Barber Shop Quartette, Lorne Scots Band Guests

On Monday, May 25, in a very enjoyable atmosphere of fun and informality, the residents heard a program of barber-shop singing presented for them by 16 members of the Oakville Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartette Singing in America. These 16 gentlemen had brought with them Mrs. Isobel Tate whose lovely voice added much to the enjoyment of the program.

The evening's entertainment was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Oakville, with Mr. Keith Warren, Chairman of the Senior Citizens' Committee of the Club, acting as convener. The Barber-shoppers wore their striking costumes of pink shirts, dark trousers, and green bowties with red satin bands. After greetings to the residents had been extended by Mr. Warren the singers took over and presented a very gay and tuneful program. They were led in very capable fashion by their leader Mr. Bob Mitchell. Their first song, "Hello to Everybody," was followed by the theme song of all barber shop singers, The Old Songs. The singers then proceeded to sing a program of old songs, songs that appealed to their audience very much. Among others, the songs When You and I Were Young Maggie, The Oceana Roll and Sweet and Low were sung.

Four of the group formed a quartette to sing Yona from Arizona and The County Fair. Then with the quartette singing Lida Rose Mrs. Tate sang a counter-melody Dream of Love from the Broadway show, The Music Man.

This was followed by the song I Believe sung by Mrs. Tate and the entire group. Mrs. Tate's lovely voice won great admiration in these selections as did the singing of the group and the quartette also in all their selections. A final barber-shop chorus Keep America Singing brought the vocal part of the entertainment to a close.

Under Mr. Warren's direction the barber-shoppers then proceeded to act as a refreshment committee and served ice cream and cookies and soft drinks to the audience. Altogether it was a delightfully amusing and heart-lifting evening and the residents appreciate the efforts of Mr. Warren, the Kiwanis Club of Oakville and the Oakville Chapter of Barber-shop singers in planning and carrying out such an enjoyable program.

See Auntie Mame

On Thursday afternoon, May 28, the residents were the guests of the Management of the Roxy Theatre in Milton at a complimentary showing of the film Auntie Mame. Mr. Allen, the superintendent of the Manor, had arranged for the transportation of all those going to the theatre by providing motor cars. The cool theatre was a very refreshing place in which to spend the afternoon, since the weather out-of-doors was quite warm and humid. This striking picture with its beautiful color photography by Technicolor and shown on a wide screen displayed the excellent acting abilities of Rosalind Russell and the other members of a very competent cast.

The residents appreciate greatly this generous gesture on the part of the Management of the Roxy Theatre.

Concert Outdoors

On Thursday evening, May 28, from about 8 o'clock until after the shades of night had fallen, the residents enjoyed an outdoor concert presented for them by the Lorne Scots Military Band of the P.D. & H. Regiment. The concert was given by kind permission of the Commanding officer, Lt. Col. A. Kemp, and was conducted by Lieut. E. G. Corlett.

As is always the case with programs played by this fine band, the music was of the finest calibre and was made especially interesting by the fact that it will be used in the forthcoming trooping of the colors with the Argyll Regiment in Hamilton. Such well-known marches as The Thin Red Line, The Middy, Men of Harlech and Soldiers of the Queen were interspersed among less well-known selections by Schumann, Handel, Purcell and Hayden.

A touch of Broadway was given by the playing of the love-song Dancing in the Dark. The music sounded very soft and sweet on the Spring air and since it was a perfect night the residents heard it from the porch and the open windows.

Other outdoor concerts by this fine band would be greatly anticipated throughout the summer.

Gideons Sponsors

On Sunday afternoon, May 21, a very inspiring service was conducted in the chapel under the auspices of the Society of Gideons. Mr. Andrew T. Dalby and Mr. Stan Wright of Oakville had charge of the service and Mrs. Doris Hewery, Mrs. Dalby's daughter, was the very capable pianist for the well-known hymns that were sung.

Mr. Wright read Psalm 55 as the scripture reading and Mr. Dalby delivered a sermon that was both inspiring and interesting based on this same Psalm.

Psalm 55, Mr. Dalby explained, was based on an experience that David had when he was an old man and had begun to lose his one-time strength and vigor. His son Absalom, to whom he was much devoted, had the ambition to replace his father as king of Israel and David had been forced to seek refuge in the mountains. Here he longed to have the wings of a dove that he might fly away from his troubles. Mr. Dalby explained that it is better to imitate the eagle rather than the dove, and rise above our troubles, for if we cast our burdens upon the Lord He will sustain us. Mr. Dalby added to the inspiration of this very fine service by singing as a solo the hymn Under His Wings. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hower at the piano.

Gala Parade, Morning of Tests To Decide Bike Rodeo Winners

A parade of children and bicycles from Victoria Park to the Ontario Steel parking lot at nine o'clock this coming Saturday morning will kick off the start of the Milton Safety Council's bicycle rodeo, expected to take all morning. As many as 500 children are expected to join in the big parade which will be led by the Lorne Scots pipe band.

Participants are asked to assemble early. They will parade on bikes five abreast in four age groups.

Win Trophy, Bike

On arrival at the parking lot, the children will be allowed to try six tests to qualify them for points. First prize winner for both the boys and girls will receive a large trophy for his school, a smaller replica for themselves, and a new bicycle. Three runners-up will also receive trophies, and other gifts have been donated by merchants. Prizes are in Lecoq's Harness Shop window on Main St. and Milton Pharmacy on Martin St.

Will Lose Points
Constable Ron Rupert of Milton O.P.P. who will be in charge of the rodeo, said points will be deducted from the 50 available in each test, if contestants are careless, sloppy or wobbly in the test strips. Application cards signed by parents will admit the contestants to the grounds, and anyone found breaking the riding rules will lose their right to enter the contest.

Assisting safety council members on the course will be members of the Shifters car club, Kinsmen club of Milton, and the Milton area fire brigade.
