Address, Music, Pipers' Numbers Slides in Varied W.I. Program

The 1959-1960 season of entertainment by outside groups was ushered in most favorably on Tuesday evening, October 13, by a group of visitors from Acton under the sponsorship of the Acton Women's Institute. Before the program began and while the audience was assembling, Mrs. James Bradshaw played several very melodious piano solos such as Bless This House and The Bells of St. Mary's.

In her usual gracious way, Mrs. George Fryer, the president of the Acton Women's Institute, extended greetings to the residents and announced the program. The first section of the program was of a sacred nature and was conducted by Rev. G. Holmes, pastor of the Acton Baptist church. During this part of the program, Mr. Holmes delivered a very comforting address based on the theme of the abiding presence of God.

Musical Selections

Throughout the program, several vocal and instrumental selections were presented by very talented singers and instrumentalists. Several cornet and piano duets by Mr. Charles Landsborough and his daughter Helen, and several vocal duets by Mrs. Veldhuis and Miss Dorothy Simmons, were greatly enjoyed. Several numbers by a kazoo band made up of seven members of the Institute aroused much amusement.

A stirring part of the program came next. It consisted of instrumental selections, Scottish dances, and drills performed by 17 boys and girls belonging to the Acton Boys' and Girls' Pipe Band, under the very capable supervision of Mr. P. Caddick. The band presented a colorful picture as they were dressed in their plaid kilts and scarlet tunics, and made a great impression upon the audience.

A very enjoyable portion of the program followed the pipers. Mrs. A. J. Buchanan showed a large number of most attractive colored slides taken during a trip in Belgium, Holland and Austria. Before the pictures were shown, Mrs. Buchanan gave an eloquent summary of the march of events in these countries between the outbreak of war in 1939 and the present time, and while the actual showing of the pictures was progressing, she furnished an interesting and appropriate commentary. Mr. James Bradshaw ran the projector for Mrs. Buchanan.

This very acceptable program was followed by a social hour during which the Institute ladies served a delicious lunch of tea, sandwiches and small confections.

Hobby Class

The opening meeting of the Halton Manor Hobby Class for the current 1959-1960 season was held in the dining room of the Manor on Wednesday afternoon, October 7th, with 18 members attending. Mrs. S. Lockie, the director and Mrs. S. Allen, the assistant director were in charge of the meeting.

A box of supplies for the class, received as the result of a shower held by the Blair Evening Auxiliary of St. David's church, Campbellville, was displayed and gratefully acknowledged. A new afghan that had been finished for showing at the Milton Fall Fair was displayed and plans made to start the completion of a new quilt.

The prize winning knitted articles shown by Mrs. Forbes, Mr. Viggers and Miss Ford, at the Milton Fair, were displayed for the members. It was a pleasure to have at this meeting, for the first time, Mrs. Earl Mongraw, matron. It was also a pleasure to welcome back from Georgetown, where they are residing for the present, Miss Harriet Metcalfe and Miss Elizabeth Hannant.

Thanksgiving Dinner

The Thanksgiving Day weekend was observed in a number of enjoyable ways at the Manor. At noon on Thanksgiving Sunday, the residents enjoyed a delicious roast turkey dinner, which included pumpkin pie and all the trimmings. Their special favors for the day were little paper horns of plenty, filled with candy and these had been supplied by the November group of the Church Year of St. Christopher's Anglican church at Burlington.

In the afternoon, a service appropriate for Thanksgiving Day was conducted by Rev. E. Orsborn, assisted by Mrs. Lockie at the piano. Mr. Orsborn read psalm 103 as the scripture lesson and then delivered an inspiring sermon based on chapters 27 and 28 of the Book of Acts.

After explaining that the Apostle Paul was making a long sea voyage to Rome to appear before the emperor, Mr. Orsborn described how the ship in which Paul was sailing was driven onto one of the islands of the Mediterranean. Here Paul and his companions were greeted by the barbarians of the island. When they were warming themselves at a fire, Paul laid a bundle of sticks on the fire. Mr. Orsborn drew an analogy between this simple act, seemingly so unimportant, and the kindly deeds that Christian persons can do for each other.

At the close of the service, Mrs. Lockie remained for a half hour in which she played the piano in order that the residents might enjoy the singing of a number of familiar hymns.

Color Films

On the night of Thanksgiving Day, Mr. Allen, the superintendent of the Manor, added to the enjoyment of the day by showing three very attractive colored films. The first film, Carnival in Quebec, showed scenes at the annual three week winter carnival in Quebec City. Typical of these scenes were pictures taken of International Dog Derby and the Mardi Gras parade.

The second film depicted the beauty of Waterton National Park, the Canadian National Park where British Columbia, Alberta and Montana meet at the International Boundary. North to Wales was the title of the third film. This film showed the beaches, waterfalls, mountains and castles which, among other things, have made Wales famous.

Character Study

Rev. D. A. Powell, with Mrs. Ray Waters as pianist, conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, October 18. Mr. Powell's sermon was a character study of the Psalmist who composed the 73rd Psalm. Like all the Jews of his time, the Psalmist believed that the Godly should and did prosper while the wicked were unsuccessful.

Yet, though he observed all the religious duties required of him, he found that he himself was not prospering in a material way. He asked the question: "How can there be a living God when I am treated this way?" In time he came to see that spiritual wealth is far superior to material wealth, and a faith like his can steady us in our own day and generation.

Council Approves Accounts Payment

At the regular meeting of Milton Council Monday night payment of the following accounts was approved: Streets and walks $2,509.45; waterworks $1,393.95; light and police $944.57; properties and contingencies $304.44; sewers and sanitation $1,589.98; finance $5,795.32; capital $2,117.80.

Double Yolkers No Golden Eggs

It doesn't have to be a goose laying golden eggs to get into the news these days. This time it's a goose laying 14 single and two double-yolked eggs! It's an unusual time of year for these creatures to produce.

W. Munson of R.R. 3, Georgetown is the owner of the proud goose, who's been sitting a week on the 14. They're due to hatch in mid-November.
