

Dr. G. R. Fenwick Praises Halton For Pioneering in Festivals

Parents and friends filled the Robert Little School Auditorium in Acton last Friday evening to hear the finals in the North Halton Urban Music Festival, as singers from Glen Williams, Norval, Stewarttown, Campbellville, Milton and Acton, competed in the last of a three day program.

Adjudicator for the evening, Dr. G. R. Fenwick of Toronto, reviewed the changes in music festivals from the first time he recalled being adjudicator in Milton years ago.

Mr. Fenwick noted that in earlier years the festival was a one day affair but due to the larger school area it was now necessary to hold the festival over a longer period of time.

The adjudicator recalled the work of a former music teacher in Acton, Miss Moore, under whose capable leadership Acton singers won many awards at music festivals in Halton.

Pioneers in Festivals
Dr. Fenwick also praised schools in Halton County for their pioneering in music festivals and for the fine singers always produced in Halton.

Supervising principal E. W. Foster of Milton was chairman for the evening's entertainment, and thanked the Acton School Board for allowing the festival to be held in the Acton school.

Presentation of awards was under the direction of R. F. Bornhold, public school inspector, who praised the singers for their fine entertainment during the evening.

Included on the program during the evening were selections by winners of junior, intermediate and senior competitions during the Wednesday events.

Taking part were: Campbellville choir, winners in the junior choir class, grades 4, 5 and 6 competition; Bruce Street School, Milton, first and M. Z. Bennett School, Acton, second in the junior choir, seven rooms and over class; Milton Bruce Street school duet, winners in the seven rooms and over class; Bruce Street School, Milton and M. Z. Bennett School, Acton, winner and runner-up in the intermediate choir class; Glen Williams and Campbellville choirs, winners and runners-up in the senior class six rooms and under; Holy Rosary School, Milton duet, winners in six rooms and under competition and Bruce Street, Milton and M. Z. Bennett schools, first and second place winners in the senior choirs seven rooms and over.

During the evening's competition Stewarttown school was presented with the Ruth Evans Trophy by Miss Evans for placing first in the triple trio class, six rooms and under and Campbellville as runners-up received a shield presented by Mrs. E. Martin.

Acton schools won top honors in the Boys' ensemble for changed voices, when the M. Z. Bennett school was presented the Acton Home and School trophy for first place and the Robert Little School was presented the Sarah Martin Chapter I.O.D.E. shield for second place. Mrs. C. Leatherland of Acton presented the trophy and Mrs. F. W. Thompson of Milton presented the shield.

In the triple trio competition, seven rooms and over, Acton's M. Z. Bennett School excelled themselves and took first place honors and were presented with the White Oaks Chapter I.O.D.E. trophy by Acton school teacher, D. Copeland and the W. I. Dick School placed second and received Ellis Brothers shield, from Acton Robert Little School principal, G. W. McKenzie. Mr. Foster thanked the parents and guests for their interest in attending the festival and praised the fine efforts of the school music teachers in developing the fine talent.

School trustee Murray Smith extended a welcome on behalf of the board.

First in low-cost luxury!

Here's how you can have the luxury you want in your new car without paying a penalty in price.

Ford has the clean, elegant look of classic design, with a rich exterior finish that never needs waxing. Inside, there's thick foam-cushioning in the front seat, more head and leg room for passengers and interior fabrics and trim that say "luxury" at a glance. Yet model for model, Fords are the lowest-priced full-sized cars in Canada.

Nor is this Ford policy of giving you "extra value" limited to the purchase price. For example, Ford's powerful, modern Mileage Maker Six takes you as far as 24 miles on every gallon of regular gas.

Visit your Ford Dealer today and find out why the new Fords are first in low-cost luxury.
