

Minor Hockey in Milton

Local youths involved in Milton's minor hockey organization will be marking the Milton minor hockey week of February 1-7 with two special events. Tuesday evening they'll be the guests of the Intermediate "B" club at the Merchants' home game against Bradford. On Friday night of next week, they'll stage four keen games of hockey for parents and friends at the Rotary-sponsored minor hockey night at the arena. The games will include a pee wee, bantam and midget game, and the local juvenile team will also play a league game to wind up the evening. The 10-year-old setup which now handles over 200 young boys is only a portion of the Canadian minor hockey scene which currently lists 150,000 boys actively engaged in the sport. Remember, TAKE — Don't send your boy to the arena!

Milton's 14 Teams

Last week the coaches of Milton's 14 minor hockey teams were pictured. This week the Champion takes pleasure in introducing the players of the three leagues in group photographs. From the top to bottom, left to right, teams include the Rotary-sponsored bantam teams Rangers, Buffalo, Canadiens, Cleveland, Springfield and Pittsburgh; the Kinsmen-sponsored pee wee loop including Detroit, Boston, Black Hawks and Maple Leafs; and the Rotary-sponsored midget loop including Milton Pharmacy, Department Store, Knight's and Ledwith's. The three leagues embrace over 200 boys who play shinny weekly on Saturday mornings, from 7.30 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.
