

Milton, Orangeville Capture Top Spots in Four Town Tourney

Milton pee wees and Orangeville bantams and junior bantams emerged champions of the annual four-town minor hockey tournament held in Milton arena Saturday, after nine gruelling games of boys' hockey were played by entries from these two towns, Acton and Georgetown.

Dave Brush's local pee wees won their honors by whipping the pants off a luckless and underage Acton squad in the first game of the day by an 8-0 count. Later in the final game, they fought to a one-all draw with Georgetown and in a brief overtime period, Craig Brush notched the winning tally, his fourth of the day.

Mervin Fletcher of Milton's bantam entry deserves mention for his scoring ability, as he scored five goals and assisted on a sixth during one of the morning games.

The day began with the local pee wees' 8-0 defeat of Acton. Craig Brush and Dick Marshall scored hat tricks each, while Kenny Desjardine and Gary Wickens added singletons for the Milton cause. The local lineup included Hilson in goal, W. Anderson, Wally Cox, Ron Patterson, Gary Wickens, Ken Desjardine, Craig Brush, Dick Marshall, Dick Clements, Pete McDuffe, Steve Gervais and J. D. Hearn.

In the second encounter, Georgetown junior bantams sailed to an easy win over Acton with a 7-0 score as Wayne Terry scored a hat trick and mates Jack Gudgeon and Terry Lane added pairs to the cause. Each team had two penalties.

Merv Fletcher tallied his big total in the third game between Milton and Georgetown bantams, with Ross McKersie adding Milton's sixth goal in the close game. For Georgetown, Wheeler, Korzak, Presswood and Wilson each notched singletons.

The Milton lineup included M. Timbers in goal, Bryan McDuffe, W. Bailey, Larry Dewhurst, R. W. H. Wilson, Bryan Hilson, George Mills, Bev. Slessor, Bryan Hamilton, Ross McKersie, Marvin Fletcher and George Bickers.

Penalties included two to Milton and one to the visitors.

The next game was Georgetown's 2-1 win over Orangeville pee wees, with Lane, Blair and Sheppard doing the honors for the winners and Donaldson counting once for the losing entry. Georgetown had four penalties while Orangeville picked up one.

It took an overtime period to do it, but Orangeville edged Milton's tired-out junior bantam entry 3-2 in the next encounter. The visitors opened the scoring and Milton notched its first on a pass from Rowley to Wilson in the first period, and in the second, Orangeville leaped ahead one goal again but Milton tied it up two-all shortly before the period closed. In the overtime, Rennie of Orangeville scored his second and the game's winning goal for the visitors.

The Milton lineup included McKinnon in goal, and W. J. Currie, Ron Guild, Allan Reid, B. McDuffe, K. Thompson, W. Brush, B. Fletcher, Ricky Rowley, R. K. Wilson, and U. Kierven. Orangeville had one penalty, and Milton got none.

In the morning final, Acton's Dennis Gibbons notched Acton's first and only goal of the day as his team received a 5-1 whipping at the hand of Orangeville. Spears had two for the winners, while Long, Storey and Hunter added singles to the cause. Acton had one penalty.

After a hearty meal at Knox Presbyterian Church, the teams returned for the afternoon finals and Milton started things off right by winning the pee wee championship from Georgetown by a 2-1 overtime count. Kenny Desjardine scored for Milton in the first, and A. Blair worked for the visitors' cause in the second. In the overtime tilt, Craig Brush held off for nearly five minutes before notching the winning goal.

Milton had four penalties while Georgetown picked up three.

In the next game, Flear and Watts scored once each for Orangeville as they won the junior bantam championship from Georgetown who managed one goal. The losers had four of the seven penalties in the close match.

In the final of the day, Milton's bantams went down to a terrible defeat at the hands of the overpowering Orangeville crew who won the championship with a 9-0 drubbing of the locals. Milton's scoring ace Fletcher was useless against the driving attacks as the visitors poured in goal after goal. Jenkins, McEachern and Long scored doubles for the winners, while Spears, Rennie and Hunter added singletons to the Orangeville cause. Both teams had one penalty.

