FIRE PREVENTION POSTERS drawn by 10-year-old Susan Popplewell of Oakwood School, Oakville, and 11-year-old John Gates of S.S. 3 school, Nassagaweya, won the Halton Fire Prevention Bureau's annual county wide contest for grade five pupils this year. Last week they were honored at a banquet in the Milton fire hall, and awarded trophies. Shown with the winners are Chief Ken Putnam of the Kitchener Fire Department which judged the posters, president Craig Reed of the Halton Farmers Mutual Insurance Company which donated the large trophies for yearly competition, and H.C.F.P.B. Co-ordinator Doug Wilson of Oakville, who awarded the miniature desk sets to the winners.

On Bench

OAKVILLE-Mrs. Jessie Steen, 52 Pine Ave., now has a nice new park bench to sit on while waiting for the bus at the corner of Pine and Reynolds.

Mrs. Steen, in a letter to the Oakville Parks Board, said she had previously had to sit on a tree stump while waiting for the bus and requested a bench. Board members agreed she should have a bench.
