

MARY ISABEL FREEMAN, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman, of R.R. 1, Campbellville, became the bride of Charles Ray Stokes, son of Mrs. Stokes and the late James Stokes of R.R. 2, Campbellville, on Saturday, August 29. Rev. Slinn assisted by Ken Griffith performed the ceremony at Ebenezer United Church.

M.D.H. Women's Auxiliary is Busy Planning Gala Garden Party, Bazaar September 12

As summer's heat clears, the Women's Auxiliary of Milton District Hospital is busy with plans for a garden party and bazaar for the afternoon of Saturday, September 12th from 2:30 to 6:00 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ostler on Campbell Avenue. Tea will be served by Milton Girl Guides in the back garden overlooking the ravine from 2:30 until 6:00. A cooling breeze is assured, so this should be a good spot to relax and chat while admiring the view and enjoying all sorts of dainty sandwiches and delicious cookies and cakes. Also you can see what lies ahead for you as a fortune teller will roam from table to table ready to forecast your future in the tea leaves.

From Soup to Nuts
A variety of booths will be set up offering literally everything for sale from soup to nuts until 8:00.

Those of you with babies and small children on your Christmas shopping list will be interested in the baby gift booth. Members of this committee have been knitting all summer so that a wide selection of knitted goods can be offered for sale. In addition, there will be toys, rattles, blouses, aprons and many other articles.

You'll have no worries about what to have for dinner that Saturday after seeing the delicious assortment of food at the refrigerated delicatessen counter. Jellied salads, roasted chickens, meat loaves, pie shells, tossed salads, salad dressings and pastries are just a few of the mouth-watering items offered.

For Your Appetite
You can choose dessert from the home baking booth and whether your taste runs to cookies, cakes, pies or candies, you're sure to find something to tempt your appetite.

Saturday's tables should have most attractive centre pieces after you visit the booth featuring floral arrangements in becoming containers and a variety of cut flowers. To help you with gardening, you will also find guide books, bulbs and plants for sale.

Two booths of particular interest to the children will be the hot dog and soft drink booth and a candy booth featuring special all day suckers.

Special Booth
Everyone likes a surprise and so there will be a special "touch and take" booth. You touch any of the attractively wrapped gifts and (for a price) can take it home to unwrap and enjoy.

During the afternoon a Women's Auxiliary membership thermometer will be kept rising. As each new membership is bought, the mercury will rise a notch. It is hoped that this temperature will reach well up into the hundreds.

Between 4:00 and 5:00, Mr. Carl Martin, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Milton District Hospital, will draw the name of the winner of the 42-piece chest of silver.

Saturday, September 12th is an afternoon planned for the enjoyment of all (husbands please note). Arrange to come over to Campbell Avenue with your friends and make this garden party a big success.

Yellow, White Theme in Gowns, Flowers at Summer Marriage

Ebenezer United church was decorated with yellow and white gladiolus for the marriage of Mary Isabel Freeman and Charles Ray Stokes on Saturday afternoon, August 29 at 3:30 p.m. Rev. Slinn, assisted by Kenneth Griffiths, performed the ceremony, while Miss Margaret Early played the organ. Mr. Griffiths sang the Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman of R.R. 1, Campbellville. The groom is the son of Mrs. Stokes, R.R. 2, Campbellville, and the late Mr. James Stokes.

Carry Carnations
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white nylon net with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace trimmed with seeds pearls and sequins. The sleeves were long and fully pointed, and the neckline scalloped. A seed pearl cap held her fingertip veil of nylon net with sequins. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Carol Freeman, the sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and three cousins of the bride were bridesmaids. Miss Marlene Shepherd, Burlington; Miss Ruth Freeman, Milton and Miss Gertrude Freeman, Rockwood. The maid of honor's gown was of white embroidered organza over yellow nylon net and taffeta, with a wide yellow sash and bow at the back. She carried a cascade of white carnations with green ribbon.

The bridesmaids' gowns were of white organza over green, with green sashes. Their white carnations bouquets were accented by yellow ribbons. All wore white flowered headdresses.

Groomsman was Allan Stokes, brother of the groom. The ushers were Douglas Anderson, uncle of the bride, and Leonard Stokes, brother of the groom.

80 Guests

About 80 guests gathered following the ceremony in the church parlor. Friends and relatives offering congratulations came from Milton, Acton, Burlington, Guelph, Kildare, Dundas, Rockwood, Milton Heights, Moffat, Campbellville and the surrounding district.

The bride's mother received the guests wearing an aqua silk sheath with matching bolero with three-quarter length sleeves and a self bow at the waist. She wore white accessories with a corsage of pink carnations.

PLANNING A PARTY is a big chore but worth the effort, according to the ladies of the Milton District Hospital women's auxiliary. Hard at work finalizing details of the group's September 12 garden party at Mrs. John Ostler's are the president and members of the ways and means committee — Mrs. Noel Holland, president Mrs. P. K. McWilliams, convener Mrs. J. Ostler and Mrs. K. Y. Dick, seated and Mrs. George Hood, Mrs. Joe Kelson and Mrs. F. S. McOuat. Mrs. F. McNiven of this committee was absent for the picture.

POET'S CORNER
OFF TO SCHOOL
Oh, he has a merry chatter,
And he sings around the house,
But my mother heart is troubled,
So I frown and am a grouse.
He's a bag upon his shoulder,
That he fills with book and tool,
See me grieve and find no comfort,
For my baby's off to school.
Tells the butcher and the baker,
He is now a great big man,
And I put my arms around him,
Feast my eyes on cheeks of tan.
He crows about the suit and shoes,
He has safe upon a stool,
I sigh and mourn and hide a tear,
For my baby's off to school.
He's learned to tie his shoe lace,
That by teacher he'll be led,
I taught him at the traffic light,
Not to cross upon the red.
He asks the Lord to hurry time,
As he lips the "Golden Rule",
I pray that God will keep him safe
For my baby's off to school.
—Helen Hills.

Adults Too
Parents are looking forward to back-to-school in two ways these days... besides having to prepare the children with books and clothing and a dozen other things, parents are thinking of going back to school themselves.
Of course it's night school, sponsored locally by the Milton and District Advisory Committee on Adult Education. The school last year was so successful that a record of attendance of nearly 400 was enrolled.

Need A Crowd
President Mrs. S. W. Gazley warned that the attendance at an open meeting September 14th will largely determine this year's night school continuance. She said the meeting would decide what courses should be offered this year and a large attendance is necessary in order for a full discussion on the school's courses.
Classes will be held every Tuesday night beginning in November, secretary Mrs. Mae Johnson reported.