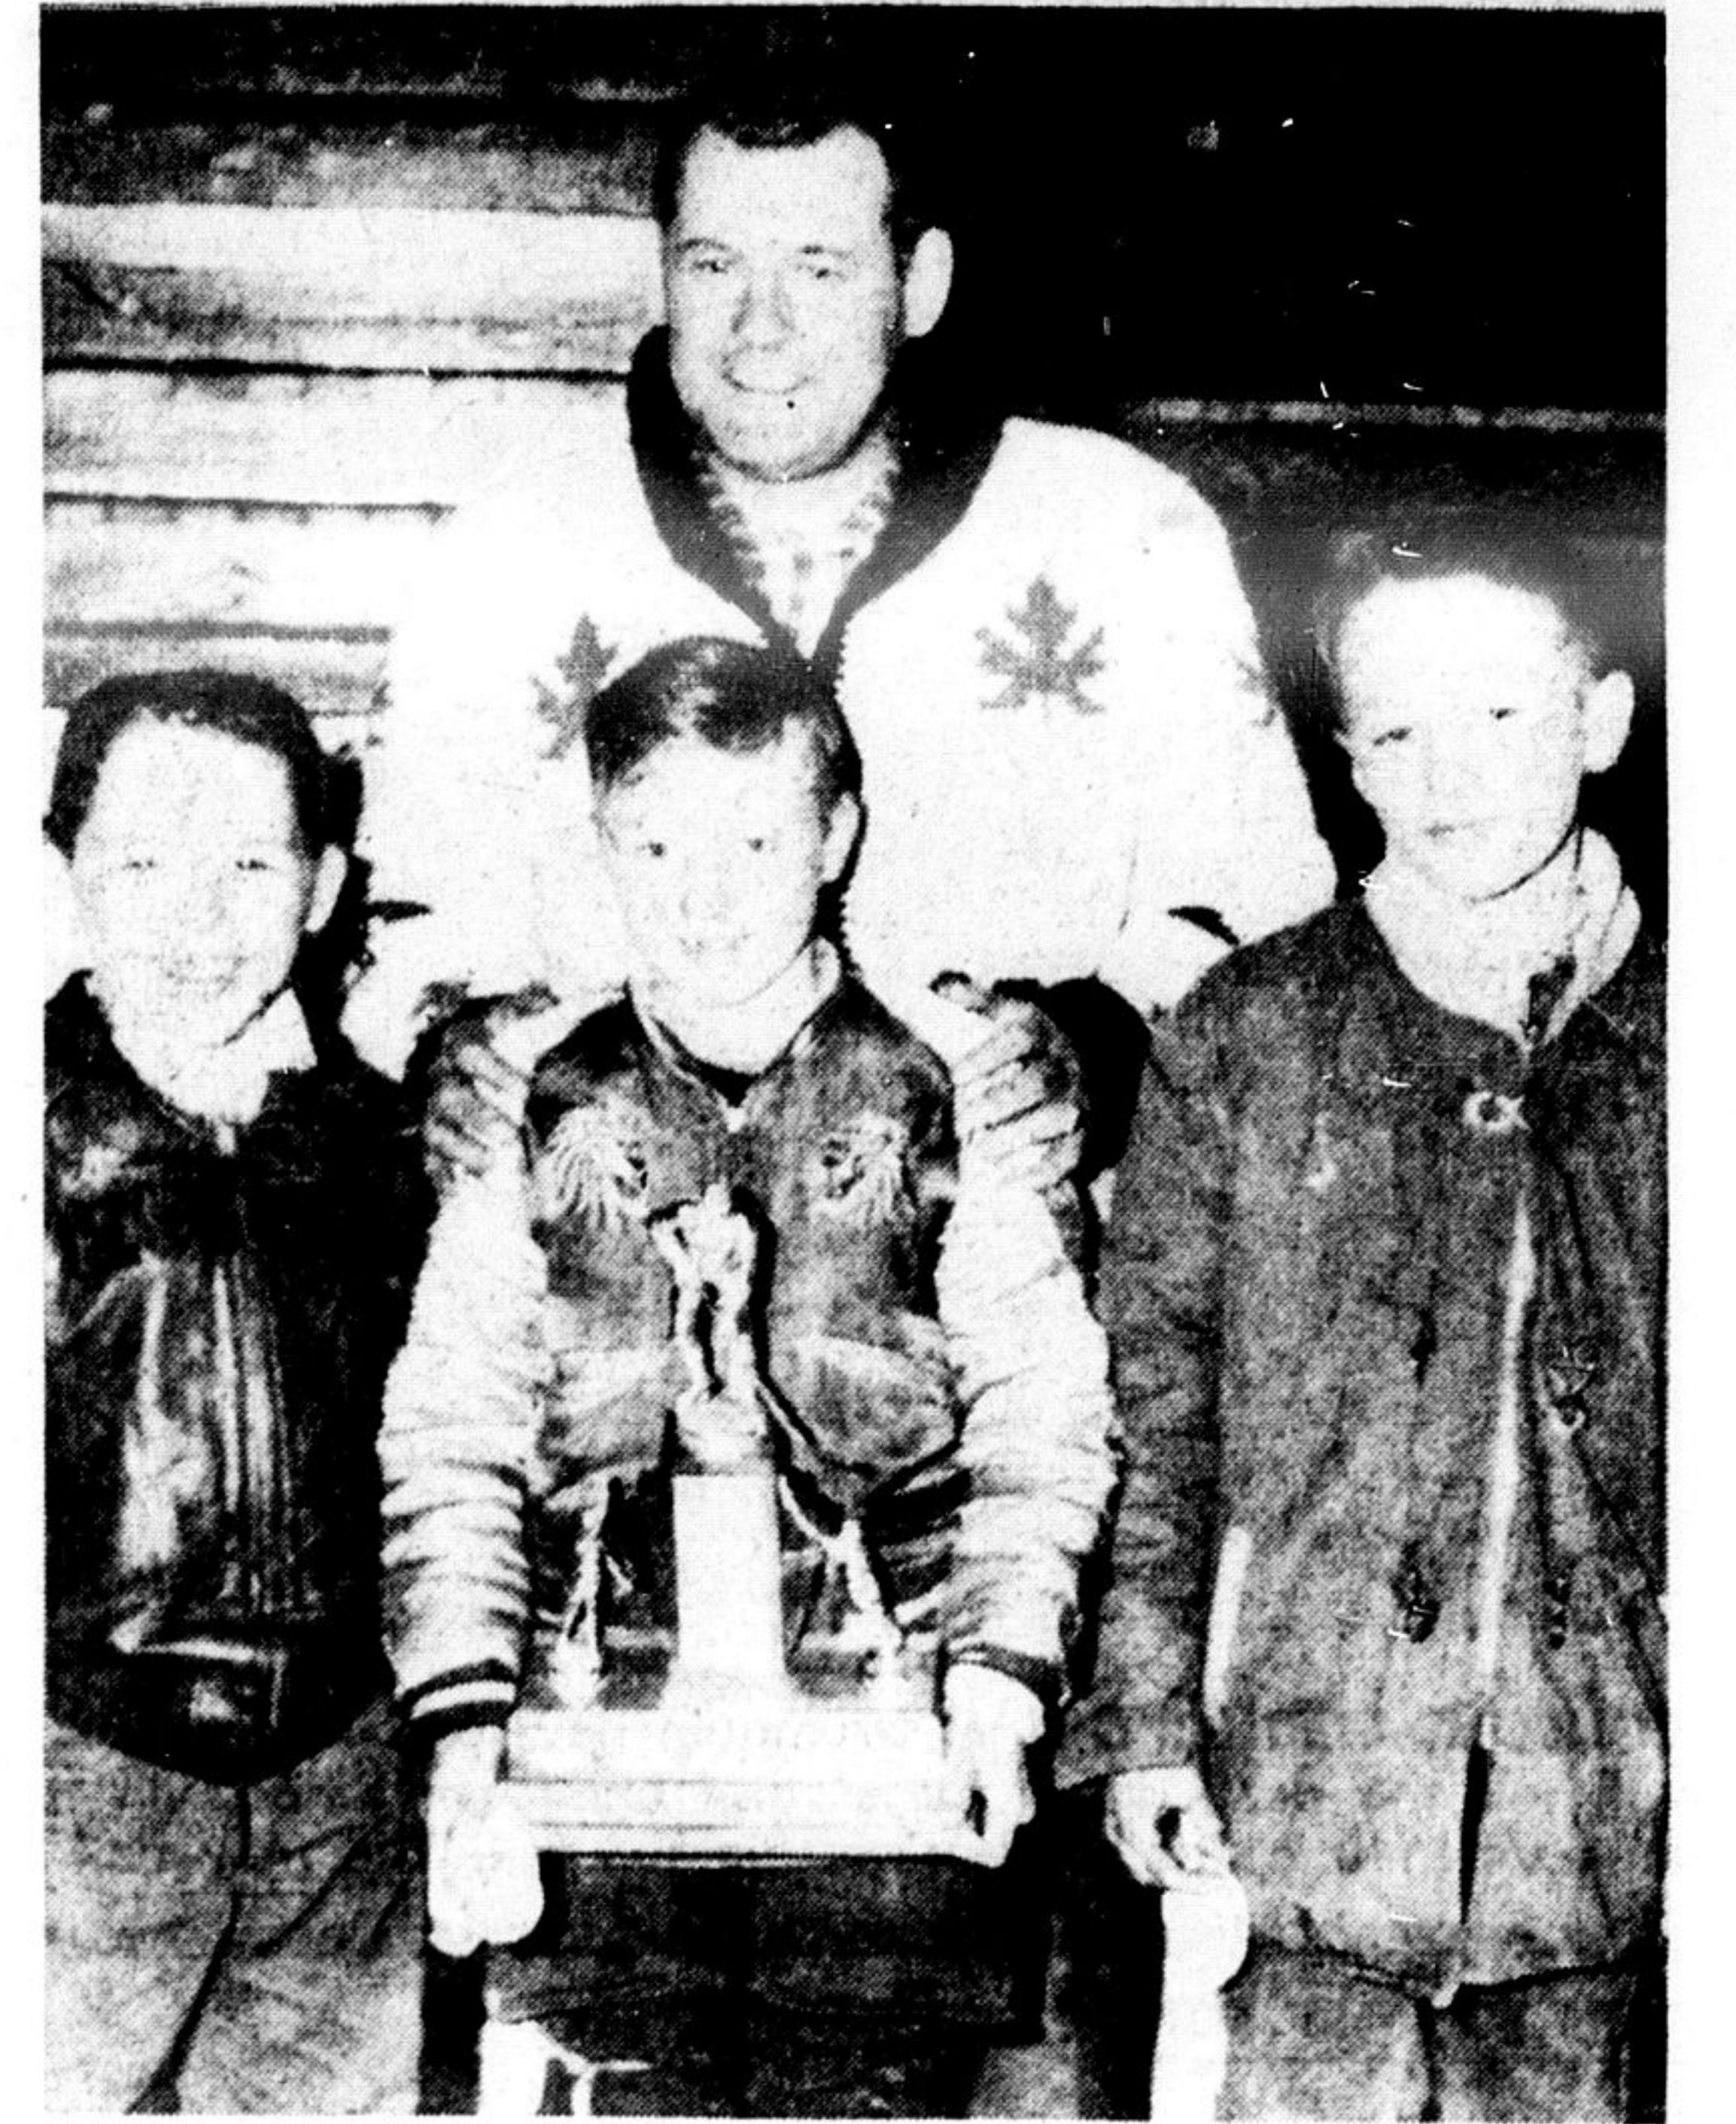

Following the game, crests were handed to all team members of the winning entries, and championship trophies were presented to captains of the day's big winners.

MINOR HOCKEY TOURNAMENT in Milton Saturday drew hundreds of friends and parents to watch the nine games (six preliminaries and three finals) by Milton, Georgetown, Orangeville and Acton players ranging in ages from eight to 13. Above a cheering crowd of mostly mothers root and holler for their young ice stars.

HEARTY HANDSHAKE of sportsmanship after Milton bowed out to the Orangeville bantams in the "C" playoffs Saturday was given Orangeville's team captain Keith Spears by Milton's captain, Bryan McDuffe. Milton clipped the Georgetown crew in the morning preliminary, but lost out to the overpowering Orangeville visitors 9-0 in the final.

