A DOUBLE PLAY in the seventh inning of a game that was halted twice on account of rain was the final effort Saturday to give Milton Red Sox the title. A grounder to Ron Shannon which he relayed to Glen Dance covering second base, who in turn made the throw to first in time, retired the Zurich squad in their last vital effort to get back into the running in a series that was lopsided for all but two innings in the first game. That was when Zurich came from behind to tie the count late in the game and Doug Hyatt had to bang out a home run to win the tilt.

After making the 110 mile trip on the Saturday previous and being rained out, the boys were certainly anxious to get the series on its way. Saturday they arrived there to meet the same conditions for the second week in a row, the game having to be called at the end of the third and again in the fifth. They only got seven innings in as darkness was setting in early after the rain.

The club arrived back in town Saturday night about 11 o'clock with all cars coming in together. Although a few people had tried to get a reception to Milton in the last ten years and the first "B" title since 1930, it was all in vain as it seemed the people who have the say in matters of this kind where not in the receptive mood. No horn honking was the order of the day for all cars in the caravan which boasted at least a dozen cars. They were met by the local constabulary at the edge of town with the order.

However the night turned out to be a success as Len Ste. Marie, president of the ball club hosted the entire lot of players and their mates in a shindig at his house.

With winning this title and having a new grandstand at the fairgrounds, there should certainly be more interest in the game next

Saturday night the club is holding its annual dance at the Legion Hall to celebrate the big victory at which time the most valuable player will be decided by the players of the team. Local insurance agent Bob McCuaig has donated a trophy to be presented to the M.V.P. for the first time this year.

THE BALL SEASON having almost come to an end in town has set the stage for the hockey term to get under way. The ice should be ready for skating Saturday night with the clubs being able to take their blades out of storage for practise this weekend as well. Nothing has yet been done about minor hockey locally. With the rest of the leagues in town as well as the minor pucksters in other towns all set up ready to go, it looks as if our boys had better get cracking to avoid the mix up they had last year which kept the starting date well back.

The Merchants are going to be busy with the Tuesday, October 27 game they have scheduled with the Tiger Cubs just two weeks away. A possible Sunday tilt on November 1 has been suggested with the proceeds to go to the hospital fund but nothing definite has been established. The Oakville Senior club has been mentioned as the opposition for the game. Meanwhile the league will probably get under way during the week following that and a meeting here next Monday night will set up a schedule for the seven team loop.

Also the Industrial leaguers are busy again with a meeting they held last night to determine entries and they will probably be rolling by next week. The Sport and Cycle juveniles held their organizational meet for the 59-60 season Tuesday night and are looking to another top ice term this year. They are defending champs in the popular Tri-County Juvenile hockey league.

SPORTOPICS

The National Hockey leaguers started their schedule last night which ends sometime in the middle of March . . . The Leafs start their session at home Saturday night in their usual slot when Imlach, Mahovlich, Olmstead and company will open at home in the first of 24 Saturday night fixures at the gardens . . . Montreal Canadiens are still the same powerhouse and will likely dominate the league again this year with the Richards and Doug Harvey setting the pace. Detroit has made seven lineup changes to add to Gordie Howe's 50 minutes per game and should be a lot stronger this term . . . Boston is about the same with Don Simmons and Harry Lumley battling for the goalie's job while in New York the addition of Ian Cushenan and Brian Cullen to the Blueshirts has stiffened their outlook . . . Chicago has a pappy line of Tod Sloan at centre between Ted Lindsay on the left side and Eddie Litzenberger at right wing and with Ron Murphy back in action after a fractured ankle sidelined him last winter . . . An early choice from this corner for the six teams to finish has Canadiens, Leafs, New York, Chicago, Detroit and Boston in that order.

Bill Dobbyn a hockey player who lost an eye playing for Buffalo last year and now ineligible to play in Canada or the U.S.A. as a result of the handicap has solved the problem and is going to play in Britain for the coming season . . . The N.H.L.ers play every night in the week for the first time this year with Saturday and Sunday nighs the main choice . . . Don Currie and Jim Forbes leave Friday night to attend the Tiger Cubs training camp in Hamilton .

The Red Sox had a lineup from Junior baseball days in town Saturday with Dance, Shannon and Hannant and a Campbellville junior product Ron Phillips. Hilson pitching made a fifth product from minor ball . . . Bob Irvin, for many years trainer of hockey clubs in Milton has donated the trophy in his name which is given to the most gentlemanly player on the team. The trophy was first brought into being during he Co-Op days and this year will go to a member of the Merchants club . . . Bronte is on the short end of making three champs from Halton County and unless they pull up their sox they will miss out in joining Campbellville and Milton

. . . They lost Sunday at home to Caledonia to give Caledonia a 2-1 lead in games in the best of five series . . . Bouquets (or should it be drying towels) to the Bob Knuckle-coached high school footballers for their win over Acton here Tuesday afternoon . . . The game was won under very wet conditions on a sloppy field.

GREATEST THRILL IN SPORT: Wayne Hilson, the tall right hander who has pitched mostly relief ball this year for the Red Sox, using a fast ball to good value, is guest this week. Wayne hurled a terrific ball game in Zurich Saturday that gave Milton the championship and for Wayne it is just hard to believe that he came through.

Wayne is a product of Milton's minor baseball system and although he hasn't always been a pitcher he is on the trail to becoming a top moundsman for the locals. Originally Wayne was a first sacker and then he went to the outfield with the juniors before joining the mound staff of the Sox.

Lawrence Hilson, Wayne's father told him on Saturday morning that if he drew the pitching assignment to take his time and bear down and he would come through. Apparently that is what he did because he came through with flying colors and a big broad grin.

HOW ABOUT THAT: HOME-A place where a man can always do as he pleases if he is a bachelor.

The usual quiet Red Sox bats erupted in every game and most of the hits were for extra bases. Much credit must also go to ace lefthander Butch Riddell who sported a 4 win-0 loss playoff record, Hilson and Nip Gervais also recorded playoff wins.

On their return to Milton the team enjoyed a victory ride around town followed by a large motor-

Those were the only hits of the 10 Roberts allowed that did any damage. He walked two and struck out six. It was Roberts' 16th victory of the year and his fourth of the play-offs to tie him with Harry Hamilton in that department.

In trying to keep the series alive. Hamilton started their ace southpaw, Albert Runtes, who took a season's record of nine wins against no defeats into the series. Runtes was sharp but unfortunately for Hamilton, not quite sharp enough. In six and one-third innings, he allowed seven runs off eight hits. He walked four, hit one batter and struck out eight.

Up until the sixth inning, Runtes allowed only two hits, but he weakened in the sixth and allowed six hits in one and one-third innings. Carl Shields hurled hitless ball for the Red Sox over the final inning and a third.
