trict hospital were also being pre-

ears

ly agreed to pay the Milton District pared and tenders for construction Hospital Board and the Burlington- would be called immediately fol-Nelson Hospital Board the money lowing their completion. raised on their behalf in 1957.

Milton's share of the mill and a half levied for the two hospitals amounts to $16,580. Board Chairman C. A. Martin reported.

Questioned on hospital progress the chairman explained the town of Milton had given permission to been named a director of the Canconnect to the services and it was adian Guernsey Breeders' Assocexpected the work on this would lation. Mr. Chisholm will travel to be completed early in January. Chilliwack, B.C. in March to at-Working drawings for the Dis- tend the annual meeting.

-Monday's snow, though rather late for Christmas, pleased the children now on holidays from their schoolwork. —J. L. Chisholm of Milton has

NEW YEAR'S

Service Heads Discuss Civil Defence Work Toward County-Wide Protection

council's newly-appointed civil de- ing he would be agreeable to taking fence committee in Hawthorne over or giving assistance with the Lodge recently to discuss plans for co-ordination of medical services. a county-wide defence program. Keith McDonald of the Georgetown services represented, and namé de- fence scheme. partment heads.

Retarded Children Will be on Radio

Milton's Sunshine school for retarded children-comprising seven pupils from Milton and two from Acton, will be "on the air" this Monday, January 6th, when Trans-Canada Matinee on Toronto's radio ginally played in September, but in preparation for disaster. as it was Milton Fair day many interested persons missed the broadcast.

Monday, the children will be deand will also be interviewed.

The caribou is a migratory anim-

Hugh Lamb, zone commander of the Canadian Legion, said he was the Children's Aid Society pledged action in setting up the committee. wife had made in Milton Ontario. support in setting up welfare services. Fred Shaw, Halton mutual could easily operate under civil Representing the Bell Telephone.

Chief Lee Smith of the Burlington police said it wouldn't be too difficult to set up a working police group as one had been in operation monstrating rhythum and speech, during the last hostilities. For the Ontario Provincial Police, Sergeant Bill Gibson of Dundas said that although O.P.P. presently in Halton couldn't operate under civil de-

Officials of several groups in | Dr. Archie F. Bull of Halton | fence, they would co-operate wit Halton County met with county County Health Unit told the meet- the civil defence chief.

Reeve Wm. Card of Oakville, the men were now being trained From information submitted at the Ambulance Brigade said that al- for home defence. Jail governor meeting, it was decided to have though nothing definite could be Glen Ryder said that although his county co-ordinator Brigadier G. E. promised immediately, an attempt direction came from the Attorney-R. Smith and council's committee could be made to co-ordinate the General's department, the county meet soon to co-ordinate all the county's ambulances in a civil de- jail facilities would be available during disasters for persons found ker, of Milton, Delaware.

Committee members were agreed ed with greetings from his municprepared to co-operate with the hat the meeting had been bene- ipality and asked to be remember-

fire aid co-ordinator, said the present county system of mutual aid Theft From Service Station Nets $400 in Cash Merchandise discovered the theft at 2 a.m. Sat- the till, and a $75 television set.

station CBL will rebroadcast a Doug Smith and Roy Ubank said District O.P.P. are still investi- urday morning and reported it to tape taken in September at the they could survey the needs and gating a theft at Early's Service police. Entry, police said, was made supply various engineering services. Station in Campbellville Friday through the repair shop at the rear The program will devote about On behalf of the Oakville and Dis- night in which the thieves looted of the building where $190 worth eight minutes of the hour's broad- trict Humane Society, Herb Merry the service station and Weir's of tires and other equipment were cast to the school, somewhere be- promised support of this branch's garage of $400 worth of cash, tires removed. Taken from the front part tween two and three o'clock in the work and explained a survey of cigarettes and a television set. of the building were $100 in cigar-afternoon. The recording was ori- the county has already been made Robert Early, station proprietor, ettes and tobacco, $35 in silver from

BRUNO'S BEAUTY SALON

(Above Selrite Store) ALL LINES OF BEAUTY CULTURE

OPEM

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS AND SATURDAY MORNING Closed All Day Monday

Phone TR 8-9931 for Appointment

TV's Mr. Fix-It

"Demonstration of Power Tools"

GRACE CHURCH PARISH HALL Main Street, Milton

at 7.30 p.m. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8th, 1958

Films of General Interest Will Also Be Included in the Evening's Program ADMISSION 75c (INCLUDES REFRESHMENTS)

Come Along and Enjoy An Interesting Evening Tickets Available From -Fitzgerald Insurance, Main St.

Selrite Store, Main St.

Bus Knight, Main St. Sponsored by Grace Anglican Church Men's Association

JR€€TINGS It's time once more to wish our friends the happiest, healthiest MCPHAIL TR 8-9513 66 CHARLES ST.

"PERCE STRINGS" By CHARLIE & FRANK

FOR BETTER USED CARS And Reliable Automotive Repairs You Can't Go Wrong

We May Not Sell the Most-But We Sell the Best YOUR CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH-FARGO dealers
TUBELESS
For BETTER USED CARS Phone MILTON TR.8-9942
TIRES

May the New Year ring in a bright

KEITH DURNAN

future filled with happiness and prosperity for all our friends.

Improves Milk Quality -

freeze because the coolant is ice water. Dari-Kool units are completeready to operate -- nothing else to buy or install. All tanks are stainless steel inside and out. Get the cooler that leads in sales-leads in value - leads in performance!

DARI-KOOL MEETS ALL 3-A SANITARY STANDARDS

MILLING CO. LTD.