ONLY MILTON CHAMPIONS of the tournament were Dave Brush's Kinsmen pee wees who nicked Georgetown for the four-town honors. Mr. Brush is shown here with team captain Ken Hilson (clutching trophy) and the scorers in the final game Kenny Desjardine and Craig Brush. Milton had tied the Georgetown crew one-all and Brush scored in overtime.

HAPPY MILTON PEE WEES were named Jr. A Pee Wee champions of the third annual four-town minor hockey tournament held in Milton arena all day Saturday. In the morning, coach Dave Brush led his Kinsmen-sponsored team to an 8-0 victory over the luckless Acton crew and in the afternoon final, Milton whipped Georgetown pee wees for the four-town championship by a 2-1 overtime score. Kenny Desjardine and Craig Brush, who scored the two goals, are shown in front of the team with Kinsmen sponsors and coaches.

Jobless Figure Decreasing

The unemployment figure seems to be dropping at a steady rate as the figures given out by the National Unemployment Service at Oakville reports 74 more people are now employed than last week.

Their jobless figure includes 301 males, a decrease of 63 over last week's 364, and 329 women, a decrease of 11 over last week's figure of 340. At the present time there are 1130 unemployed personnel in the Oakville - Bronte - Clarkson - Milton area.

The Employment Service states they have 33 unfilled male jobs and 40 unfilled female jobs. The number of job vacancies reported by employers are 51 male and 21 female.

The service placed 90 males and 33 females in jobs from March 14 to March 20.

At December 1, 1957, enrolment in Canada's universities was estimated at 36,500 full-time university grade students, an increase of about 11 per cent. from the previous year.

Acton Zoning Is Effective

ACTON—Representatives of the Ontario Municipal Board ruled Acton's new zoning by-law effective until April 30 of this year, when the council must file the by-law, complete with amendments directed by the Board.
