Mrs. R. Parker is Hostess At W.M.S. June Meeting

The June meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. David's Church was held at the home of Mrs. R. Parker with the president, Mrs. A. T. Moore, presiding. The meeting was opened by singing I need thee every hour, followed with prayer by Mrs. R. Elliot.

Reports were given by the following secretaries: Mrs. Elliott, secretary; Mrs. E. D. Mahon, treasurer; Mrs. Menzies, cheer. Thirteen ladies answered this roll call using the word Faith.

Miss E. Kennedy read the scripture lesson. Prior to the topic taken by Miss E. J. McPhail, one verse of the hymn, My faith looks up to thee, was sung by request. Miss McPhail dealt chiefly with several of the good Kings who by the way had good mothers. Miss McPhail's address was very informative and helpful.

A letter was read, written by Rev. James Dickson, missionary in Formosa, who after telling of their different kinds of work asked for prayers, especially for the important work of training leaders for the church. This letter was very interesting and well worth reading.

The prayer partners chosen for the next meeting are Rev. James and Mrs. Dickson.

This letter may be received by sending to the office, 63 George St., Toronto.

The last three verses of My faith looks up to thee was sung. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. K. Mahon.

A social period followed with Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Greenlees assisting the hostess.

Preceding the meeting a quilt was quilted for the Bale.
